Standards For Professional Probation Officers Opposed As Unfair To Rank & File

ALBANY — The Civil Service Employees Assn.'s ad hoc committee to study probation has taken a contrary stand against the newly determined standard specifications for professional probation positions, which, according to CSEA, were "unilaterally determined" by Peter Preiser, state director of Probation, "without regard for the rank and file probation officer."

CSEA's ad hoc committee originally pressed for standard specifications as early as 1972, according to James Brady, the committee's chairman. Peter Preiser, now the newly appointed commissioner of correction, has met with the CSEA committee on several occasions. Specifications were developed and discussed at these meetings, which applied to county probation officers all over New York Stats.

"Now," said Brady, "after previously agreeing with a proposal that was suitable to CSEA, a complete reversal has taken place resulting in a set of standards that are considerably less than what was originally agreed upon."

The ad hoc committee had forwarded to Preiser a letter of agreement on an initial proposal for standard specifications that would have allowed for a mandatory entry level position of probation officer trainee. There was no open-competitive exam for PO, but rather two years of permanent service as a PO trainee, which qualified the individual for promotion.

Impact Altered

Nels Carlson, CSEA collective negotiating specialist working with the ad hoc committee, said, "This form of a 'career ladder,' which we developed bilaterally. established protection for the PO by keeping the promotional opportunities confined to PO's with experience in New York State. The specifications clearly spelled out the qualifications for promotion from probation right on through to the director of a probation department. While the final document still has many of the basics that were in the originally developed plan, modifications made by probation administrators have altered its impact."

The department's final version of the standard specifications for professional probation position calls for a probation assistant position to have only a high

Pension Agreement Explained

McDonough Urges All Members To Contact Their Legislator For Support Of New CSEA Pact

(Special to The Leader)

ALBANY — The tentative contract agreement reached by the Civil Service Employees Assn. and the State must still face a vote in the Legislature, according to Thomas H. McDonough, first vice-president of CSEA and chairman of CSEA's political action committee

McDonough said, "The negotiating teams did a great job in working out an equitable contract agreement with the State, but rank-and-file members should now apply their muscle to make sure the Legislature passes this agreement intact."

"Legislative approval of this pact is as important to our local government employees as to State members because it makes permanent those benefits that are now merely temporarly in various political subdivisions," he emphasized. The CSEA officer said he was sure that local government members would go allout in the effort of writing and talking to legislators in behalf of the contract.

McDonough noted that some legislators have expressed opinions against the portion of the contract that deals with pension rights for employees hired after July 1. He said, "CSEA and State negotiators know that the terms agreed to in this matter are just and fair. These terms tempered the Kinzel recommendations to the point where they are workable."

The "Kinzel Report," a plan proposed by the New York State Permanent Commission on Public Employee Pension and Retirement Systems, recommended a minimum retirement age of 65 with full benefits after 30 years of service. Employees who retired earlier, at age 55, would receive severely reduced benefits.

According to Kinzel, employees retiring at age 65 with 30 years of service would be guaranteed retirement income of 80 percentof final avareage salary. This figure, however, would include a retiree's social security benefit, which would mean a reduction in actual pension benefits of at least 30 percent. This 80 percent goal would apply to salaries up to $12,000. The plan would pay even less to those earning higher incomes.

The State Pension Commission also recommended that pension benefits be removed from the bargaining table completely.

The CSEA Agreement

The tentative State-CSEA agreement includes a single pension plan for new employees calling for a minimum retirement age of 62, with half salary after 25 years of service. Employees with 25 years of service would be eligible for reitrement at age 55, but at 27 percent less than the benefit they would have received at age 62.

Employees earning less than $12,000 a year would receive a maximum of 60 percent of final average salary. Employees earning over $12,000 a year would receive 60 percent of final average salary on the first $12,000 and a 50 percent maximum on earnings over $12,000.

"It is important for present State workers to realize," Mc-Donough said, "that this contract guarantees that their retirement benefits will not be changed in any way. In fact, all temporary benefits will be made permanent if this agreement is accepted completely."

The agreement also states that pensions for future employees will continue to be a negotiable item.

