FBI Has Jobs For Clerks And Stenos

Typists, Translators Also Needed

By ROGER L. MEADOWS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation today announced that applicants are being sought for clerical, translator and fingerprint classifier positions. Vacancies exist or will exist in NYC. At the same time the FBI revealed that no more openings exist now in technical titles for which qualifications had been published previously. The present appointments are in the following titles:

Clerk, $1,954.
Stenographer, $2,168.28.
Typist, $1,954.
Under-Clerk (Trainee), $1,756.
Translator, $2,394.

These are entrance salaries. The positions offer excellent opportunities for advancement.

Examinations and interviews are given at regular intervals at the FBI field offices. The NYC office, where application forms may be obtained, is at the Federal Courthouse, Room 234, Foley Square, Manhattan. FBI offices are also

State Assn. Organizes Meeting

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY, Sept. 17—The Executive Committee of The Association of State Civil Service Employees discussed at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel the Feld-Hamilton career law salary adjustments now being considered by the State Salary Board, a maximum 40-hour, five-day week with pay for overtime, the liberalization of the retirement system, the extension of membership to municipal employees, the approval of charters for two new chapters, establishment of two regional conference areas, arrangements for the annual meeting on October 15 and other matters.

Twenty-five members of the Committee were present. They included the new members, Robert R. Hopkins, Buffalo, and Clarence T. Stott, Binghamton, Presidents respectively of the Western and Central New York Chapter Conferences. Dr. Frank L. Tolman, President of the State Association, presided.

Keen Interest in Salaries

The Committee reflected the keen interest of State employees generally in the survey of salaries now being conducted by the State Salary Board, and strongly supported the stand of the Association that the Salary Board take the employees and the people in-

Patrolman Requirements To Be Altered

Appointments Create Sudden Need

By ARTHUR LIEBERS

President Ferdinand Q. Morton of the NYC Civil Service Commission announced today that the Commission has swung into action on the next Patrolman (P.D.) examination. He revealed that the Commission has held conferences on the subject and that various changes in the notice of examination, compared to the last previous notice, are being considered. The new notice will not be identical with the last previous one.

President Morton estimated that the period for the receipt of applications would be opened some time in October.

Sidney M. Stern, Acting Director of Examinations, was busily engaged on the project, and the work was turned over to Samuel H. Galston, the Director, on his return from vacation yesterday.

Longer Application Period

The previous written examination was held on March 9 last. There had been two periods for receipt of applications—December 12 to 28, 1945, and January 16 to 29, 1946. The second one was ordered to allow a greater opportunity for returning veterans to compete. A total of 23,314 applied.

All UFOA Members Called to Meeting

Reports of delegates to national labor conventions will feature the meeting of the NYC Uniformed Fire Officers Association on Friday evening, September 20, 8 p.m. at the Hotel Martinique.

Other matters of importance to the uniformed officers will be discussed, and Lieutenant Henry J. Fehling, Recording Secretary of the UFOA, has issued a special call asking all members to attend.

The guest speaker will be Arthur A. Lynch, Deputy City Treasurer.

Floodlights to Emblazon Fire Physicals in Park

By F. X. CLANCY

Most of the sessions of the NYC physical examinations for candidates will be held at night, under floodlights at the South Tennis Courts at Van Cortlandt Park, The Bronx.

The NYC Civil Service Commission expects to start the examinations on Thursday, September 25, or Friday, September 26. Candidates will soon receive cards notifying them when to appear for their physical tests.

Evening sessions were decided upon for two reasons. Many of the candidates are employed and will be able to take the test without losing time from their jobs. Also, the examiners in the test, high school and college physical instructors, are busy during the day at their regular tasks, but will be able to attend the evening sessions.

4,000 to Compete

The physicals will be taken by approximately 4,000 candidates who passed the written and medical portions of the examination. However, the final list will consist of only 1,500 names. The scores of the written and physical tests will be averaged and those candidates standing 1,500 and higher on the list will be passed.

It is expected that all those on the list will be appointed to the Fire Department within a year after the list is promulgated and that another examination will be held during 1947 to provide a list of eligibles for the following year. Those who fail on this test, but are under 29 (or are eligible by being able to deduct their period of military service from the actual age and arriving at a figure less than 29 years) will have another opportunity to try for the Fire Department positions.

Exam Requested For Policewoman

The Police Department has requested the NYC Civil Service Commission to hold an open-competitive examination for Policewoman.

The last eligible list expired three years ago, and except for a very few women who may have appointment rights because of early service in one of the women's branches of the armed forces, there are no eligibles.

With a quota of 190 Policewomen in the budget, there are only 140 in the department now and the bureau has been assigned to important duties in connection with the drive against juvenile delinquency.

The test, when held, will give women an opportunity to compete for important jobs which pay $2,500 to start and offer the same increases as Patrolman positions. The last Policewoman test attracted a very high type of candidate. Many of those appointed were college graduates.

The LEADER starts its eighth year with this issue.

Ways to End Injustice To Employees Come Up Oct. 15 in State Assn.

Officers to be Elected and a Final Vote Taken on Admitting Local Employees—Pay Increases To be Asked, on Sliding-scale Basis

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY, Sept. 17—The annual meeting of the Association of State Civil Service Employees to be held at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel on October 15, will be one of the most important in the long history of the organization. Action will be taken on means to end inequities and other burdens, some of which have endured for years, despite demands for their cessation.

Among the vital issues which will come before the representatives are the expansion of the Association to increase its membership by including local employees; election of officers; consideration of salary plans and uniform personnel practices in State agencies; exemption of pensions from taxation; extra pay for hazardous work, and other important matters.

Greater Association Project

The "Greater Association" plan to include local employees to membership will become effective if approved by the October meeting. The plan was approved in principle at the annual meeting last October, was voted on favorably in June at a special meeting and, according to the Constitution of the Association, must be voted favorably at a second meeting to become effective. The second meeting would be the session next month.

The plan of implementation is the Full Membership Plan submitted by the majority of the Executive Committee.

The basic amendment follows: "ARTICLE III. Membership. All employees in the civil service of the State of New York and its civil divisions, including cities and villages, shall be eligible for membership."

Ticket Nominated

The nominating committee of the Association has submitted the names of the following candidates to the Secretary, and they will appear on the official ballot on October 15.

Officers: President, Dr. Frank L. Tolman; 1st Vice-president, Jesse B. McFarland; 2nd Vice-president, Leo F. Gurry; 3rd Vice-president, John F. Powers; Secretary, Janet Macfarlane; Treasurer, Earl P. Pfannebecker.

Executive Committee: Agriculture and Markets, Clyde A. Dyer and William F. Kuehn; Audit and Control, Martin P. Lanahan; Banking, Marie Hess; Civil Service, Theodore Becker; Commerce, Joseph J. Horan; Conservation, William M. Foss; Correction, Leo M. Britt; Education, Wayne W. Soper; Executive, Charles H. Foster; Insurance, Harry S. Deevey; Health, Charlotte Clapper; Labor, Christopher J. Fee; Law, Francis C. Maher; Mental Hygiene, Gordon S. Carille, Arthur J. Gifford, Harry B. Schwartz and John L. Murphy; Public Service, Kenneth A. Valentine; Public Works, Edward J. Ramer; Social Welfare, Jesse B. McFarland; State, Isabelle M. O'Hagan; Taxation and Finance, John J. Denn, Jr.

The Nominating Committee consisted of John A. Cromie, Chairman; Charles A. Brind, Beulah Bailey Thull and Clifford C. Shoro.

Salary Increases Sought

The necessity of salary increases to enable State employees to maintain decent living conditions will play an important part in the deliberations of the Association representatives.

In a report, the Salary Committee of the Association reported that the increase in wholesale prices has been reflected in retail prices and this produces a further reduction in real wages. It added: "There is little hope of an adjustment through present appropriations before next April. But there is an election in November, and candidates should now go on record as to what relief measures they will advocate and support."

"Last year the administration did not approve the full protection urged by the State workers. If the automatic cost-of-living adjustment bill had been passed last year the workers would not now be facing a further cut in real wages. Instead they would be receiving or about to receive an increase in pay equal to the increase in the cost of living."

"The sharp uprush in prices is just a sample of what may happen repeatedly in the months and years ahead. The State workers need an automatic cost-of-living adjustment law."

The State Association Salary Committee is composed of Charles M. Armstrong, Chairman; Mildred M. Lauder, Philip A. Cowen, Charles H. Foster, Dr. Sylvia Parker, Edward J. Ramer and Davis L. Shultes.

With so many of the State's employees, particularly in the institutional services, engaged in work which places them in constant danger, or under conditions, of almost inhuman pressure, the need for extra pay for hazardous

R. A. O'Leary Gets War Dept. Citation

Richard A. O'Leary, of the NYC office of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets, has received a citation for the Medal of Freedom from the War Department. The citation reads:

"Mr. Richard A. O'Leary, American Civilian, as Port Captain, Transportation Corps, W.D., 4th Port of Embarkation Installation at Cherbourg from October, 1944, to January, 1945, coordinated Civilian Maritime activities at this major installation at a vital time in the Continental Campaign, with his superior adeptness for administration and careful judgment of personnel. His leadership, exemplary discipline, mess and communication reforms raised morale, resulting in record unloading operations cited in official commendation by the 4th Port Commander. Going beyond normal Port Captain duties, he made periodic reports of TC-WD civilian requirements in the Continental field. His recommendations for opening and closing of installations as the picture of operations changed, were adopted achieving maximum results with minimum personnel and equipment. The program instituted by Mr. O'Leary at Cherbourg was later adopted as SOP for WD TC installations in the field."

CHEST X-RAY OFFER GETS BIG RESPONSE

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY, Sept. 17—Spurred on by the example of Governor Dewey who was the first State employee to take advantage of the opportunity to receive a chest X-ray free of charge, employees all over the State are flocking to gain protection through this health conservation measure.

At many of the institutions which have X-ray apparatus, the pictures are taken there; in other agencies portable apparatus is used.

