Class Reunions

Particular emphasis will be laid on the reunions of the one-year, three-year and five-year classes, as well as on those of all decennial classes.

Alumni Luncheon

A buffet luncheon will be served by the Alumni Association at 1:00 p. m. in the gymnasium. Everyone who attends is asked to purchase a luncheon ticket at 50 cents when he registers.

College Plaza Stunts

After luncheon the classes of 1919, 1918, 1916, 1914, and any others which arrange stunts will entertain us on the College Plaza. Class or college songs and yells will be in order. From 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. will be given over to fun-making and a general renewal of youthful spirits.

To the class putting on the most clever stunt a silver cup will be awarded. After being inscribed with the name of the winning class and the date, this cup will be kept at the college as the property of the winning class until the next year, when it will again be awarded to the class having the best stunt.

A silver cup to be known as the Truman D. Cameron, '51, Cup is offered to the class (exclusive of 1919) having the largest percentage of its alumni present on Alumni Day. The same plan will be followed for marking and caring for this cup as for the Stunt Cup.

SUMMER SESSION

July 7 to August 16

Registration for the third Summer Session will occur on Monday, July 7, and instruction will begin on Tuesday, July 8. Dean Harlan H. Horner who will be the director of the session has already registered about 100 regular College students and expects a large registration of teachers on the opening day. A community chorus will be conducted each Monday evening by Mr. Russell Carter, the leader of the Albany Community Chorus. The first sing will be held Monday evening, July 7, on the steps of the main building. The public is invited. An informal reception for students and faculty will be held in the College gymnasium on Friday evening, July 11. Each Friday evening thereafter will be devoted to social entertainments in the gymnasium. Fifty different courses will be offered in 14 departments as follows: Biology, Commercial Education, Economics, Education, English, Fine Arts, French, Government, History, Home Economics, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, Spanish. Special courses of particular interest include:

a. A three weeks course for double periods daily under the auspices of the State Education Department on "Principles of Immigrant Education."

b. Courses in "Principles of Teaching and Class Room Organization in Elementary Schools" and in "Educational Measurements" by Mr. Lamont F. Hodge, Asst-

Valentine's leave of absence until February 1, 1920. Miss Valentine is doing Canteen work with the Vassar Unit in France and cannot secure her release before October.

Dr. Brubacher was authorized to get in touch with the Bureau of U. S. Inter-Department Hygiene, Washington, D. C., with a view to establishing at State College a department of Hygiene. The government is offering to establish these courses in colleges and universities throughout the country, in order to secure better physical health of young people by training college people for leaders.

Details concerning departments in Educational Research work in Hygiene, and Teacher Training, for this college, will be worked out by Dr. Brubacher and Dr. Thos. A. Storey, secretary of the board.

ALUMNI — NOTICE !

Payment of Dues

You are one of 4,000 living Alumni who receive an annual letter. About 600 usually respond and pay dues. Are you one of these? If not, join the ranks this year, and give the Alumni Association the financial backing which it must have to keep up the ever-increasing demands upon its treasury, for and Superintendent of Schools of Yonkers.

c. Courses in "Elementary Design" and "Advanced Freehand Drawing" with an appreciative understanding of the drawing problems in rural and elementary schools by Miss Lillia W. Olcott of the Cortland Normal School, formerly Specialist in Drawing at the State Education Department.

d. Courses in "The Management of Household," "The Organization and Management of School Lunches," "The Organization and Administration of Home Economics" and "Applied Dietetics," under the supervision of Miss Marion Van Liew, head of the Department of Home Economics, who will be assisted by Miss Theodora E. Miller of the U. S. Food Administration.

e. Courses in "Sight Singing and Ear Training" and in the "Elements of Music for Grade Teachers" by Mr. Russell Carter, Supervisor of Music, Amsterdam, N. Y.

f. A complete Summer School in Physical Education with 8 courses in theory and practice for both beginners and advanced students and with special reference to the needs of teachers of other subjects who wish more preparation in Physical Training work.