According to McDonough, "Each of these pension rights is vitally important to incoming State workers. It's up to us to see that they get these rights. If present State employees will let their legislators know just how crucial these rights are to continued good relations between the State and its employees, they'll get this agreement passed as is."

A complete list of State legislators appears on Page 8.

Corrections In Pact Summaries

Several typographical errors appeared in the ratification contract summary sent to Civil Service Employees Assn. State employees members in the Administrative unit. The Leader did not learn of the errors until after presstime last week.

For future reference, please note the changes on your copy of the Administrative unit contract summary: • ADDITIONAL VACATION

- ADDITIONAL VACATION CREDIT — The copy should read: "An additional day is now earned from 15 to 19 years of service. 20 to 24 years now earns two days and 25 to 29 years will be awarded three days. 30 to 34 years will remain at four additional days and 35 years and over remains at five days."
- USE OF VACATION AND SICK LEAVE — The title should read: USE OF VA-CATION AND PERSONAL LEAVE. Change "sick leave" to "personal leave" in first line of paragraph.
- · SAFETY The title is better termed EDUCATION AND TRAINING. The copy should read: "Approximately $326,500 has been appropriated for education and safety and first aid training, with first aid kits to be distributed by a joint CSEA-State safety committee established within 60 days of the new agreement. The joint committee is to work on safety considerations affecting all working conditions. $310,00 is specifically earmarked for education."

· FIRE FLIES ·

On Tuesday at 12:18 p.m. a drama which outdid anything Hollywood writers could conjure up, took place in the Bronx Telegraph Office.

At that time, chief William Larkin made an urgent call for help. He had been flagged down by a citizen requesting help for five naked children lying on the bare floor of an apartment at 1765 Bryant Avenue, Bronx. All over the floor, the chief found a white powdery substance and it was obvious that the kids had all eaten the stuff. Their bodies were covered with brown and red spots and they were unconscious. The substance they had eaten was thought to be rat poison.

The whole tour was galvanized into action. Chief Dispatcher Fred Grant, who has just returned to duty from a bout with high blood pressure (that job is enough to kill a man much less give him high blood pressure) raced to the platform to give his tour a hand. Ken Fisher at once got hold of the Poison Control Center of the Health Department. This unit stays open 24 hours a day to advise doctors and hospitals on any known poison . . . how to handle it . . . the antidote, etc. Fisher got them and held them on the line. Meanwhile, ambulance and police were called and responded without delay. The cops took the kids in radio cars but where? Nobody knew. Dispatcher Bill Prott got hold of 911 with direct contact to the radio room. Meanwhile, other dispatchers were notifying all hospitals in the area to be ready to receive the kids if the cops brought them in. It was then found that they had gone to Jacoby Hospital and Ken Fisher told Poison Control to get to them at once. The 18th had meanwhile gone 10-8 while one of the cops in one of the radio cars had a bag in which he had put some of the poison. It hit Ken Fisher that it would probably take hours before laboratory tests would show the true nature of the poison so he re-dispatched the 18th to the building to make an exhaustive search for person or persons who might have knowledge of the type of rat poison this stuff happened to be.

The ensuing search yielded a can with brand name "Bileo Double Action Lye." This information was at once given to Jacoby by Fisher and the proper antidote was then at once administered. All kids are in serious condition but will live. The two mothers who left the kids alone were arrested. The 18th picked up another good job and the dispatchers went back to routine operations. Those on duty at the time were: chief dispatcher Fred Grant, tour chief Anthony Riolo, dispatchers Ken Fisher, Ken Wenzel, Vincent Allegro, William Prott and Bill Davey.

Congratulations to everyone concerned. There was quite a bit of media coverage but how about the myriad of similar incidents which the public never gets to hear about?

At recent promotional ceremonies, the father-son tradition was carried on in the following instances:

Fireman Dennis Pettit of Engine 80 saw his father Captain Joseph Pettit of Ladder 30 promoted to Battalion Chief.

Battalion Chief Edward Lally of the 8th Battalion saw his son Bernard P. promoted to Captain.

Lieutenant Thomas M. Johnson followed in the footsteps of his father Captain Harry T.

Lieutenant Stephen P. Hession of 73 Engine carried on the tradition started by his father, retired Fireman Edward Hession.