The type of equipment in every instance eliminates the necessity of disrobing, and the entire process takes only a few seconds.

A commercial X-ray service company is using its own equipment and supplies to do the actual X-raying of employees. This company furnishes the Health Department with finished X-ray films ready for interpretation, which will be made by the staff of the Tuberculosis Division.

All X-ray reports will be confidential and sent directly to each employee in a sealed envelope. If abnormal findings are noted, a report will be sent to the employee's private physician and the employee advised to consult his physician for a more detailed interpretation of the film.

work will be stressed at the meeting.

"Hazardous and arduous jobs are supposed, under State law, to entitle those who perform them to receive extra pay," said Dr. Frank L. Tolman, President of the Association.

"The fact that conditions are not the same in all departments and institutions needs no argument, but the risks and difficulties can be about the same. Some institution heads apparently believe that the extra pay extends only to employees in institutions in the Department of Mental Hygiene. Those employees are well entitled to the extra pay, but they would be the last to say that the employees in institutions in some other department were therefore not entitled to it. As we recall it, the institutions in the Department of Health were the very first ones to receive the extra money for hazardous and arduous work."

"The only solution to the problem lies in the adoption of fair rules of practice and adequate definitions of jobs within the two categories, hazardous and arduous."

"The United States Department of Labor has long had the duty of determining what jobs are particularly hazardous to young workers under the Fair Labor Standard acts. In its order it defines all occupations covered as particularly hazardous in each major industry. Among the occupations considered dangerous to youth are motor vehicle drivers and helpers, and occupations involving exposure to radioactive substances. Under the motor vehicle order the terms motor vehicle, driver, and helper are clearly defined. The danger is plainly seen to lie in the inherent characteristics of the occupation and to extend generally to the jobs within the occupations."

Non-uniform Rules

The lack of uniformity in the State service has been a constant source of irritation to employees and will be on the agenda of the Association's meeting.

Particularly active in the drive for uniformity has been the Western New York Conference of the Association, headed by Robert R. Hopkins of Buffalo, which adopted resolutions asking for personnel rules for teachers in State institutions uniform with those applying to public school teachers.

Teachers in the Social Welfare Department have complained that they have shorter vacations than teachers in institutions in other departments and have to work out of title, besides.

Pension Tax Exemption

The proposal to ask exemption of pensions from Federal income taxation will also hold the interest of many at the annual meeting.

Retired railroad workers, for example, are allowed an exemption of income tax up to $1,440, but former State employees, some of whom receive as little as $500 a year, must pay a tax on this small income.

The full tax rate does not apply to pensions, but the argument is that pensions are deferred compensation and should be certain and be stabilized as to net income. The U. S. Treasury ruling is that 3 per cent of the amount contributed by the pensioner must be reported as income, until the amount (excluded from gross income) that he received exceeds the amount he contributed. Then subsequent retirement allowance must be reported in its entirety for income tax.

Pension Liberalization

Pension liberalization will be proposed and a plan discussed for obtaining it from the 1947 Legislature. An age-55, 30-year, half-pay plan, with 50 per cent of the cost borne by the State, will be one of the pension projects. Restoration of additional annuity opportunity is expected to be favored. Also, Correction and other special pension liberalization will come up.

The State Employee

By Frank L. Tolman

President, The Association of State Civil Service Employees and Member Employees' Merit Award Board

THE MERIT AWARD BOARD

As the Civil Service is founded on finding persons of unusual merit and fitness for the State Service, it is pertinent to ask whether those persons of unusual merit are put to highest possible use after being found and appointed. Do career men have full opportunity for a career, or do they generally fall into established ruts and routine?

Even if they have done a good job in their first position, promotional opportunities are limited by both natural and by artificial restriction. For the higher positions, it is commonly believed that one's superior must either die or resign before the door of opportunity opens a bit.

The vitality of State service depends as much or more on providing maximum opportunities for real achievement all through the State service as on any other factor. Unused brains and abilities are a major waste; a symptom of maladministration in Government Service as elsewhere.

Major Functions of New Board

Here is where the new Merit Award Board comes in. The Board has two major functions: (1) to find superior service, wherever it exists and, (2) to provide new opportunities for exceptional services through suggestions and plans for improvement of work methods, processes and routines of all kinds.

How can any given job or operation be done better, quicker or more cheaply? How can the various jobs be better related, so as to avoid delay and duplication? What new jobs are needed to bring better broad results or to save time and money? How can more useful work be obtained from any person or position? How can definite personnel and morale problems be solved?

The Board is in the market for ideas—for small and for big ideas, for practical ideas and for provocative ideas. The idea may be of the proverbial better mouse trap variety demonstrating just how it will work and how the mouse may be induced to investigate the trap or for a better or more painless plan for collecting taxes, or for a new and better system of State colleges and universities or for better marketing of farm products, or for any detail or part of such large plans or projects within the sphere of State Government.

What Must Be Rewarded

Live wires may be dangerous but only when something goes wrong with the circuit. In personnel administration the same is true. Live-wire men and women are the dynamos of the office or bureau, but they often either go dead through neglect, or go hay-wire through frustration or lack of opportunity to do the thing that needs doing.

The Merit Award Board has the job of discovering and of rewarding (to the limited extent provided by law) both unusual achievement and valuable ideas for improving any part, however small, of State service.

All this is by way of introduction of the Board to the employees. It is expected that every employee will be given a handbook or statement of the policy, procedures and methods of applying for awards. It is none too soon for you to put on paper your special accomplishment on your job or your idea for doing it better.

to their confidence as to procedures and methods upon which their decisions will be based, as well as the facts assembled from study of salaries in private and public employment. President Tolman stated that the Association would insist upon a sound revision of salary scales in the interest of fairness to the State, which must recruit from among the best-fitted citizens, and to the employees of all professions and skills who now serve in the various departments and institutions.

A report upon the recent conference with Comptroller Frank C. Moore relative to liberalization of the retirement system was discussed. The Committee members expressed themselves as pleased with the plan of the Comptroller to consult with members of the system frequently, and further to consider each of the proposals made by the Association to improve the system.

Eye to 200,000

Tremendous interest on the part of municipal employees throughout the various subdivisions of State government was reported and plans were made to extend membership to over 200,000 civil service workers in such subdivisions as soon as the Constitution of the State Association is revised at the annual meeting.

A Western New York Conference area, to include Chautauqua, Niagara, Erie, Cattaraugus, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Allegheny, Monroe, Livingston, Steuben, Wayne, Ontario and Yates Counties, and a Central New York Conference area of Chemung, Schuyler, Seneca, Cayuga, Tioga, Tompkins, Cortland, Broome, Onondaga, Oswego, Otsego, Chenango, Madison, Oneida, Lewis, St. Lawrence, Franklin, Clinton and Essex Counties were approved.

The two new Chapters are The Laboratory and Research Chapter of the New York State Health Laboratory, Albany, and The Department of Taxation and Finance Chapter, Albany. They add to the present 70 chapters functioning throughout the State.

The Committee selected Vice-president Jesse B. McFarland as Chairman of the important Resolutions Committee for the Annual Meeting, and approved the following members of the Committee: Leo F. Gurry, John F. Powers, Theodore Becker, Robert R. Hopkins, Leo M. Britt, Gordon S. Carille, Joseph J. Horan, Charles M. Armstrong, Clarence F. Stott, Lawrence R. Law, William Foss, Angelo Donato and John McDonald.

Chairman McFarland announced that all chapters and individual members who wish to present resolutions should prepare them promptly and send them without delay to him at Association Headquarters, State Capitol, Albany, N. Y. He announced also that a meeting of the Resolutions Committee will be held at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel, Albany, on the evening of October 14, preceding the annual meeting.

Stevens Heads Canvassers

A Board of Canvassers composed of Albert F. Stevens, Chairman; Mildred C. Meskil, Leonard F. Requa, Walter E. Conway, Isabelle N. O'Hagen and George Hayes, was appointed.

Chapter delegates representing the various services are planning to gather on the evening preceding the annual meeting to consider problems particularly related to their groups.

The annual meeting will begin on the morning of October 15 with direct consideration of resolutions outlining the program of the Association for the coming year and conclude with an evening session which will hear the reports of officers and the results of the annual election of officers. There will be a dinner meeting at which several distinguished speakers will discuss civil service topics.

Cromie Is Retiring

A special feature of the Committee's meeting was a farewell resolution and several speeches of members extolling the splendid services of John A. Cromie of the Department of Taxation and Finance, who is retiring from State service after 38 years of continuous service. Mr. Cromie was a former President of the Association, a member of the Executive Committee for 36 years and chairman of the Legislative Committee and other important committees throughout the life of the Association. A large bouquet of flowers marked Mr. Cromie's place at the meeting. He responded to the praise with recollection of the activities and successes of the Association during its 36 years of existence, and assurances that his retirement from State service would in no way diminish his interest in the welfare of the Association.

Van Duzer Lauds Appointments To Merit Board

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY, Sept. 17—In a special statement to The LEADER, Assemblyman Wilson C. Van Duzer, co-sponsor, with Senator Seymour Halpern, of the law which established the State Employees' Merit Award Board, lauded the appointments of Clifford C. Shoro, Chairman; Henry Cohen and Dr. Frank A. Tolman to the Board.

"Governor Dewey's appointments to the Board," said Mr. Van Duzer, "will give to the employees the assurance of good, unbiased and interested administration of the venture in rewarding individual initiative in State service."

"The entire State service is underpaid today—as a result of economic upheaval and inflation—but the majority of people in State service have placed their work and their careers, ahead of personal gain.

"Any chance to reward them is enthusiastically accepted by the majority of people."

LEGION POST TO MEET

American Legion Post 1008, Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, will meet on Thursday, September 19 at 8:30 p.m. at Webster Hall, 119 East 11th Street, Manhattan.