Regular courses in History, English Economics, Government, Commercial Education, Biology, French, Spanish, and Mathematics are planned to meet the needs of teachers and will enable students to make up satisfactory programs.

printing, postage and secretarial work.

One dollar and fifty cents will put you on the roll of honor and also assure the receipt of the Alumni News Quarterly for next year.

Congratulations are due our Alumni on the first issue of the Quarterly which will appear about July first.

If you change your address notify the secretary.

If you marry notify the secretary.

Come back if possible, but pay your dues for you will want the Quarterly!

DEAN HORNER TO SPEAK

Dean Harlan H. Horner will deliver the Commencement address at Valatie on Tuesday, June 24, and at Schenevus, where Mr. Joseph A. Walker of the Class of 1918 is principal, on Wednesday, June 25.

SENIOR RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Esther Christiansen has secured a position as teacher of English or Mathematics in the High School at Bridgeport, Conn. Her salary will be $1,050.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

Commencement, 10:30 a. m., Auditorium.
Senior reception and ball, 9:00 p. m., State Armory.

ALUMNI CONCERT

Irish and Scotch Melodies Were Sung

Last evening in the Auditorium a delightful musicale was given under the direction of Professor Samuel B. Belding as part of the commencement festivities. The quartet consisting of Jeanette Reller, soprano; Lyra Waterhouse, alto; Dr. Thompson, tenor; and Professor Kirtland, baritone, repeated the Scotch Cycle so much enjoyed at the concert last month. Most of the songs sung were ancient melodies with words by Thomas Moore and Robert Burns.

The program was as follows:
Irish songs: Quartet, "Kathleen Mavourneen;" soprano, "Killarney;" quartet, "The Minstrel Boy;" baritone, "The Fields of Ballyclare;" quartet, "The Cruiskeen Lawn;" tenor, "Avenging and Bright;" quartet, "The Harp That Once..."

Scotch songs: Tenor and quartet, "Can Ye by Athol;" duet, "The Laird of Cockpen;" quartet, "Eloralo;" soprano, "Lewie Gordon;" duet, "Willie Brewed a Peck o' Maut;" soprano, "O, Whistle and I'll Come;" duet, "Ca' the Yowes;" quartet, "Scots Wha Hae."

Professor Belding was at the piano. While the concert was given for the alumni the public was invited free of charge. We hope that next year able substitutes can be found for the two senior members of this delightful quartet.

THE PEDAGOGUE

In this last issue of the "News" we want to praise our 1919 year-book. It's all it was promised to be and more. That clever border around each page; the surprise of the dedication; the numerous sketches and snap shots, to say nothing of real jokes! We don't know who deserves the most credit. We realize the amount of time and energy that must have been spent in securing advertisements, in collecting and originating material, in getting together the whole thing and delivering it before college closed.

We advise any alumnus who hasn't a copy to see if one can be secured. They're great, and we extend most hearty congratulations to the editors, each and all.

GOOD-BYE AND WELCOME

The present board of editors has never before had an opportunity to express its appreciation to the old board for the valuable aid given it in continuing the publishing of our "oracle of student opinion." It has never made public its universal grief at temporarily suspending the close friendships established in our work in the little office under the stairs. It wishes to admit the difficulties in maintaining the standards set by the members of the old board. 1919 has established the custom of surrendering the publishing of the "News" to the new board as soon as it is appointed. For this we are very glad. It has given us an opportunity to work by ourselves with experienced helpers to explain difficulties.

The present board also wishes to thank the faculty and the student body for their consideration in criticising our first attempts. We hope to return in the fall with renewed zest and clever ideas for continuing the "News," a real, live, student paper. We ask for the hearty support of everyone, undergraduates and alumni, so that, as in this past year, each member of State College will on Thursday afternoons be eagerly watching the table in the lower hall outside the publication office, or be watching his mail for a small publication in a government folder.