This is always a happy thing to see and thank heavens the spirit of the job is still there to be passed from father to son. That spirit is the backbone of the job. God help us if it were not present!

Congratulations to Fireman Richard Fanning of Ladder 19, who while off duty, grabbed and subdued a burglar who was plying his trade in Dick's apartment house. This is the second "collar" for Dick who is an excop who learned his lesson well. Good show.

During the war, Manhattan dispatcher and trustee Herb Eysser was in the military police where he was taught a few tricks combat wise. They all came in handy recently when a tenant in his building went insane and raced around threatening bodily harm to all who approached. Herb subdued the guy and turned him over to the cops. Congratulations Herb.

Keep Close Watch On Training Schools

NEWBURGH - A number of potentially serious problems at the training schools run by the State Youth Division has prompted a close watch on the situation at the schools by state and regional CSEA representatives, it was reported at the Southern Conference's Division For Youth unit meeting here April 19.

The troubles, believed by employees to be caused by overly permissive student disciplinary regulations, staff shortages and institution of new working systems such as "unitization," were discussed in detail at a recent labor-management conference in Albany.

"No real conclusions were reached except to agree to continue the discussions," Paul Birch, collective negotiating specialist, said.

The troubles at the schoolswhich house youths under 16 years of age who are sent there by the courts on criminal charges -first erupted last January at Otisville Training School where protests were made following cases of verbal and physical assault on staff members. Similar problems were pointed out at Warwick Training School at the Southern Conference meeting Feb. 15 by Ted Scott, president of the Warwick CSEA chapter. The youth division has agreed to consider CSEA demands for correction of the situation at Warwick and Otisville.

As a result of the publicity given the Warwick and Otisville controversy, more problems affecting staff members and their relations with students and the school administration have come to light. The general situation at the schools has cooled down somewhat since the winter, but there is still a lot of room left for improvement of many things at the schools, according to Felice Amadeo, field representawhere many of the training schools are located.

"I wouldn't say the number of physical and verbal assaults on employees has increased in the past few months. It's just that many cases of these assaults are coming to light because of all the talk about the problems at the schools," Amadeo said.

A major question discussed by the field representatives was that of unitization. This is a new policy instituted by the youth division which tries to apply a team effort to rehabilitation by having social workers, teachers and other specialized personnel assigned to each cottage at a school.

were not critical of the rehabilitative values of this procedure. but they felt that in many cases there was insufficient education of staff members to the new procedure. The youth division has not set up a satisfactory in-service training program to help staff members make the transition to the new system, they

Another problem about unitization has been the hours that staff members are required to work. Instead of normal 9 to 5 or 8 to 4 shifts, staff members in many cottage units are being asked to work 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. or 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. shifts, which in some cases create havoc morale problem among the staff. "A lot of these problems might be alleviated if all the employees with family life and create :

were made fully aware of what the youth division is attempting to do." Paul Birch said.

CSEA realizes there are no shortcuts to rehabilitation and is trying to help, not destroy the youth division. The job of rehabilitating these youths must be done by a well-trained and adequately staffed team," Birch school diploma. There is no inline promotion progression to the next position, probation officer trainee. The PO trainee must have a bachelor's degree with a minimum of 30 credit hours in sociology or behavorial sciences.

Amadeo said the Division for Youth should take advantage of the fact that it has employees who are willing and eager to do the job if they are given the help and support to do the job.

PO positions remain on an open-competitive basis. Requirements are listed as a graduate degree in social work, education, administration, law sociology, psychology, criminology or a related field. A bachelor's degree plus two years of appropriate experience in counseling or case work will also suffice in order to take the examination.

CSEA's Brady said, "Under state executive law, Preiser can define minimum qualifications for probation officers on a statewide basis, and what we've been given is certainly a step in the right direction, but I'm personally disappointed in his reluctance to keep PO experience in New York State as one of the prime qualifying factors."

Under the conditions of the standard specifications. PO's with three years of experience, regardless of where they served, can qualify for the opencompetitive examination for senior probation officer in New CSEA's committee contended that there was considerable difference between three years of experience in metropolitan New York and Boise, Idaho." 'The union said, "The three years' experience should be limited to that service a PO renders in New York State."