Armory Employees Throughout State Are Urged by NYC Group to Organize

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the Armory Employees Association James E. Deuchar is exhorting the employees in up-State cities and villages to organize. He said:

"The Armory Employees of NYC have been organized for the past 10 years, seven of these as an independent organization. For the past three years we have been affiliated with the Association of State Civil Service Employees, with the approval of the Adjutant General.

"Much legislation pertaining to the welfare of armory employees throughout the State has been obtained by this association, the benefits of which are being enjoyed by all. We invite and urge on this basis that you form your own organization within your township or village, or join as an individual the above mentioned association.

"Prominent among the legislative improvements to the welfare of State Employees promoted by this Association, and from which armory employees have benefited, are: Bonus, an added eight days' vacation, and many beneficial changes in the pension laws.

Benefits of Joining

"By becoming a member of this organization, you will be equipped with an agency for the enactment of legislation vital to your own well being which has the approval of the Adjutant General as well as the heads of all State departments. It also offers many benefits such as group insurance along with accident health insurance for less than you can purchase outside, which is payroll deducted. Its one's duty to protect himself as well as his family in times of sickness and death.

"We can assure you that without organization the Armory Employees can hope for little legislation in their behalf. Under present Military Law, Section 189, compensation for armory employees, for example, has not been changed since 1924. The blame for this lies in the lack of organization, of armory employees throughout the State. Take our word for it, the employees here in NYC are very responsive, and realize what organization means.

"The Armory Employees of NYC ask your support and we know that you will not fail us. The City of Rochester has joined our ranks, so why not you?"

"Each armory employee owes it to himself to help his own cause, so let's get together.

"Some of the resolutions that we are preparing for this coming legislation are: increase in pay, statute of limitations, change of titles, from Laborers to Armorers in the various Grades, Technical, Expert and Laborer. Where Armorers now appear they will be known as Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents.

"Contact your chapter in the city or village where you are located for further information, or contact headquarters of the Association of State Civil Service Employees, Room 156, the Capitol, Albany 1, N. Y."

Dinner Meeting To Be Held by NYC Chapter

The regular monthly meeting of the NYC Chapter, The Association of State Civil Service Employees, will be held on Thursday, September 19, at 6 p.m., at Gasner's Restaurant, 76 Duane Street, President Charles R. Culyer announced. The officers, in response to many requests and to suggestions that a dinner meeting will assure a larger attendance of representatives, arranged this month's meeting accordingly.

Resolutions to be presented at the October 15 annual meeting of the State Association will be submitted by members.

Reports of two special committees—budget and planning—will be received.

The membership campaign will be discussed also.

The Chapter's office, Room 905, at 80 Centre Street, is open to receive dues and service the members. The telephone number of the office is BARclay 7-2285.

POLICE PENSION MEETING

Overburdened with strike duties, the members of the NYC Police Pension Board postponed their meeting until tomorrow (Wednesday) at Police Headquarters. Fifty retirement applications are on file.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE RUNS IN HIGH GEAR

Special to The LEADER
 ALBANY, Sept. 17—Swelling piles of applications for membership in the Association of State Civil Service Employees are mute testimony to the success of the Association membership campaign which is now going full blast.

Despite the present all-time high in membership, exceeding 30,000, the Association is looking forward to nearly 100 per cent of State employees being members of the organization as a result of the present Unity Drive.

Greatest, Says Tolman
 "We have the greatest association of State civil service employees in the nation and it is due entirely to the unselfish and intelligent will of State civil service employees to handle their own problems with their own employers in a spirit of common responsibility to the people," said

Dr. Frank L. Tolman, President. Joseph D. Lochner, Executive Secretary, said:

"This is the first time since the depletion of State personnel as a result of the war that we have reached the 30,000 membership. The membership since 1942 has hovered about the 28,000 mark, largely because of the thousands of vacant positions and the many temporary appointees.

Why the Big Response
 "The intense activity of the State Association in defending the rights of the civil service employees and in seeking to meet new conditions and new problems vital to employee welfare and to the maintenance of the highest type of service to the people, is responsible for the splendid response to membership this year on the part of returning veterans and new, permanent employees.

WHAT EVERY STATE EMPLOYEE SHOULD KNOW

By THEODORE BECKER

Promotion Candidates Gain Much by Keeping Posted

There is more to an announcement of a promotion examination in the State service than meets the eye. Specifically, it is the information set forth on the reverse side of the announcement. At the foot of the announcement is an admonition to "See General Instructions on Reverse Side." This is very sound advice and failure to heed it may have a tremendous effect upon your civil service career. Let us see how this could occur.

Let us suppose that the face of the announcement calls for one year of service as a Clerk immediately preceding the date of the examination and that you have been advised of the date the examination will be held. If you will have had eleven months' service on the examination date you will be eligible and should file. This is based on the information on the reverse side of the promotion announcement that "an applicant who lacks one month or less of the required permanent competitive service will be permitted to compete if otherwise eligible."

Notification of Examination
 Of course, it is good policy to file for promotion examinations if you lack only a few months of service where the examination date is not set in the announcement or otherwise made available. There is sometimes a considerable time lag between the last date to file applications and the examination date.

In the latter connection, the general instructions tell you that if your application is approved you will be notified of the time and place to appear for examination and, if disapproved, you will be notified of this fact before the examination date. It is good practice, however, to assume that your application will be approved and to make the necessary preparations in anticipation of taking the examination.

Another point regarding eligibility which the reverse side of the announcement covers is the matter of dating back seniority. If, while you performed "military duty," which is defined in the New York State Military Law to include certain Red Cross overseas service and Merchant Marine service, as well as military service, some one below you on an eligible list was appointed and you received your appointment from the same list or from special eligible list, then you are deemed appointed on the earliest date that an eligible below you was appointed. This means that for future promotion examinations you will have credit for as much service in the job to which you were appointed as any eligible below you appointed while you were performing military duty. This provision allows you to take promotion examinations for which you would not otherwise be eligible on the basis of your actual date of appointment.

Inasmuch as some State promotion examinations are limited to employees of a particular promotion unit, it is a waste of your time as well as that of the State Department of Civil Service, to file for an examination which is not open to employees in your promotion unit. The reverse side of the announcement tells you that "a State Department may be divided so that a promotion unit consists of one or more Divisions, Bureaus, offices, etc."

A promotion announcement usually describes the promotion unit to which the examination is open. If you are in doubt whether or not you are employed in the eligible promotion unit, you are advised, on the reverse side, that you may obtain information concerning your departmental promotion units from the department in which you are employed.

Completing Application Form
 Although it might be expected that competitive class employees already in the service are familiar with the manner of completing an application form, experience has shown that instructions on this subject are never out of order. Hence, a separate section covering this matter is contained on the reverse side of the promotion announcement.

It urges you to read the instructions and to answer every question, because an incomplete application may be disapproved. Among other things, it reminds you to describe all training and experience.

7 1/2 P.C. Extra Pay Granted For Hazardous Work in 3 Mental Hygiene Wards

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY, Sept. 17—The Department of Mental Hygiene has advised the directors of institutions under its jurisdiction that Budget Director John E. Burton has approved a 7 1/2 per cent increase in gross salary for employees in types of wards described as assaultive, untidy and psychopathic. The additional pay will be retroactive to October 1, 1945.

The Association of State Civil Service Employees, since the law providing up to 10 per cent extra pay was passed by the 1944 legislature and approved by Governor Dewey, has been active in urging establishment of the maximum allowance for all positions involving duties more hazardous or arduous than those normally performed under the titles assigned.

The first payments of this kind were established by Budget Director Burton for employees in the tubercular wards of the various State institutions some time ago.

Up-state Payments First

The Department of Mental Hygiene has advised the State Association that the payments will be made first to up-state institutions and extended as quickly as survey findings permit to institutions in the NYC-Long Island area, including Rockland State Hospital. However, payments in all cases will be retroactive to October 1, 1945, so that all employees affected will receive the same time credit.

The statement of Dr. Frederick MacCurdy, Commissioner of Mental Hygiene, to directors of institutions in his department, follows:

"The Department has been advised that the Director of the Budget will approve a bonus for employees who, in his opinion, are assigned to duties more hazardous or arduous than those normally performed by employees with the same title. In order that employees on these wards may be paid the bonus, such wards must have been approved by Department surveys as caring for a predominant number of patients of the required classifications. Employees on the following types of wards have been approved for extra compensation:

"1. Assaultive—Those predominantly housing disturbed patients who frequently assault others.

"2. Untidy—Those predominantly housing untidy patients who wet and soil frequently.

"3. Psychopathic—Those predominantly housing semi-delinquent patients whose behavior makes their supervision and control hazardous at a State school or a children's unit at a State hospital.

Salary Rate to be Increased

"Payment of the bonus will be retroactive to October 1, 1945. The rate of the bonus for full time employment has been set by the Budget Director at 7 1/2 per cent of the gross salary of the employee in each case. For convenience in the preparation of the payroll and to permit the integration of the bonus with the regular salary, the salary rate of the employee will be increased by the percentage of bonus allowed.

"Employees working full time on these wards, and their reliefs, will be eligible for this bonus. Relief employees shall receive a bonus payment computed on an hourly rate in the same manner as now paid on tuberculosis wards, except at 7 1/2 per cent.

"Employees regularly assigned to full time work on above described wards will continue to receive the bonus rate while they are absent on approved leave with pay, pass or vacation. The emergency increase will be computed on the increased rate and the bonus rate will constitute part of salary for retirement purposes. Thus, an employee whose salary, exclusive of emergency increase, has been $100 per month and who is regularly employed full time on wards described above, will receive a bonus of 7 1/2 per cent or a total of $107.50 per month; after maintenance value, if any, has been deducted, the appropriate emergency increase is to be added."

Age 55 Pension Plan Reopening Nears End

IN LESS than two weeks the opportunity of NYC employees to take advantage of the reopening of the age 55, 30-year, half-pay pension plan will expire.