We are finding it difficult to welcome alumni and at the same time bid good-bye to the members of '19. As doubtless others have wished our present alumni the best sort of luck in their application of State College methods out in that hackneyed place, "the wide, wide world," so we too wish the same for all our graduates, but more especially for 1919.

AT THE END OF A PERFECT YEAR

Yes, we know it wasn't absolutely perfect. Nothing ever was absolutely perfect. But 1918-1919 has been so near the mark that we are sure we shall be forgiven if we come right out and call it perfect. And here's why:

When there was a war to win, State College sent men into every branch of the service. Then to cap this she turned her campus into a drill-field and her buildings into a combination barracks and mess-hall, and enlisted the rest of her men in the S. A. T. C. And when the armistice was signed she gave her attention just as enthusiastically to bringing back peace-time standards.

In athletics State College sprung a sensation in the form of a first class basketball team. Statistics show a record of 256 points in her favor against 203 for her opponents. She also backed that team by some mighty cheering, and she succeeded in establishing a men's cheering section. She also sent representatives to the annual track meet, and, although they did not get a place, they were there just the same. And when it came to intermural athletics there was the same pep shown in interclass contests.

In the social world the College has established the traditions of a campus dance, and a senior ball at the Armory. There has also been a high standard of class functions. Most important of all, the New York State Student Volunteer Union held its annual conference at State College.

In student government there have been two innovations, namely, the Dramatic and Art Association, and the Student Board of Finance. Have we been improving? Well, I guess!

"You boast too much," someone says. It was only a few days ago that we heard a student from Wisconsin University say, "Some people, who do not understand what school pride is, give us the name of being stuck up because we are always boosting Wisconsin University. But we have something to be proud of." So have we, and it is only natural that we should be proud of it.

On another occasion we heard a State College student exclaim, "Now, if we only had a school like that, we could have school spirit and pride." We have enough now to invoke school spirit and with a little will and push we can have more.

Then let's boost. Let's root all summer, wherever we are, for State College; and when we return next Fall keep on rooting. '21.

PHYSICAL ED.

Welcome, thrice welcome to our newest organization, the Physical Education Society, and may it live up to its ideals, especially in the promotion of athletics at State College. The lack of greater activity in college sports has been caused as much by lack of interest, that is united voiced interest on the part of the students, as it has been due to the lack of material in college.

With the material in college this spring it would have been possible to have had a good varsity baseball team, but "on account of the war" we were unable to arrange a schedule because of the uncertainty of the return of men from service. It will also be impossible to have varsity football this fall, but why not have an appropriation and get the necessary material and get an idea of the ability of our men? We might have interclass games, as we have in the past, or play independent teams. As for hockey this winter and baseball another spring, it is an accepted fact that we are to have teams in both these sports.

As has been said before the real reason why athletics have not had a greater place in college is the lack of a demand for them on the part of the students. A great number of the faculty have expressed themselves as being in favor of a good athletic schedule at State College.

Let's all boost and not only put State College on the map, but all over the map!

SENIOR BALL

One last plea for our final splurge—the Senior Ball, Monday night at nine o'clock in the State Armory.

If it's possible that any alumni haven't heard of this affair before, heark ye now! It's the first real affair to be given outside of college. It is a sure advertisement that State College is growing and needs new and larger buildings. It is a positive guarantee of the best time yet, and the price is only $3.50 a bid (plus, of course, the ten per cent war tax). If you're in town to renew old friendships, greet new alumni, and recall pleasant memories of this, your Alma Mater, see a member of the dance committee immediately! We want you all there. Each organization of college is to have a booth in which it may entertain its guests who do not dance.

CLASS DAY

Class Day exercises took place in the college auditorium at three-thirty o'clock yesterday afternoon. The editors of the "News" regret that they were unable to secure for publication, copies of the Class Prophecy and History before this issue went to press. The following are the Class Will by Fanne Plusch and the H. Louise Stewart.

The Will of 1919

"We, the Class of 1919, being about to depart these halls of study and scandal; and being of sound mind and body, do hereby make our last will and testament.