Promotional qualifications for senior probation officer, the next step in Preiser's minimum specifications schedule, are two years of permanent service as a PO or one year of such service and a Master's degree in social work. Open - competitive qualifications for the same position call for three years as a PO. A graduate degree may be substituted for one year of that experience.

Southern Conf Proposes Fishkill As Choice For Regional Headquarters

NEWBURGH - The Southern Conference, at its April meeting, moved closer to the day in October when it will become the new Southern Region of CSEA by deciding on a regional office and getting the ball rolling towards nominating regional officers. The proposed regional office is in a new office building on Route 9 in Fishkill about two miles north of the intersection of Route 9 and Interstate 84. The site committee, headed by Lee Connors, Conference second vice-president, has scheduled a meeting with the Conferexecutive committee to finalize the proposal for approval by the statewide CSEA site selection committee. Nominations are being accept-

Southern Workshop

The Southern Conference will hold its own workshop this year since the Tri-Conference Workshop had to be cancelled. Conference president Nicholas Puzziferri said at the accomplishmentmarked session. The Conference decided to adopt a county workshop that was already in the planning stage under the guidance of Conference third vicepresident Arthur Bolton.

The county and state workshop - open to all CSEA members - will be held at Grossinger's Hotel near Liberty from Sunday through Tuesday, June 17-19. Plans are being made to honor at the workshop presidents of the Tri-Conferences: Nicholas Puzziferri of the Southern Conference, Jack Weisz of the Metropolitan Conference and George Koch of the Long Island Confer-

The Southern Conference is also issuing a journal in connection with the workshop. Advertisements can be put in the journal up to June 1.

The Southern Conference meeting also voted to ask Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, the statewide CSEA president, for more field representatives in its regional area.

The request for more fieldmen was made by Angelo Senist. president of the Green Haven chapter, and was backed by Conference delegates. Senisi said CS-EA could greatly increase its membership, particularly in cor-

Harold DeGraff, president of the Ulster County chapter, backed Senisi's plea for the fieldmen, as did Conference president Puzziferri. The request was approved unanimously by the delegates.

Mental Hygiene Reps

Ann Bessette, president of Harlem Valley State Hospital chapter, was concerned about a new procedure of voting for Mental Hygiene representatives to the CSEA Board of Directors. This also prompted action by the del-

Ms. Bessette, who is also Southern/Capital District Mental Hygiene representative to the Board of Directors, said the voting procedure would pit the membership of large state hospitals against each other in the election of representatives. Instead of this procedure, Puzziferri suggested that a simple rule be adopted requiring representatives to be elected at large for the hospitals. This suggestion was approved unanimously by the Conference membership and sent to the CSEA office in Albany.

James Lennon, first vice-president of the Conference, said the Conference political action committee intends to hold a series of meetings with chapter presidents all over the Southern Region to discuss the PAC's work during this year.

Nellie Davis, a former Southern Conference president who is now retired from her job at Hudson River State Hospital, told the Conference delegates that she is organizing a special chapter for CSEA members who have retired from their Jobs. There are chapters for retirees in other conference areas and there are a large number of people in the Southern Conference area who are eligible to join such a chapter, she said.

Dangerous Cutbacks

FROM time to time, there seems to be a rash of cutbacks in personnel in agencies where more rather than less employees are essential for protecting the public.

We are referring specifically to city, state and federal regulatory agencies, where civil servants who are experts in the fields of banking, insurance, etc., constantly review, audit, examine and keep an eye out for irregular or faulty business practices that can cause severe losses for the ordinary citizen and the economy in general.

A fine argument against any such cutbacks is contained in a "Letter to The Editor" below. We urge the directors of all public agencies to read that letter carefully before cutting down inspection or examinatory personnel in any field.

Contract Approval

Now that the State Legislature has reconvened, we year contract negotiated between the Civil Service Employees Assn. and the State Administration.

The new pact, now in the process of being ratified by CSEA members in four major State bargaining units, contains no undue surprises nor excess burdens to the taxpayers. Employees covered by the contract will receive pay raises in two successive years and will have to bargain anew for salary increases for the third year of the agree-

In addition, basic adjustments have been made in the area of fringe benefits, all of them justified.