Two weeks ago there were 35,000 employees still under later-age retirement plans. This number has been reduced, through the cooperative efforts of the NYC Employees' Retirement System and The LEADER, but the change to the more liberal plan should be almost unanimous. The employee can either retire earlier than otherwise or, assuming retirement at any allowable age under a later-age plan, the retirement allowance becomes greater by acceptance of the present opportunity.

Though the rate is higher, the total amount to be contributed may be less under the age-55 plan, because made over a shorter period. Each employee should ascertain from the Retirement System, 52 Chambers Street, just how extensively he or she would be benefited.

Employees frequently work for liberalization of pension systems. Here is an example of liberalization which, if not seized, will not only redound to the disadvantage of the individual employees as to their own retirement benefits, but will be a blow to other efforts at other liberalization. If you're offered what you fight for and then don't accept it, a cause is injured.

The City will do at least as much more for each acceptor of the age-55 plan as he does for himself. The employee must act by Monday, September 30. It is folly not to do so.

Armed Forces Cling To Non-Military Jobs

THE use of military personnel in civilian jobs still continues on a large scale in Federal employ, and in some instances is actually expanding. Protests by civilian employee groups are growing, and rightfully so. The merit system can be undermined in many ways and filling of civilian jobs with military personnel is one of the most threatening. Also, it is another example of perpetuating practices necessary in war that are unnecessary and invidious in peace.

The remedy has been found difficult to impose, because the armed forces emphasize their admitted heavy responsibilities, and connect these with arguments favoring "experienced personnel."

You would imagine that the Federal civilian service does not rate and reward experience and that the armed forces fear the "blundering methods of civilian recruitment." Yet jobs that were competently filled by civilians before the war, became war casualties and the armed forces supplied the replacement in true military fashion. Now these forces are determined not to let go what they have won. Still, these jobs are hardly justifiable spoils of war.

Pre-war Not Covered

DOES New York State veteran preference apply to those who were inducted under the Selective Service Act into the armed forces and were released prior to December 7, 1941?—E. A.

The service must be rendered in time of war. The answer to this question is No.

Merit Man

HENRY A. COHEN

A NATIVE OF NYC, who moved to Albany in his early youth, Henry A. Cohen grew up in the atmosphere of State civil service and his appointment to the Employees' Merit Award Board by Governor Dewey is another high point of a civil service career which started in 1919, when he became a law clerk in the Income Tax Bureau.

He was already a member of the Bar at that time and while working at his State job went to school evenings and studied higher accountancy. In 1925 he accepted an appointment as Title Examiner in the Law Department and in 1931 was designated as Assistant Attorney General, in charge of acquisition of lands for highway-railroad grade crossings.

Active in State Association

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Cohen has long been active in the affairs of the Association of State Civil Service Employees and for several years served as a member of the Legislative Committee. At present he is Chairman of the Supervisory Committee of the Albany State Employees Federal Credit Union.

Aided Veterans

As a member of the American Legion, he devoted considerable time to the needs of veterans who could not find employment in the depression days, and for several years was the Chairman of the Veterans Relief Committee. This distinction and the accompanying burden of work came to him by the unanimous vote of all of the Veterans' organizations in Albany. For about 12 years he has been Counsel of the State Employees Federal Credit Union; since 1943 he has also been the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee.

Mr. Cohen said:

"The recognition by Governor Dewey which made me a member of the New York State Employees Merit Award Board is very gratifying.

"A number of my fellow workers, whose acquaintance I have made over the period of 27 years with the State, have consulted with me about civil service rules and their rights in State service. It is satisfying to know that some of these people benefitted.

Expects Results

"For a long time, I believed that State employees who earned meritorious ratings and who devised methods that aided departmental efficiency should be recognized specially for their efforts. The Merit Award Board will have a difficult task, of course, in establishing a formula whereby merit in the service will be properly evaluated. However, with Messrs. Shoro and Tolman, whose experience with Civil Service matters has been unusually broad, and with my contact with members of the Department of Public Works and other State Departments, I have good reason to hope that fair and reasonable rules and results will be accomplished."

Clifford J. Shoro, past President of the State Association, and Dr. Frank L. Tolman, incumbent President, are the two other members of the Board.

Looking Inside

By H. J. Bernard

NYC CIVIL SERVICE BOARD WEAK ON OWN PROMOTION

A CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, as a recruitment agency, should set an example of opportunities in the public service. This the NYC Civil Service Commission in previous administrations has flagrantly failed to do. It is imperative that the new administration should abandon the settled policy of discouragement.

Promotion opportunities are the key to opportunities in the civil service, because they measure the possibilities of advancement.

For nearly a decade there has been little even approximating such opportunity in the NYC Commission; in fact, failure to provide it has driven some of the very best employees to other branches of the city government, or to the State or Federal government. They got ranking marks in open-competitive examinations and made illustrious records in the jobs they filled.

Long List of Emigres

The list of the emigres is long. The salaries they received in their new jobs were incomparably higher than what the NYC Commission had paid them. That the examining staff of the NYC Commission should become little more than a tail team for the State and Federal service is a cruel negation of the merit system.

It is incredible that the examination for promotion to Examiner, NYC Civil Service Commission, held on January 22, 1946, was the first one held in that title in more than a decade. The examination for promotion to Administrative Assistant, held on June 1, 1945, would shunt eligibles out of the examining service and into administration, and through disuse in effect shunted some of them out of the Commission entirely.

William J. Murray was the No. 1 eligible on that list. He recently became the Assistant Administrative Director, State Civil Service Commission. His office is close to that of James E. Hagerty, the No. 2 eligible on the same list. Mr. Hagerty is Director of Salary Standardization. Mr. Murray, who had been Acting Secretary of the NYC Commission, left his $3,750 position to go with the Board of Education at $4,500, rose to $5,340, and next shifted to Albany. Mr. Hagerty left the Commission at $4,300, to accept the State job at $6,700, the same as Mr. Murray gets in Albany.

Good Recruitment, Bad Administration

Other enforced alumni of the Commission include Joseph Rechetnick, now Chief Personnel Officer of the Housing Authority at $6,360; Milton Muscus, Principal Personnel Technician with the State, at $5,985, having left the NYC Commission at $4,280; Milton Mandell, Assistant Chief Research Director, U. S. Civil Service Commission; William A. Brody, who became Director of Personnel, National Labor Relations Board and National Wage Stabilization Board and member of the Federal Personnel Council; then returned to city service as Personnel Officer, Health Department, now receiving $5,800; Margaret McGillicuddy, until her recent resignation Assistant Personnel Director, Port of New York Authority; Theodore Lang, Administrative Assistant, Board of Education; Norman Carroll, Instructor of Public Administration, NYU; Sidney Feiler, Trial Examiner, National Labor Relations Board, and Eugene A. Berlin, Chief Placement Officer, U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps. Also Joseph Watkins and Irving Gold, now with the State Commission.

It is indeed a source of satisfaction to the Commission that it was able to recruit such splendid personnel in its Examining Division, but it is a disgrace that it could find no means of retaining them.

Forgotten Women

Editor, The LEADER:

Recently in your columns a letter stated that an organized group of NYC employees suggests that workers in a grade ten years should automatically obtain promotion to the next higher grade. State employees will second that motion. Why, instead of being in a grade 10 years, there are some female State employees with 20 to 30 years' service who have been at the top of the (assistant) Clerk grade for 10 to 15 years!

This means that they never had their basic salaries increased during that period. Thanks to Governor Dewey, they have received the emergency bonus since 1943.

It is high time to correct the condition. Some men forget the underdog when they reach the position where they can say who is to be promoted and who is not.

Even when the women passed promotion examinations they were not promoted because there were no more vacancies. But the State could create a new senior clerical position or two or three.

Let Governor Dewey ask each department head to send him at once a list of their employees who have been at the top of the Clerk grade 10 or more years. Then give these people an opportunity to get in the next higher grade, which is Senior ($1,600 to $2,100).

It would not cost the State so much, as the furnishing of definite names of persons by departments will show how little money it would take to lift the morale of this little group of spinsters, widows and wives of veterans of World War I and mothers of veterans of World War II.

FORGOTTEN WOMEN.

Praise from State Troopers

Editor, The LEADER:

As a member of the New York State Police, I wish to express the gratitude of the members Troopers for the investigation conducted by your staff and the open, candid presentation of the facts published in your September 3 issue in the article "State Troopers Voice Grievances on Hours, Transfers and Reprisals."

We sincerely hope that you will lend your support to all measures, legislative, executive or departmental, which have as their aim correction of the present disgraceful and intolerable working and living conditions which fashion the lives of the finest men in State Service.

Troopers' Plight

Editor, The LEADER:

The New York State Trooper is now working 580 hours a month. He receives 17 hours off a week, and four days a month off, "all four days to be taken at one time." While on duty 580 hours, the Trooper is subject to call at all times, of day or night.

To obtain housing at this time is out of the question. Yet with utter disregard of this fact, Troopers have been transferred as far as 200 to 300 miles from their families, on order of the administrative heads of this department. TROOPER.

5000 Jobs For U. S. in World Pact Post Office Test Score Expedited

Special to The LEADER
By BERNARD K. JOHNSTON
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17—Agreement has been reached on a plan to set up a centralized recruitment office for the United Nations, World Bank, United Nations Educational and Social Council and other international agencies.
A committee of technicians has been appointed to work out a uniform plan for establishing requirements, salary grades, duties, tables of organizations and other details of the positions.
Because of the desire for location near the U. N. headquarters NYC has been tentatively chosen at the site for the recruiting office.

The jobs will be pro-rated among the nations and the United States will be allotted 5,000.
When further details of the jobs are available, The LEADER will carry prompt, full information.

The Second Regional Office of the Civil Service Commission is preparing to rate the papers in the recent Postal Clerk-Carrier examination. However, before the actual rating can start, the applications must be processed for veteran preference claims and discharge and disability papers returned to candidates.

James E. Russell, Regional Director, says that it is impossible to tell now just when the rating will be begun or completed. It will be expedited. The LEADER will carry prompt news of the progress in marking the test papers.