To our Alma Mater, we finally bequeath our sincerest wishes for a long, bright and glorious future, hoping that she may graduate some teachers, many engaged couples and few divorcees.

To the Faculty, we bequeath a fond and affectionate farewell, mingled with an expression of our gratitude and appreciation of their extremely over-paid services.

To our Honorary Faculty Members, Dr. Conwell, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Power and Professor Hidley, we bequeath the nursery of 1923, entrusting to them the care of our successors, the future defenders of the green and white.

To our Honor Men, forty-five of the total one hundred and eighty being from 1919, we bequeath the pride and loyal support of the entire class.

To the Class of 1920, we leave our seats in Student Assembly, and the care of our Milne High cherubs. We also bequeath them a special newspaper, which the students and faculty may read, instead of being worn out by hearing the everlasting babble of the "Big I and Little You." We bequeath them the dignity of Seniors and a measure of common sense which would so much improve outside opinion of the young upstarts!

To the Class of 1921, our dearly beloved sister class, we bequeath the good times which are the rightful due of Jolly Juniors; the watchful spirit to guide them on to a successful graduation; and the solemn duty of surpassing the Class of 1920, that 1919 will ever be proud of her sister class.

To the Class of 1922, we bequeath the right to remove all signs of verdure—also, the privilege and duty of tormenting, beyond precedent, the Class of 1923.

To the Incoming Class of 1923, we bequeath our cherished colors and with them the responsibility of keeping the Green and White ever at the top in State College. We do also bequeath to them the "wim, wigor, and witality" of the Class of 1919 to survive the rigors of their Freshman days.

To Myskania, we bequeath the right to drop the mask after each public performance in order to practice smiling.

To Minerva, we bequeath an Ivory-suds bath, long needed; a new gown; and the right to shimme on the plaza, preliminary to her evenings at the Ten Eyck Roof.

To the Critics, we bequeath reserved seats in the Halls of Torment for the months of July and August, hoping they will repent and be more considerate of next year's P. T's.

To the Girls of State College, we bequeath an Emancipation Proclamation, allowing them to come, go and do as they please without leaving on record a detailed diary of their hours of real life.

To the News Office, we bequeath a red light for advertising purposes.

To the Lost and Found Box, we bequeath a faithful caretaker, who is not afraid of mice.

To the Locker Rooms, we bequeath the latest bound edition of "Jokes and Songs," a few easy chairs and several watch dogs to guard the money some people insist on leaving there.

To the Cafeteria, we bequeath our realization of the need of speed, a more complete repertoire of menus, and another cat to censor the oysters. We bequeath also the latest information along the line of substitutes for peaches, prunes and apricots.

To Charles and Mary, we bequeath the right to swear and quarrel without interruption, ad infinitum.

To the Clubs of State College, we bequeath strong hands to swing them.

To Publications, we bequeath some actual news and a raft of jokes not censored by the faculty.

To the Sororities and Fraternities, we bequeath a longer list of desirable and eligible Freshmen for next year.

To Earl Sutherland, we bequeath a Rising sun which Burns incessantly.

To Lyra Waterhouse, we bequeath a three-year commutation ticket on the Taxi Air Service Line to India.

To Margaret Flynn, we bequeath a subway from Fayetteville to Syracuse, together with a life ticket to the Bastable.

To Bernice Bronner, we bequeath the world renowned collection of fraternity pins.

To Carolina Lipes, we bequeath a book of decent jokes, fit to be told at Y. W. C. A. affairs.

To Lois Knox, we bequeath a car to travel about in, when selling song books.

To Dorothy Roberts, we bequeath our thanks for the unprecedented success of the Pedagogue.

To Little Fitz, we bequeath the use of the porch swing at Psi Gamma at all hours.

To Winifred Wemple, we bequeath the recommendation of 1919, when she applies for a position as cook at the Bubacher mansion.

To Henry Wood, we bequeath the sum of ninety-eight cents to be used for purchasing a marriage license.