We think it would be wise of the Legislature to approve this contract for another reason and that is that it provides a clearcut picture concerning most State workers for a relatively long time, which should be of great help in advance budget planning.

Most important, of course, is that state employees deserve a raise and improvements in fringe benefits. They have long since proved their dedication on the job and underlined it by participating in a fruitful productivity drive over the past year.

Letters To The Editor Less Examiners – More Scandals

Editor, The Leader:

We were unable to read a newspaper for the past few weeks without learning, day by day and fraud by fraud, of the complex multimillion dollar scandal involving the Equity Funding Corporation of America and its subsidiaries. We read articles that "spurious insurance described business," "fictitious assets," "insurance sales to non-existent policyholders;" "reinsurance of bogus life insurance" and "false claim payments." And we read a lot more; but I don't think I have to belabor the point. It is the biggest scandal to hit the insurance industry since the days of the Armstrong Investigation. Coincidentally, this situation comes to the insurance industry at the time when the New York Insurance Department, through its Solvency Report, is contemplating cutting back on just the type of examination that is geared to help uncover such practices. All the statistical ratios and desk audit procedures in the world would not reveal these nefarious deeds. And how much reliance will regulatory authorities be able to place on the certifications of public accounting firms when their role in this situation is evaluated?

How many scandals of this sort can the insurance industry or for that matter the guarantee funds withstand? I'm sure that

These thoughts come to mind in the wake of the announcement last week that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had designated R. Burdell Bixby as director of precampaign activities for the statewide election next year. While this may seem premature for an election that will take place in November of 1974, it is typical of Governor Rockefeller's approach to a political campaign, just as he likes to run a clean and tidy administration.

Planned In Advance

The achievement of that goal requires intensive and precise planning, the charting of a welldefined table of organization, and careful analysis of campaign issues. The Governor does not have a panic button in his camheadquarters because paign everything is planned out in advance

R. Burdell Bixby is an old hand at campaign operations, having served in 16 state campaigns going back to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. He would regard bugging of opposition headquarters as the rankest kind of amateurism. On the other hand, Bixby will be busy gathering all possible information about the Governor's expected opponents.

The leading Democratic prospects for Governor are Mayor John V. Lindsay, Howard J. Samuels, chairman of the Off-Track Betting Corporation, Congressman Samuel S. Stratton of Schenectady, and Congressman Ogden Reid of Westchester, Like Lindsay, Reid was a long time Republican, who last year switched to the Democrats. Other Democratic hopefuls may surface in the months ahead and some of those mentioned may decide not to enter the race.

No matter what may finally happen on the Democratic side, Bixby will have for the Governor full details of the records of his potential opponents. Research will be done on Lindsay's administration, of public statements made by Samuels in his past campaigns, of votes taken by Congressmen Stratton and Reid on many issues in the House of Representatives. By the same token, the Governor fully expects that his prospective Democratic opponents will do the same to his record.

Examine The Record

That means that they will examine with microscopic care every one of the Governor's State of the State Messages, his public statements on his approval or veto of bills passed by the Legislature, his budget proposals, and the many speeches he has made during his terms as Gover-

This approach to political campaigns has been traditional in our State. Gov. Alfred E. Smith gave this approach its classical definition when he said "Let's look at the record." It is the record that the sophisticated New Yorkers look to when they cast vote. What the Governor expects Bixby to do is to supply him with the record.

City Chapter Meeting

The annual meeting of the New York City chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. will be held May 8, according to Solomon Bendet, chapter president. The meeting will be at 5:15 p.m. at Gasner's Restaurant, 76 Duane St., Manhattan.

Civil Service Law & You

MANAGEMENT OF THE PROPERTY OF

Mr. Gaba is a member of the firm of White, Walsh and Gaba, P.C., and chairman of the Nassau County Bar Association Labor

Accused's Right To Hearing

A former probationary employee of the United States Post Office appealed from a decision of the New York State Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board. That Board had reversed a referee's decision in favor of the employee who sought to collect unemployment insurance benefits. The initial determination of the Industrial Commissioner was that the employee had been disqualified, and that decision was reinstated by the Appeal Board. The employee took an appeal to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for the Third Department.