MILITARY LISTS FOR CLERK

Special Military promotion lists to Clerk, Grade 3 and 4 are expected to be ready for publication by the end of this month by the NYC Commission.

OPA Investigator Gets Hearing After Ouster; Seeks to Clear Name

Dismissed from the OPA without a hearing, on charges he says were disproved in court, Andrew F. Kaye obtained a hearing on Friday last. The OPA presented its side. On October 2 Mr. Kaye will offer, through his attorney, Harry Gottlieb, evidence in support of innocence and reinstatement.

The Hearing Board consists of OPA officials. Harry Pfeffer, District Food Enforcement Attorney, was selected by Mr. Kaye. Sidney Stark, District Enforcement Attorney, was picked by the OPA. Messrs. Pfeffer and Stark selected the third man, Paul Newlon, Price Administration Executive, who thus became the Chairman.

For OPA the substance of statements by witnesses was presented by Walton Woods, Special Investigator. He took up all of Friday. Mr. Kaye held responsible positions with the OPA. He was appointed as Government Agent from a Federal register, was promoted in a year to Assistant Agent in charge of the Intelligence Unit and later became Supervisory Regional Investigator in the Meat Unit of the Food Enforcement Section.

In the meat investigations Mr. Kaye teamed with Jack Burstein and in a very short time the team made a record in breaking black market cases.

Chief among those were one concerning a Chicago and St. Paul meat packing company. Either directly, or through ramifications, the charges on which he was dismissed relate to that investigation.

Previous Charges Dismissed

What strikes Mr. Kaye as being unjust is the fact that the civil charges, involving aiding a Washington meat merchant in obtaining a new source of meat supply and allegedly accepting a "monetary gift," were almost exactly the same word for word as criminal charges made by the same merchant as complainant to a District of Columbia Grand Jury which were dismissed on motion of the Assistant U. S. Attorney in charge of the case.

"It is highly inconceivable," wrote Mr. Kaye to the OPA, when notified in writing that it had been recommended that his services should be terminated, "that the statements made by the complaining witness, which were not accepted by the Assistant U. S. Attorney, and a second Grand Jury consisting of about two dozen persons, should now be upheld by the representatives of the Office of Price Administration."

In his letter, dated July 3 last, Mr. Kaye asked for a hearing and the record of testimony before the Grand Jury so that the "true picture of the facts and alleged acts" could be disclosed. In this letter he denied the charges or

Convention Asks Reform Of Federal Practices

Special to The LEADER
CLEVELAND, Sept. 17—Opposition to the use of military personnel for civilian jobs, arbitrary personnel ceilings, and the cumbersome rating system was expressed in resolutions adopted by the National Federation of Federal Employees at their national convention.

The convention said that the use of military personnel in civilian positions "has grown to wide proportions and is regarded by all competent authorities as being inimical to the best interests of the service."

Also by unanimous motion the convention, in opposing arbitrary personnel "ceilings," emphasized, that essential Federal agencies should be adequately staffed to perform their functions in the public's behalf.

Efficiency Rating

The gathering urged that the entire Federal efficiency rating system should be simplified and made far more equitable, and called for the establishment of mandatory training courses for those federal officials whose duty it is to make and pass upon employee efficiency ratings. At the same time, the convention recommended an effective and equitable transfer system for employees, and in another resolution declared the necessity for action which would prevent the misassignment of federal personnel. In this connection also action was called for to insure the proper assignment of all former employees who are returning to the service after serving in the armed forces.

The widespread and growing practice of attaching "riders", affecting federal employees, to Congressional legislation was deplored by the convention, which pointed out that under such circumstances fair and sound consideration of personnel problems is often impossible.

Overtime Pay

That all Federal employees, without exception, should be paid for overtime at the rate of time-and-one-half, won unanimous approval. In another resolution the Federation asserted that employees should be given 30 days written notice upon reassignment to a subordinate position, with the reasons for the change cited, and further, that the employee be given the opportunity to protest the action before an impartial board.

13 Library Branches Increase Facilities for Studying to Pass Tests

Thirteen branches of the New York Public Library, located in Manhattan, The Bronx and Richmond, now offer civil service reference centers, providing greatly increased reference facilities and study material to job applicants.

Establishment of five additional centers in branch libraries during the past year brings the total to seven in Manhattan, five in The Bronx and one in Richmond.

The Reference Librarian in charge at each branch, who is thoroughly familiar with all data in the civil service collection, will direct an interested candidate to the information most likely to answer his need.

Type of Study Material

Study material readily accessible at each branch includes:

- Copies of municipal examinations given since 1938, indexed according to official title;
- In-service-training manuals put out by the Municipal Civil Service Commission;
- A twelve-month file of the Civil Service LEADER and back files of other journals;
- Notices, handbooks, study material and guides for State and federal examinations (copies of State and federal examinations are not available to anyone);
- A collection of books on civil service careers, including titles such as "Government Jobs and

How to Get Them" and "Your Municipal Reference Library"

Municipal Reference Library

In addition to the collections available at 13 other branches, there is, of course, extensive material at the Municipal Reference Library. This branch library serves as the official depository for all material of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, including copies of all municipal civil service examinations ever given.

Following are names and addresses of branches having civil service centers:

ALBANY TAX GROUP HEADED BY JOHNSON

ALBANY, Sept. 17—The Department of Taxation and Finance Chapter of the Association of State Civil Service Employees, Albany, held their first election of officers in the Alfred E. Smith State Office Building. The result of the election follows: President, Arvin Johnson, Income Tax Bureau; Vice-president, Joseph Folly, Miscellaneous Tax Bureau; Secretary, Alice Allen, Local Assessment Bureau, and Treasurer, George Hayes, Administration. Delegates elected were Francis Kelliher, Law Bureau, and Joseph Kenny, Local Assessment Bureau.

Chapter officers are planning an active year. There is great enthusiasm and the new chapter promises to be one of the most constructive of the seventy chapters of the Association.

FBI Needs Special Agents, Clerks, Stenos and Typists for Steady Jobs located at Albany and Buffalo, N. Y. and Newark, N. J.

The official notice follows: Information Concerning the Clerical and Clerical-Technical Positions in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice.

The clerical and clerical-technical positions are Translator, Fingerprint Classifier, Stenographer, Typist, Clerk, Under-Clerk (trainee). These positions are not under Civil Service regulations. Examinations and interviews for all these positions are held at regular intervals in each of the Bureau's Field Offices. The qualifications are as follows:

Age and Physical Requirements

Applicants for appointment to the various clerical positions in the Bureau must be between the ages of 18 and 35 years. MALE APPLICANTS must be capable of performing physical exertion. They must have uncorrected vision of not less than 20/40 (Snellen) in one eye and at least 20/50 (Snellen) in the weaker eye without glasses, and at least 20/20 (Snellen) in each eye corrected. No male applicant can be considered who has been found to be color blind. FEMALE APPLICANTS must be capable of performing moderate physical exertion. Visual acuity must be no less than 20/200 (Snellen) in both eyes with one eye corrected to at least 20/30 (Snellen).

Educational and Job Qualifications

All applicants for positions must be citizens of the United States. Applicants for the various clerical positions must be high school graduates.

Stenographic applicants must be able to successfully pass a dictation test given at the rate of 120 words per minute and a typing test at the rate of 45 words per minute.

Typist applicants must be able to pass a typing test at the rate of 45 words per minute.

Translator applicants must be thoroughly qualified in more than one foreign language and must be able to successfully translate material both to and from the English language.

Applicants for the positions of Clerk and Under-Clerk (trainee) must possess basic qualifications for assignment to indexing, filing or other clerical duties. It is not essential that applicants for these positions be Typists.

Fingerprint Classifier Positions

All Fingerprint Classifier vacancies in the Federal Bureau of Investigation are filled from the staff of clerical employees. Clerks are assigned to this duty who demonstrate fitness for training and advancement as technical fingerprint employees. Fingerprint positions in this Bureau are available only in Washington, D. C.

Salaries

The basic entrance salaries for the various positions above enumerated are as follows:

Translator	$2,394.00

Prison Guard Exam Is Announced by U. S.

Special to The LEADER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17—The Federal Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for Guard, Department of Correction (Prison Officer), for Washington, D. C., and the vicinity. This test has also been announced by the California Regional Civil Service Office.

Details and application forms may be obtained by writing to the Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. There are no then to the left as far as you can. Repeat twenty-four times and increase daily by two.

3. Stand up straight. Spread the feet apart in a comfortable stance. Place the hands on the hips. Maintain your legs rigidly in position. Now, turn from the waist, first to the right and then to the left as far as you can. Repeat twenty-four times and increase daily by two.

4. Stand up straight. Keep the heels together and the toes pointed out at an angle of forty-five degrees. Place the hands on the hips. Now, bend the knees slowly and lower your body to a squatting position, keeping your spine erect. Return slowly to your standing position. Repeat this twenty-four times and increase daily by two.

5. Stand up straight with the head up and the chin in. Extend your arms straight out to the sides at shoulder level, with your palms facing up. Now circle the arms backward slowly. The finger tips should describe a circle of about ten inches in diameter. After repeating this maneuver twenty-four times in a backward circle, repeat in a forward circle. Increase daily by two.

6. Stand erect. Keep the heels together. Bend the knees and lower your body in a squatting position. Bend forward a little and place your palms down on the floor, shoulder width apart. Now, placing your weight on your palms, kick back, straighten out your knees, arch your body slightly, and touch the floor with your toes. Now return the knee-bent position. Stand up erect. These maneuvers should be performed to a count of four. At one you squat. At two you kick back. At three you return to the squat. At four you straighten up. Repeat ten times and increase daily by two.

7. Stand up straight. Keep the heels together and the toes pointed out at a forty-five degree angle. Place your hands on your hips. Now slowly bend your head back slowly as far as you can. Repeat eight times. Now, starting with the head erect again, bend the neck first to the right and then to the left eight times. Again starting with the head erect, turn the head slowly first to the right and then to the left eight times. Increase this maneuver daily by two. It is extremely important to perform these movements slowly. Jerking the head quickly may strain the neck muscles severely.