To Monica Cardiff, we bequeath our congratulations and best wishes for the success of her final decision.

To Anna Mae Cassin, we bequeath the cedar chest now under construction in the Industrial Department.

To Each and Every Member of 1919, we bequeath Health, Wealth, Happiness and Success."

CLASS POEM

Here will we carve our names. We gained the right by toiling higher,
Lighter 'twas to rest us at the noonday

By the hills;
Or in the cold of winter sit beside the cheerful fire.
But we climbed onward yet on the way
Up the hills.

Carve our names here. Perhaps they'll be forgotten
As we pass on. Thousands will come this way;

Be onward hurled.—
Pass on! Let us go higher!—and if we would not be forgotten, Carve our names deeper—on the world.

—H. Louise Stewart.

CHAUTAQUA WOMAN'S LAND ARMY TRAINING CAMP

On the bluffs above beautiful Chautauqua Lake is located the Land Army Training camp, where from June 28, to August 9, an attractive course of training, particularly adapted to women who are students or graduates of Teachers' Colleges, has been outlined and will afford an opportunity to those who wish to fit themselves for accepting lucrative positions as Supervisors of Land Army Training Camps where salaries range from $45.00 to $60.00 per month and maintenance, during seasons of from four to nine months; also Supervisors for Home and School Gardens and Junior Project work at salaries from $50.00 to $125.00 per month.

The course of six weeks instruction is furnished for $66.00. This covers all expenses including lodging, food, laundry, tuition and gate admission to Chautauqua Institution, with privilege of attendance at public concerts, lectures and other exercises, and privileges of an excellent bathing beach.

While taking this course arrangements can be made to take advantage of special courses at the renowned Chautauqua Institution.

IS THIS YOUR TRUNK?

About a thousand pieces of personal baggage go astray, each month, according to a recent statement by an express official. Very probably, the trunks and suit cases of college students are among them, particularly at this season. Therefore, it is important that you start your trunk right, safeguarded with the proper kind of address labels and tags.

Most of the trouble is due to the fact that trunks, unlike the students, cannot speak for themselves, when the address label or tag comes off. "Old marks" from previous trips are confusing to the expressman who usually send the baggage some place where it oughtn't to go.

If you do not want your vacation ruined, or a romance shattered by a lost trunk, follow these general rules:

Remove or cancel all addresses of former trips.

Don't entrust your trunks to a single tag. The expressmen will not accept your baggage unless you have a label on it, in addition to a strong tag.

Be sure it is a strong tag. One with a reinforced eyelet, and attached with a heavy cord or wire, is best.

Use good ink, never lead pencil, in writing the address, and do it legibly, giving all of these details: Name of shipper; where from; name of consignee; local address, street and number; destination, city; value (state in full), and date of your shipment.

As an additional safeguard, place your name and permanent address on the inside of your trunk; on the lid, for instance.

Use the same common sense rules when you ship a suit case, a handbag or other baggage, and you will see your best clothes again!—From The Educational Service Bureau, American Railway Express, 65 Broadway, New York.

by the National President, Miss Alice M. Loomis, Professor of Home Economics, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. The business meetings will be held at Syddum Hall. Miss Ruth Weir, president for 1919-20, has been elected as delegate from Beta Chapter. Besides the business meetings, many social affairs have been planned. Some of these are: An automobile ride, terminating in a picnic at Normanskill creek; meetings in the park, and a luncheon at the Ten Eyck. The conclave will close with a formal banquet. Dr. and Mrs. Brubacher will be honor guests, and Dr. Brubacher will be the special speaker on "Honorary Societies." After the banquet there will be a song contest, each chapter competing for the prize song, which will become Omicron Nu's national song. Saturday morning will be reserved for additional necessary committee meetings, after which the delegates will make a more or less extended tour to various places of interest in the East.

A SOPH'S VERSION OF STEP-SINGING

I
Moving-Up days may come and go,
Step singing has come to stay.
Bring out each good old song, boys,
Sing out each good old lay.