The employee in this case worked for the United States Post Office as a postal clerk. He was hired on a probationary basis and worked for somewhat less than six months, at which time his employment was terminated. He thereafter filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with the New York State Department of Labor. Following the filing of his claim, a request was made to the federal agency where the claimant worked inquiring as to the reasons for the separation from employment. The agency reported that the employee's employment had been terminated for "being apprehended by a postal inspector for theft of mail on May

PURSUANT TO the United States statutes governing civil service, the employee had no rights of appeal from his termination because he was a probationary employee on the date of his separation. As a result of the information supplied to the Department of Labor, the applicant was found to be disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits because he had been discharged for misconduct in connection with his employment. In addition, the employee had been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury for mail theft prior to the time of the Referee's hearing on the initial determination of the Industrial Commissioner. However, the indictment was dismissed in October of 1971. In January of 1972, the Unemployment Insurance Referee overruled the initial determination of the Industrial Commissioner. The Referee stated in his findings:

"Since claimant was not granted a fair hearing by the Federal authorities, the Referee is not bound by the findings of claimant's Federal employer. No substantial evidence was submitted to show that claimant did steal mail. Under the cricumstances, I find that claimant did not lose his employment because of misconduct in connection with his employment."

AN APPEAL WAS taken by the Post Office to the Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board from the Referee's decision, and the Board overturned the Referee and reinstated the initial findings of the Industrial Commissioner, stating, "By virtue of the rules and regulations of the Federal employer, we are bound by the Federal agency's findings concerning the cause of the termination of claimant's employment."

THE APPELLATE Division stated that in New York the Federal findings have been treated as conclusive and binding as to the reasons for termination to the extent that the reasons are contained in the report of the Federal employer. It then becomes necessary for the Department of Labor to determine whether or not, based on those reasons for termination, the employee is entitled to collect unemployment insurance benefits.

The court went on to state that in the instant case, the Federal agency report does nothing more than state that the claimant was apprehended or otherwise charged with mail theft. There was nothing in the report to indicate that the employee had been caught stealing only that he apprehended for that reason. Therefore, it was held that the employee was entitled to collect the unemployment benefits. (Fermaglich v. Levine, 341 N.Y.S. 2d. 394.)

Cap District Retirees To Hear Assemblyman

ALBANY - Assemblyman Thomas W. Brown will be principal speaker at the May 9 meeting of the Capital District Retirees chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Chapter president John L. Joyce also announced that election of officers will take place at the business meeting, as well as discussion for a June outing. The meeting will be at CSEA Headquarters, 33 Elk St.

Flaumenbaum Says 'Get It Right'

MINEOLA — Irving Flaumenbaum, president of the Nassau County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn., last weke reputiated a quote attributed to him by Newsday, a Long Island newspaper, which cited Flaumenbaum as calling for a new wage and price freeze.

"Let5s get it right," Flaumenbaum said concerning his remarks before a regular hearing of the County Board of Supervisors. "What I did was call on President Nixon to roll back prices to their Jan. 1 levels before the working man is crushed under the alarming rate of inflation. I did not call for a freeze on wages. Period!" he said.

Counseling Available For Veterans At Two Service Centers In City

State Commerce Commissioner Neal L. Moylan recently reminded returning Vietnam veterans of the availability of career and educational counseling at two veterans service centers in New York City.

The service centers are located at 132 West 125 St., Manhattan, and 543 Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn. They are operated jointly by the State Departments of Commerce, Labor, Civil Service and the Division of Veterans' Affairs.

Commissioner Moylan said that the State Commerce Department's veterans assistance efforts were being intensified in response to Governor Rockefeller's mandate to state agencies to render all possible aid and counsel to returning veterans and prisoners of war.

Services available at the two centers include job counseling and referral, information on veterans benefits and advice for veterans planning a business of their own.

Commissioner Moylan pointed out that the two centers have already served more than 10,000 veterans. He said they are "part of the State's total program to provide additional benefits and to insure opportunities for employment, education and improved living standards for every veteran."

The Manhattan center has been in operation since 1968; the Brooklyn office since 1970.