8. Sit on the floor with the spine erect. Keep the knees stiff and the legs extended straight forward with the heels together. Now place the palms of your hands on the floor, slightly back of the body, with the arms straight. Raise your hips from the floor as far as you can, and drop your head back slightly. Return to your original sitting position. Repeat ten times and increase daily by two.

9. Stand up straight. Bend the knees slowly and lower the body to a squatting position. Bend forward slightly and place your palms on the floor shoulder width apart. Keep the elbows stiff. Now kick your legs straight back, touch the floor with your toes, and arch your body slightly. Starting from this position, bend the arms at the elbows slowly, and bring your body down towards the floor, thereby raising your body back to its arched, extended position. Repeat the arm-bending (dips) as many times as you can. Try to increase daily.

10. Sit on the floor with the spine erect. Keep the legs extended straight forward with the heels together. Raise your arms straight above your head and lock your thumbs. Now, without bending the knees, bend from the waist and bring your finger tips to your toes. Straighten up to the starting position and repeat sixteen times. Increase daily by two.

11. Sit on the floor with the spine erect. Place your hands on your hips. Spread your legs apart as far as possible, keeping the knees stiff. Now turn the body to the right as far as you can without shifting the position of your legs. Repeat to the left. Do this sixteen times and increase daily by two.

12. Stand straight. Bring the arms into running position by bending the elbows and closing the fists. Raise your heels off the floor. Now run in place by bringing your knees up. Practice for about a half minute the first day, increase up to 7 minutes.

13. Stand straight. Bring the arms into running position by bending the elbows and closing the fists. Raise your heels off the floor. Now run in place by bringing your knees up. Practice for about a half minute the first day, increase up to 7 minutes.

3222, Senior Examiner of Methods and Procedures, Department of Taxation and Finance. Usual salary range $3,100 to $3,850, plus an emergency compensation. Application fee $3. At present, two vacancies exist, one in the Motor Vehicle Bureau and one in the Administration Bureau.

3223, Principal Clerk (Payroll), Workmen's Compensation Board, Department of Labor. Usual salary range $2,000 to $2,500, plus an emergency compensation. Application fee $1.

3224, Senior Psychologist, Department of Correction. Usual salary range $3,120 to $3,870, plus an emergency compensation. Application fee $3. At present, two vacancies exist at the Elmira Reception Center.

There is a possibility of getting work near where you live, if you live in any of the 5 boroughs. No written examination will be given. Apply at Room 1128, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn. There are 12 immediate vacancies.

The jobs are classed as provisional, but the experience gained is helpful in passing NYC examinations.

Vacations of 3 weeks a year are granted. Sick leave of 12 days is allowed, with unlimited accumulation, but no consolidation with vacation leave.

Stenographers in the Board enjoy a 5-day week (no Saturday work for any). Some of the jobs include secretarial duties.

What You'll Be Asked

High school training counts in one's favor, but isn't necessary. Elementary school graduation is the minimum educational requirement.

Those intending to apply should be prepared to furnish the following information:

Name, date, address, phone number, source of reference, date available for employment and age.

Are you a citizen of the United States?

Were you ever arrested, indicted, or summoned to court (traffic violations excepted) for violation of any city, state or federal law or ordinance?

Personnel Listed

Personnel for a large plant, say 56th Street, with 750 tons daily capacity, operating 3 watches, making its own power and equipped with a machine shop for repair work would be as follows:

1 Stationary engineer in charge

3 Stationary engineers to stand the three watches

6 Electric crane engineman

1 Electrician

1 Machinist

3 Oilers

45 Licensed Firemen

33 Dump laborers

To handle the trucks and clerical work:

1 Foreman to handle the trucks on the dumping floor.

4 Asst. Foremen for weighing, inspecting and logging loads.

1 Clerk in the office of the stationary engineer in charge, to answer the telephone, make out reports, sick lines, payrolls, and run errands about the plant.

6 Residue truck drivers for the removal of residue from the plant to the dumping point.

Quantity of Material

It is essential for good plant operation and low cost for the plant to receive as much material as it can handle and that it is operated at all times at its maximum output. A plant of this size will receive between 310 and 400 truck loads per day.

Department loads will run from 330 to 360 pounds per cu. yd. the contents being high in paper with a small amount of box wood and about 5 per cent garbage. This makes an excellent burning mixture.

The number of trucks that can dump at the 56th Street receiving pit at one time is 12.

A grade level plant with a pit of sufficient size to take the maximum amount of material which can be burned in 16 hours is an ideal condition, because no stacking of material is necessary by the crane. The material is sufficiently low in the pit to allow free dumping of the trucks at all times, no waiting by the cranes or trucks due to interference in their respective movements, and any fires that start in the material can be easily extinguished by the crane.

ACE OPA INVESTIGATOR SEEKS TO CLEAR HIS NAME

(Continued from Page 7) any wrongdoing. He explained that the subsequent complainant against him in Washington had pleaded for assistance in getting meat, since if the mid-Western firm under investigation got into trouble the Washington merchant would have to go out of business, because 85 per cent of his meat supply came from this source.

Accused with Mr. Kaye was his co-worker, upon whom identical charges were served.

Mr. Kaye had been devoting strenuous efforts toward getting a hearing ever since he received the letter dated July 3, which as-tounded him because of its recommendation that he should be dismissed. All he had been given, he says, was the opportunity to answer the Agency charges, and at no time was he ever interrogated by Agency representatives, merely being suspended from staff on February 20 last. What he sought was the opportunity to call and cross-examine witnesses and present official and substantiating evidence to disprove the Agency charges, along with proof of outstanding character. Mr. Kaye has numerous friends in and outside of NYC, including men of prominence.

Has Outstanding Record

Mr. Kaye, who was on various Federal lists such as Special Investigator, was appointed to the OPA after having made an outstanding record for his services with the Division of Special Investigations, NYC Department of Welfare, where he had been employed from April, 1934 to December 2, 1942. During his NYC employment he conducted investigations of a confidential nature concerning staff irregularities and violations of City, State and Federal laws. He frequently handled co-operative assignments with other agencies, such as the FBI, Secret Service, Narcotic Unit, offices of the District Attorneys of the five counties of NYC and with the U. S. Attorneys of the Southern and Eastern Districts. Frequently he conducted hearings at the office of the Commissioner of Investigation and on many occasions in foreign languages. Mr. Kaye likewise handled many investigations for the Mayor's office in the LaGuardia administration. In this capacity he made many friends through his investigative techniques.

In an effort to assist in the war, he joined the OPA on December 3, 1942, and was assigned to work with the Criminal Unit then being organized. Here he, with the assistance of co-workers, conducted investigations that received both local and nationwide publicity in the detection and partial elimination of black market activities.

During the early part of 1944, Chester Bowles, then National Administrator, decided to form an Intelligence Unit to handle staff investigators. Mr. Kaye, with his immediate superior, who was formerly likewise employed by NYC, then undertook the formation of such a unit, and with Mr. Kaye's assistance recruitment to staff was made. New staff members were then trained by him in the field.

Mr. Kaye and his superior were designated by Mr. Bowles to go outside of their Regional territory

Letter Carriers Ask 25-Year Retirement At $1,800 Per Annum

Special to The LEADER

DETROIT, Sept. 17—Delegates to the 35th Biennial Convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers overwhelmingly adopted a resolution calling for a 25-year optional retirement at $1,800 a year.

William C. Doherty, of Cincinnati, was unanimously re-elected for the third term as president of the NALC. Among other resolutions adopted were those calling for weekly paydays; 5-day, 30 hour week; appeals procedure in the Postal service; and salary increases.

and were sent to Miami, where they conducted an extensive and exhaustive investigation and were instrumental in cleaning up a local situation. Thereafter, Mr. Kaye conducted and supervised numerous investigations which often received nationwide publicity, such as the Scranton District Office expose. In this capacity, Mr. Kaye was often commended by other high Agency officials for his diligent methods of investigative techniques. Here, too, his former contacts were utilized in the course of many investigations.

During the latter part of August, 1945, Mr. Kaye transferred from the Intelligence Unit and was assigned to the Meat Unit of the NY Regional Division.

FIRE HOUSE REVAMPING

As to revamping firehouses, the tentative date for the abolition of the following companies: Engine Co. 251, Second section of Engine Companies 76, 91, 283 and the second section of H & L 26. This will probably be followed on November 15 by doing away with Engine Companies 4, 20 and 29.

Further plans along these lines will be given. Meanwhile, the UFA, through its executive committee, has voiced objection to the joint report by the Fire Department officials and National Board of Fire Underwriters insofar as it would call for the reduction of uniformed personnel. To quote John P. Crane, President of the UFA, "while recognizing that this is a sincere effort to render the fire fighting service of New York City more effective, we are unalterably opposed to any change which would result in the reduction of fire protection."

The "7-7" Club

The "7-7" Club, which is composed of former Brooklyn Auxiliaries, are the proud possessors of a map of Manhattan twenty feet by six feet, spotting all the fire stations. . . Glad to report that the daughter of Frm. Jerry Burke, detailed to 1st Division, is making a successful fight against polio in Mary Immaculate Hospital in Queens. . .

Bids are being sought for construction of a new firehouse out in Brookhaven, L. I. The old one was destroyed by fire. . . Smoke Ejector No. 2, no longer responds to those pier boxes where so much loading of gasoline and the like made it necessary during the war years. . . Firemen were hampered while fighting that smoky fire in the rubber tire and mattress factory in E. 13th St. the other morning by lights strung across the street for a neighborhood festival. The Mobile Canteen and Field Kitchen was special called and was a very welcome sight to the weary firefighters. . .

Multiple Alarms for August

Multiple alarms took an upward turn for August and spread to all five boroughs. By boroughs the situation looked as follows: Brooklyn, one second, one third; Bronx, three seconds; Manhattan, one second; Queens, one second, one fourth; Richmond, two seconds, one third. This brought the total to 11 and an increase of three over July but still less than the high of fifteen reached in June.

