CHEERING

At the basketball game Saturday night, Milne High paraded forth her poor sports. A group of Milne students took it upon themselves to cheer for the opposing team and boo our team. Do we want this, Milnites? No. Milne High has for many years had a good sportsmanship record. This spirit of sportsmanship is a tradition of the school. We are not going to throw our traditions to the winds, are we? Come on, you sports of Milne, and show these backsliders what it's all about!

To have loyal Milnites on the sidelines is as important as to have a good basketball team. Whether we win or lose is not so important as good sportsmanship at the right time. Put yourself in the position of the team. When they were playing and doing their best, this group of Milnites cheered for the opposing team. It was only the super sportsmanship of the team that made them go on and fight and win last Saturday.

OBEYING TRAFFIC RULES

It has been noticed lately that disrespect has been shown toward our traffic officers. We should do something to correct this disrespectful attitude toward them. These officers are obeying the rules of the school, and we are disobeying them when we refuse to listen to their warnings. Let us remember that we have a reputation to live up to and that we are not doing so by disobeying our traffic officers.

Question:

Should the girls' basketball teams compete with other schools?

Answers:

Bob Gilson: "Yes. It would improve the school spirit. With just the boys' basketball games the girls feel out of it."

Priscilla Simpson: "Yes. It would give the girls experience."

Wilbur Barnes: "Yes, because the girls of other high schools have basketball teams to play the girls' teams of other schools. Why shouldn't our girls have teams?"

Verna Perkins: "Yes. I think it would help to interest the pupils of Milne in girls' basketball as well as in boys' basketball."

PIRATE ROSE IS GOOD BOOK

Have you read Pirate Rose by Martha Bush? It is a story about a girl and her brother who went to live on a prairie. Read how they conquered the scarlet fever and had many interesting and exciting adventures. This book is in the Milne High Library.

Home room 124 has an entertainment every Tuesday. Last Tuesday the members of the room had a talent program. Fortune Telling and Dare were games they played. The president of the club is Jean McDermott, and John Hawkins is chairman of the entertainment committee. The other members of the committee are elected by the class.