College Sec'y Asst

P.O. Standards

(Continued from Page 3) chairman Brady cited the latest PO standard specifications as "somewhat of a rush job." He noted that Preiser was "moving to head the correction department and was anxious to develop something that would work quickly." Brady said, "We may have problems later, but as a beginning it will serve until It can be reviewed and modified once the weak areas come to light."

"DENTALLY SPEAKING!"

by MANNING V. ISAACS Vice President, Group Relations

Provided as a Dental Service to Readers of the by GROUP HEALTH INCORPORATED

LEADER

Editorial Note: Reproduced below you will read letters typical of those received along with the printed replies in this week's column. Please note: inquiries concerning specific dental claims must be made to GHI Dental's Subscriber Relations Department and not to the writer. Such inquiries should include legibly printed: your full name and full address (including Zip Code); your Group Number; your Social Security Number; and the patient's full name and complete date of birth.

I would like to know if dentures and partial plates are included in the basic GHI Dental benefits.

Sincerely, (Mrs.) Shirley Cieslak Sauquoit, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Cieslak:

In answer to the question raised in your recent letter to me, GHI Dental's basic benefits do not include services for either dentures or partial plates. However, as I indicated in my Civil Service Leader column, Riders covering prosthetics and orthodontia are available to eligible groups for additional premiums. Thank you for your inquiry.

Sincerely, V. Isaacs Manning V. I Vice-President

Dear Sir:

I am a New York State Employee for the last 15 years working in the Department of Mental Hygiene and belong to the CSEA.

am retiring as of April 1, 1973 and would appreciate if you can advise me whether a retired person is entitled to any dental benefits, and if not, is there any other place that you can recommend to me for good dental care that wouldn't charge me such exorbitant prices as the private dentists do. Thank you and hoping to

Sincerely yours, (Mrs.) Lillian Bobrow Bronx, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Bobrow:
Your letter addressed the Civil Service Leader was forwarded to me. Let me say that if you are a GHDI subscriber through the Dental Insurance Plan for Employees of New York State, you may continue coverage under a regular GHDI Direct Payment Contract by paying premiums directly to GHDI.

This Direct Payment Contract will not include prosthetic benefits or orthodontics. You may obtain the necessary application card, Form D291A, and descriptive brochure from your business or personnel office. You must fill out the card and have it certified by your business or personnel office. Please ask your business or personnel office to return it to GHDI within 31 days after expiration of coverage if you desire continued protection. Keep the brochure for ready reference. GHDI will bill you upon receipt of the completed and certified application. The paid-in-full benefit for most covered services under the converted contract should save you considerable, out-of-necket, expense. considerable out-of-pocket expense.

My best wishes for a relaxed and healthy retirements after your 15 years of New York State employment in the Department of Mental Hygiene.

Sincerely yours, Manning V. Isaacs Vice-President

HONORED DOCTOR — Dr. George E. Moore (white coat) who is leaving Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, receives a plaque in tribute to his 20 years of service from (left) Nicholas Dorio, first vice-president of Roswell's Civil Service Employees Assn. chapter; Robert W. Stelley Jr., chapter president; Margaret MacVicar, chapter secretary; and Carol Gallivan, chapter treasurer.

MERIT AWARD — Walter J. Sanderson, a Department of Transportation employee, receives a certificate of meritorious service from Theodore C. Wenzl, Civil Service Employees Assn. president, recognizing his 47 years of state service and lauding his 18 years as a CSEA delegate and DOT representative. Participating in the presentation to Sanderson, who is retiring this month, are his son, Richard, and Thomas McShane, DOT unit president from Rensselaer County.

Retirees Of Suffolk Meet May 9 In Islip

CENTRAL ISLIP — Robbins Hall of Central Islip State Hospital will be the site of the next meeting of the Suffolk Retirees chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Chapter president Michael Murphy has announced that the May 9 meeting is slated to begin at 1 p.m.

John Nuonno and John Sinto, ride operators and maintenance men at Playland in Rye, receive farewell cake from fellow Westchester County Playland Employees at a party given March 30 at the Playland Casino.

Nuonno, Sinto Leave Playland

Two maintenance men who had given Playland Park in Rye, New York, a combined total of 67 years of service, retired last month.