Plaque Unveiling

A plaque will be unveiled Sunday at 9:30 a.m. at the quarters of H & L 37, The Bronx, in memory of the late Fireman 1st Grade Charles A. Hickey, killed in action while serving as a Lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve in Japan on September 22, 1945. Services will be under the auspices of F.D. Post 930 of the American Legion.

Firemen's Night at Mardi Gras
The FDNY took an active part in the annual Mardi Gras at Coney Island for the first time in many years.

A dinner, held at Feltman's under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, preceded a parade. Among the dinner guests were Deputy Commissioners Moran and Archer, Acting Chief of Department Frank Murphy, Assistant Chiefs of Department Edward G. Conway and Martin Carrig; Deputy Chiefs in Charge Edward M. F. Conway, Timothy P. Guinee and George Schultz; Secretary Harvey Rosen, Law Assistant Nathan Horowitz, Acting Deputy Chiefs Joseph Scanlon and William Murphy, and A.B.C. Winford L. Beebe.

At the head of the line of march was the Fire Department Band followed by various pieces of fire apparatus including the oldest pumper belonging to the old Brooklyn F.D. The balance of the contingent was made up of some 48 Firemen and a like number of probationary men from the School of Instruction.

Also in the line of march were men from visiting departments from Long Island, Westchester, New Jersey and Connecticut. Loving cups were presented to the Hempstead Department for the most men in line, the Orient Volunteer Company for coming the greatest distance and the Valley Stream Department for the best equipped.

$10,000 Check Received

The owners of Rheingold Brewery sent to the FDNY Welfare Fund a check for $10,000, and a letter of appreciation for the splendid work done and the saving of the property to such an extent that the Brewery could continue in business, after that fifth alarm fire of last week. —Quench.

PER-ANNUM RATE OF $3,500 WOULD BE FAIR, BRIDGE PAINTER SAYS IN LETTER TO PATTERSON

In reply to Budget Director Patterson's arguments in favor of per-annum rates for Bridge Painters, contained in a report to the Board of Estimate and in an interview with The LEADER, Salvatore P. Sciescento, on behalf of himself and some other Bridge Painters, wrote Mr. Patterson as follows:

In The LEADER of August 27 appears an article concerning the Bridge Painters employed by the City of New York, which quotes you at length, showing the advantages of the per annum rate of pay.

You fail to inform the public of several points in the issue:

(1) Were we working 250 days a year at the prevailing rate of pay, we would receive $3,587.50, whereas we, as per annum employees, at the present time receive $3,050.

Less Money Under Budget

(2) Under the prevailing rate of wages, seven hours constitutes a day's work, whereas we, as per annum employees, are working eight hours per day.

(3) In the budget of 1946-47, we received less money on our pay checks than we did in the under the budget of 1945-46, whereas, the majority of civil service employees, working at the per annum rate, received more.

(4) All mechanics employed by the City of New York receive the prevailing rate of pay, as guaranteed to them by the Labor Laws of the State of New York.

(5) According to a statement made by the Police Department recently, the structural steel and bridge painters rate number one in their books as the city's most hazardous occupation. This proves that the Bridge Painter's life is in danger eight hours of every day he is at work.

(6) The city requires a contractor to pay his workers the prevailing rate of pay while doing work for the city. Why not the same deal for the City Bridge Painter?

$3,500 Held Fair

(7) The City Bridge Painter does the same work, and is at times required to do more hazardous work than the men of the contractors, such as painting the suspending cables.

According to my experience with outside contractors and City Bridge Painters, the work of the latter is far superior and less expensive to the taxpayer than that of the former.

The Bridge Painters who signed a per annum agreement in 1945, did so in order to try to settle the confusion that had long existed between your office and themselves. But what was the reward? Beginning with the fiscal year of 1946, our pay checks were actually smaller, and the high cost of living bonus was eliminated. We are now the only per annum civil service employees without a high cost of living bonus.

This letter represents my own views, and I have taken it upon myself to write to you. I am in favor of the per annum rate of pay, if it is a fair deal. At it is now, we are getting an awful slap in the face. My idea of a fair deal would be a base pay of $3,500 per annum for City Bridge Painters.

Gaelic Society Plans

Kenneth Farrell, Chairman of the Ceilidhe Committee of the Gaelic Society, announced that the society is returning to its custom of holding monthly ceilidhes. The committee plans to hold the ceilidhes on the fourth Saturday of every month at the Society's headquarters, St. Matthew's Parish Hall, 214 West 68th St. Mr. Farrell said that the ceilidhe programs will frequently include additional entertainment, plays, concerts, and the like. Music will be provided by James Morrison.

The Society will soon present a play in Gaelic with a cast drawn from the Friday evening language classes. At the present time Sean Condon, the director, is engaged in selecting a suitable play and in gathering a cast. The Society holds classes in Gaelic every Friday from 8:30 to 10 p.m.

Respectfully yours GREEN BUS LINES, INC., by William Cooper, President, State of New York, City of New York, County of Queens, ss.:

William Cooper, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the President of Green Bus Lines, Inc., the petitioner herein; that he has read the foregoing petition and knows the contents thereof and that the same is true to his own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters, he believes it to be true.

The reason this verification is made by deponent and not by Green Bus Lines, Inc., is that said Green Bus Lines, Inc., is a domestic corporation and deponent is an officer thereof, to wit, its President.

WILLIAM COOPER, Sworn to before me this 12th day of July, 1946.

EFFECT OF PENSION OPTIONS ON MEMBER, BENEFICIARY AND ADDITIONAL ANNUITIES

The NYC Retirement Law sets forth the minimum retirement ages, rates, allowances, etc., by groups (Laborer, Mechanical and Clerical).

The retirement allowance is based on a fraction of average salary for the best five consecutive years, multiplied by the number of years of member service. The highest fraction is 1/60, for the age-55, 30-year, half-pay plan. The other plans are on a 35-year, half-pay basis.

The member may elect to get the maximum monthly pension check, but if he wants to protect a beneficiary better, he may accept reduced income for himself for life by exercising one of three alternatives, called options, in return for the greater protection of beneficiary.

3 Options Defined

The three options are:

1. A reduced life income to the member and, upon his death, a lump sum payment to the beneficiary of the balance of the initial reserve on retirement allowance. If the member bought added annuity, permissible to 50 per cent of his own normal contributions, this addition is part of the initial reserve and the balance thereof goes to the beneficiary. The beneficiary may be changed at any time.

2. Reduced life income for the member and, upon his death, continuation of the same income to the beneficiary for life. Under this option any additional annuity purchased is committed to the fund, for there is no lump-sum provision. Beneficiary may not be changed, even if he or she dies before the member.
3. Reduced income for life of the member and, upon his death, one-half of the income he received is continued for the beneficiary for life. Extra annuity is committed to the fund. Beneficiary may not be changed, even if he or she dies before the member.

After retirement no change can be made in the option selected.

NYC Rule for Filing Application by Mail

Applications for NYC civil service examinations may be filed by mail. The following instructions for such filings have been issued by the NYC Civil Service Commission:

"Applications submitted through the mails must be accompanied by a certified check or money order in the amount of the fee, and must be post-marked on the envelope not later than 12 midnight on the last day of filing and received by the Commission not later than 4 p. m. of the day prior to the date of the first test. The official notice to appear for the examination is also the receipt for the payment of the fee. Applicants are cautioned not to send cash through the mails. Mailed applications must have the position applied for noted on the lower left hand corner of the envelope, and the return address noted in the upper left hand corner."

FIRE LINES

By QUENCH

Under the Helmet

There will be a meeting of the UPA tomorrow (Wednesday) at 11 a.m. at old Tammany Hall, 16th Street and Fourth Avenue, Manhattan. The main topic of discussion will be a new system of working hours calling for three day shifts of 9 to 6, with 48 hours off, followed by three night shifts of 6 to 9, followed by 72 hours off. . . . Pathe Pictures have just about completed their set on the PDNY. The latest was a simulated fire in an abandoned tenement opposite Engine Co. 11. Deputy Chief Ziegler and A. D. C. Scanlon were interested spectators at the scene. Smoke pots, metal defectors and so forth made the "fire" appear like a fifth alarm. Added thrills were the "rescue" of a child via aerial ladder and the leading to "safety" of an aged man and woman via fire escape. . .

Lieut. James F. Maloney, Jr., of Eng. Co. 71 and Frm. Edward M. Leeds, Airport Crash Unit No. 31, have just returned from the 47th National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, held in Boston. They were delegates of Mott Haven Post No. 5086 and Henderson Marine Post No. 1819, respectively. . . .

Frm. James Morrissey of Eng. 79 was burned while rescuing a child when a flash fire swept a fourth floor apartment in Harlem. . . . The Sappers and Miners Corps has been reorganized under the command of Assistant Chief of Department Edward G. Conway. It will consist of Company No. 1, made up of Inspectors, commanded by Deputy Chief David J. Kidney; Company No. 2, of Firemen commanded by Lieut. Edward J. Murphy 1, Eng. Co. 90; and Company No. 3, of Firemen, commanded by Lieut. James P. Fleming of Eng. Co. 301. . . .

The Dept. of Purchase is informing the various city departments, including the Fire Department, to conserve paper so that sufficient supplies may remain to take care of the City's essential needs. . . . Frm. 1st Gr. William J. Mulhall resigned from Eng. Co. 29 to join the Police force and is now pounding a beat as a Rookie. . . . Of the 44 veterans on the Special Military Eligible list for Firemen certified by the Civil Service Commission, only 23 accepted appointment in the F. D. Among those accepting was Richard L.

At a Special Term; Part II of the City Court of the City of New York, held in and for the County of New York, at the Old County Courthouse, located at 52 Chambers St., Borough of Manhattan, New York City, on the 19th day of September, 1946.

Present—HON. JOHN A. BYRNES, Chief Judge.