II
First come the grand old Seniors' song
With original words and tune,
Then Juniors' song so tender and sweet
With the very essence of June.

III
The Sophomores' song is merry and gay
And full of life and pep.
The Frosh are very good for youths
And are sure to make a rep.

IV
Now all sing "Solomon Levi"
And "Hail Professors Dear"
And "College of the Empire State"
In voices loud and clear.

V
And we finish with Alma Mater,
The song we love the best;
The song books are fondly cuddled
And hugged close to each one's breast.

VI
Three cheers for old State College,
Faculty, students, and all.
And we'll sing again right merrily
When we come back again in the Fall.

—Marty Barry, '21.

KAPPA NU

Nora Chavoustie, ex '18, is a house guest during commencement week.

Helen Walsh, '22, entertained the Kappa Nu girls at her camp on Shaffer lake last Sunday.

Clare Lally, '18, and Margaret O'Connell, '17, are guests at the house during commencement week.

THE RED RAG

I suppose that one ought to be patient,
But patience is hard when it's hot.
I really did well for awhile, but
Just now my patience—is not.

The thermometer's up above ninety.
I feel like a sad lettuce leaf
Who was once green and verdant and cool—but
Has since come to horrible grief.

And across from me sits a fair maiden
Who has gotten confused as to date,
For she's wearing a sweater of scarlet!
Do you wonder my heart's full of hate?
(Wellesley College News—June 5, '19.)

SMILES

Probably Dogfish

Blank had had a day off, and when he returned to the office the following morning his pals wanted to know why he looked so disgruntled.

"Everything went wrong!" grumbled Blank.
"How was that?" one asked.
"Ever go fishing with a girl?"
"Once."
"Did she protest against hurting the fish?"
"No. She said she was sure they were perfectly happy, because they were all wagging their tails."—London Tit-Bits.

Notice

Will the person who swiped the shears from the "News" office please return them immediately? The editors have had no opportunity for cutting up since they disappeared.

—Aww'wan.

Always

"Edith is one of those girls whose interest in a man is governed by his wealth."
"I see; the greater the principal the greater the interest."—Boston Transcript.

Where Change Was Needed

"Do you think Miss Oldgirl will ever change her mind and marry?"
"No. If she marries it will be because some man of her acquaintance changes his mind."—London Tit-Bits.

What Does a Mendicant Mend?

Maid—"There's a mendicant at the door, madam."
Mrs. Newrich—"Well, tell him we haven't anything to mend just at present."—Boston Transcript.

No Disqualification

She—"And hasn't the awful life of destruction and war spoiled you for a peaceful, harmless existence?"
He—"Well, you see, I happen to be a lawyer."—Sydney Bulletin.

An Honor of Peace

"What are your impressions of No Man's Land?"
"I didn't get into the war," answered the morose citizen. "My only vivid idea of No Man's Land is home while spring housecleaning is going on."—Washington Star.

ALMA MATER

(Tune: "Where the Flag Is Full of Stars")

It's fine to see the college halls
throughout our Empire State;
And know the seats of learning that have made its name so great;
We're proud of them and what they've done, wherever they may be,
But still, for us, there's only one,—
and that's our S. C. T.

Chorus

So, we hail thee, Alma Mater,
dear,—
To thee our pledge we give
That day by day, along life's way
To honor thee we'll live.
We will spread in song and story
the fame of S. C. T.
That the world may know thy glory,—
Alma Mater,—here's to thee!

It's great to watch the busy town
from old Columbia's gates,
And every Vassar girl the joys of campus-life relates;
Cayuga's waves are ever blue when viewed from proud Cornell,—
But to our own we'll e'er be true,—
Her praises we'll haste to tell.

Within thy halls we've learned to love the noble and the true,
And SERVICE shall our slogan
be, whatever we strive to do,
May we, in all our deeds fulfill thy purpose in our heart,
And follow where thou leadest still,
tho' from thee we must part.