John Nuonno, with 37 years of service, and John Sinto, with 30 years, were honored by their fellow Westchester County Playland Employees at a party March 30. David Krumlauf, superintendent, presented them with watches.

Sinto started out as a skate boy in the ice rink at Playland in 1943. Both he and Nuonno became ride operators as well as maintenance men. Co-workers will miss seeing Nuonno operating the Turtle Chase, one of Playland's great attractions.

The party at Playland Casino, chaired by Helen Tuttle, was attended by 70 members of the Playland chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. Guests included former superintendent Eugene White, auditor Nicholas Vece, Jr., and Playland CSEA president Carmine Lamagna.

Binghamton Retirees Set May 21 Meeting

BINGHAMTON — Binghamton Area Retirees chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. has set May 21 as the date for its next meeting, according to chapter secretary Florence Drew.

The meeting is scheduled to be held at 2 p.m. in the American Legion Post 80 Clubhouse, 76 Main St., here. of the Department of Audit and Control by Mr. Suchin and multi-sponsored by Messrs. Greco, Bell and De-Salvio, to amend and continue the supplemental retirement allowance. This provides that his benefit be paid through May 1974. It is hoped that additional legislation will be adopted making the supplemental allowance perman-

Are Urged To Help Pass

The following report of the CSEA retirees committee is reprinted at our readers' request from the April 3 issue of The Leader.

There are an estimated 80,000 persons currently eligible for membership in retirement chapters of the Civil Service Employees Assn. and CSEA is going after them by attracting attention to and urging support of several will benefit you.

It is expected that the Legislature will be in recess from April 13-25. Your legislators will be home during this period. Contact them and urge the passage of this important bill. We would also like you to write to your legistors, and to Assembly Speaker Majority Leader Warren Anderson. Also write the Governor.

We would like you to lend a hand in securing the passage of other legislation by similar direct contact. Senator Langley has introduced a bill to amend the Civil Service Law with respect to survivors' benefits for present retirees. This is Senate Bill No. 1655.

Another bill worthy of support is Senate Bill No. 5933 introduced by Senator Ackerson and Assembly Bill No. 7223 introduced by Assemblyman Tills. This provides for a recalculation of the retirement allowance for those whose retirement allowance is less than $4,000 at zero option.

Since we last wrote you, our retired membership rolls have grown to over 10,000 and we are continuing to grow rapidly. There are now seven area chapters that have been chartered by our Board of Directors. These are established in the following areas: Capital District, Binghamton, Ithaca, Rochester, Suffolk, Nassau and Syracuse.

There are two relatively new low-cost insurances that are available to retirees. One is the Hospitalization Cash Indemnity Plan that has over 4,000 retired enrollees. There is also a mass merchandised Auto Insurance Plan available to retirees. If you wish either of these plans, they may be obtained through headquarters.

Our dues are still a low $4.80 per year.

In addition, if you wish a full subscription to The Leader, you can obtain this at a special rate of $3.70. There is also a special subscription rate of $1.50 for 12 issues (featuring at least one page of retiree news). You can start receiving The Leader by sending your check or money order for $3.70 or $1.50 to Retirement Subscription, The Civil Service Leader, 11 Warren St., New York, N.Y. 10007.

We appreciate your continuing support of CSEA. If you know of any state or political subdivision retiree who is not a member, urge him to join. Remember, there is strength in numbers.

SOUTHERN CONF MEETING

Three Conference officers look over plans for upcoming Southern Conference Workshop at Grossinger's, June 17-19. Third vice-president Arthur Bolton, first vice-president James Lennon and second vice-president Lee Connors are members of workshop committee, along with president Nicholas Puzziferri, John Haack of Westchester County and Reuben Cohen of Sullivan County.

New Paltz chapter president Raymond Gallagher asks question about restructured CSEA during discussion of regional office.

Marie Romanelli, left, New Paltz chapter board member, confers here with Conference treasurer Rose Marcinkowski prior to meeting getting under way.

Harlem Valley president Ann Bessette raises question of vote procedure as Westchester president John Haack listens.

Sullivan County's Reuben Cohen and Linda Barley evidently agree with whatever has just been said at meeting.