In the Matter of the Petition of HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN and SYLVIA L. GOLDSTEIN, his wife, for leave to change their names respectively to HERMAN J. GOLDWYN and SYLVIA L. GOLDWYN; and as parents of BOYD GOLDSTEIN, an infant under sixteen years of age, to change the name of said infant to BOYD GOLDWYN.

Upon reading and filing the annexed petition of HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN and SYLVIA L. GOLDSTEIN, verified the 28th day of August, 1946, praying for leave to said HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN to assume the name of HERMAN J. GOLDWYN and for leave to said SYLVIA L. GOLDSTEIN to assume the name of SYLVIA L. GOLDWYN, in the place and stead of their present names, and for an order changing the name of their child, BOYD GOLDSTEIN, an infant under sixteen years of age, to BOYD GOLDWYN, and it appearing from the said petition and the court being satisfied that there is no reasonable objection to the change of name proposed:

NOW, on motion of HOWARD A. NEWMAN, the attorney for the petitioners, it is ORDERED that HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN and SYLVIA L. GOLDSTEIN, be and they are hereby authorized to assume the names of HERMAN J. GOLDWYN and SYLVIA L. GOLDWYN, respectively, and that the name of said infant BOYD GOLDSTEIN be and it hereby is changed to BOYD GOLDWYN on and after the 1st day of October, 1946 upon condition that the further provisions of this order be complied with; and it is further

ORDERED that this order and petition be filed and entered within ten days from the date hereof in the office of the Clerk of this Court, County of New York, and that a copy of this order shall, within ten days from the entry thereof, be published once in the Civil Service Leader, a newspaper published in the County of New York, and that within forty days after the making of this order proof of such publication shall be entered and filed with the Clerk of this Court, County of New York, and it is further

ORDERED that a copy of this order and petition shall be served upon the Local Board No. 49 of the United States Selective Service located at 201 West 89th St., Borough of Manhattan, New York City, at which local board petitioner, HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN submitted to registration, within twenty days after its entry, and that proof of such service shall be entered and filed with the Clerk of this Court, County of New York, within ten days after such service; and it is further ORDERED that upon compliance with the above conditions the petitioners herein, HERMAN J. GOLDSTEIN and SYLVIA L. GOLDSTEIN shall be known as and by the names of HERMAN J. GOLDWYN and SYLVIA L. GOLDWYN, respectively, and the said infant, BOYD GOLDSTEIN, shall be known as and by the name of BOYD GOLDWYN, which names they are hereby authorized to assume, and by no other names, on and after the 1st day of October, 1946.

BOB HOPE in "Monsieur Beaucaire," now at the Paramount.

Hope in "Beaucaire" Spreads Merriment

Those shrieks emanating from the rocking Paramount walls are nothing more than the patrons receiving a dose of Bob Hope as "Monsieur Beaucaire."

With Hope at the helm the Tarkington novel is a free-for-all escapade with laughs every step of the way. It's the story of King Louis XV's barber who, to save himself from the guillotine, agrees to impersonate the Duc de Chandre so that that handsome young noble might be free to pursue his lady love. This is Beaucaire in so unusual an interpretation even his mother wouldn't recognize him, but she'd have a wonderful time trying.

Dressed to kill and in constant danger of his life the French barber masquerades his way into the Spanish court, fencing duels, the arms of his favorite chambermaid (Joan Caulfield), and a wedding ceremony with the Princess of Spain (Marjorie Reynolds). It's Hope in his element: complete with wise cracks, comic cowardice, slap-stick and beautiful women by the score. The inevitable poke at Der Bingle is of course present, and very subtle it is, too.

Patric Knowles as the authentic and irresistible Duc de Chandre is always in the nick of time when it comes to saving his timid double from the villainous Don Francisco (Joseph Schildkraut).

So war between France and Spain is averted, the Duc gets his Princess, Beaucaire gets his chambermaid and barber-shop with four chairs and Bob Hope scores again.—S. S.

Taubert, son of Deputy Chief William Taubert of the 2nd Division.

Patrolman Edward Roach of the Glendale Precinct, going off duty heard the bell ring on a box at Freshpond Road and Catalpa Avenue. Sprinting a few yards he collared a man who had just pulled down the handle. . . . Frm. William T. Sullivan of 25 Truck was removed from Roosevelt Hospital via Department Ambulance to his home in Woodside. This Veteran of the Pacific has spent the last six weeks recovering from severe burns suffered in a gas tank explosion while fighting an automobile fire. . . .

That was an unfortunate accident that occurred down at Keansburg when Marjorie Ann, seven-year-old daughter of Frm. William J. Maroney of Brooklyn, was thrown from a speedboat into the waters of Raritan Bay. . . . In Litchfield, Conn., a judge fined two men from Hempstead, L. I., $7.50 each for "lifting" firemen's boots from fire trucks. Their excuse was that they did it only as a joke.

Wonderful repartee is being thrown around the New York Paramount stage by Bob Evans, ventriloquist and his incorrigible dummy. Also in the show are John and Rene Arnaut and Peggy Lee, West Coast songstress. Very smooth music is contributed by head-liner Charles Spivak and his orchestra.

For music by Rachmaninoff, Beethoven, Chopin, Mozart and a number of other outstanding classical composers, plus a romantic love story, it's "I've Always Loved You" at the Criterion.

Accompanying "The Big Sleep" at the Strand is an in-person show lead by Bob Crosby and his orchestra with a supporting revue which includes the Town Criers, Don Cummings, comedian and the dancing Dunhill trio.

Upon completion of "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," Danny Kaye will make a two-month personal appearance tour (his first in five years) with a troupe of thirty performers and an orchestra. One-night stands only.

To Hollywood has come Sean McGlory of the famed Abbey Theatre of Dublin. The 22-year-old actor is being tested for a part in RKO's forthcoming screen version of Eugene O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra."

Ronald Colman is celebrating twenty-five years on the screen.

Al Jolson has joined the advisory board of the new Song Hit Guild which publishes songs by aspiring song-writers.

Judith Anderson is coming East to appear in "The Bonner Sisters" with Dorothy and Lillian Gish.

Estella Sloan booked for twelve weeks at Radio City Music Hall.

Veteran actor Henry Travers has become a member of Hollywood's exclusive Golden Group. The organization is open only to troupers who have been in the profession for half a century or more. Charles Coburn, C. Aubrey Smith and Harry Davenport are among the select few who have already passed the 50-year mark in show business.

One Out of Every Eight NYC Employees Passed No Civil Service Test

Despite the large number of veterans who are seeking permanent jobs with NYC as their post-war careers, a LEADER survey indicates that today approximately one out of every eight municipal jobs is held by a person who did not qualify by a civil service examination. There are about 160,000 New York City employees and about 19,000 jobs are held by provisional workers.

During the war, when the recruitment problem of the city became desperate, a new rule was adopted by the Civil Service Commission to allow non-examination hiring for a period not to exceed the duration of the war and six months. Numerous titles were added to the list of jobs which could be filled in this manner after public hearings were held.

Normally, a provisional may be appointed, but must not serve longer than 10 days after the promulgation of an eligible list which is valid for the position in which he is serving. In case there is an eligible list, and for any acceptable reason an appointment cannot be made from the eligible list, then the provisional's appointment may be renewed by the Civil Service Commission each 15 days.

Latest figures at the offices of the Civil Service Commission (as of July 15, 1946) show the following who did not take an examination:

Limited to 6 mos.....	3,310
Limited to duration and 6 mos.....	15,150
Military Substitutes.....	769
Total.....	19,229

On June 1, 1944, the comparative figures were:

Limited to duration and 6 mos.....	16,932
General.....	4,418
Hospitals.....	831
Transportation.....	4,268
Total.....	26,447

Flux in Hiring

In a normal pre-war year, taking 1938 as an example, 20,500 provisional appointments were made during an entire year, but this does not reflect the figure on the payroll at any time, as many appointments were made for limited periods, and there was a constant turnover of provisional personnel.

2 Patrolman Lists Exist at Same Time, Setting a Precedent

The Municipal Civil Service Commission has promulgated the Patrolman, P.D. list which was published on July 23, 1946. The act of promulgation made the list valid and ready for making appointments.

Ordinarily, the promulgation of a list automatically kills a previous list, but in this case, Sidney M. Stern, Acting Director of Examinations, took special action to protect eligibles on the old list. A resolution was adopted by the Commission under which the old list was maintained in effect until today (Tuesday), the day when the list expires by law, four years from its date of promulgation.

Cleaner Candidate's Grunts Are in Vain

A disgruntled candidate who failed the recent Car Cleaner examination went to the NYC Civil Service Commission to lecture the employees on the examining techniques for unskilled positions. Some of the points he brought out in a loud tone of voice were that a man didn't need a college education to swing a mop and that he didn't see why a man who had worked as an attendant for a State hospital needed higher qualifications to swab the subways; also that he wasn't in love with the subways. P.S. No reaction.

GARNISHMENTS NORMAL AGAIN

Business as usual, is the report at the Garnishee Bureau of the NYC Comptroller's Office, where judgments against municipal employees are entered and 10 per cent deductions from their salaries are paid to the creditors.

Katherine Heide, Supervisor of the office, says that during the war years there was a very small drop in the number of garnishments filed. She believed that other members of the employees' families were able to get jobs.

The cost-of-living bonuses haven't improved the financial lot of the NYC employees, if garnishments are a clue, as the average is almost back at the pre-war level.

A shootin' eye is required of a NYC Policewoman. Commissioner Wallander has requested that an exam be held (Story, p. 1)

843 Auto Men Get NYC Raise

An additional increase of $76,000 to NYC 843 Auto-enginemen has been approved by Budget Director Thomas J. Patterson. The increases will provide equitable relief to the chauffeurs who were skipped over partly or in full in the increases given out as of July 1 last.

Those who received $60 at that time will receive $60 more and those who got no raise then will receive $120. Thus the total increase for each of the two groups will be $120 a year. This rectifies both the "short raise," and the "no raise" applicable to those who were at $2,280 or more.

These increases, which have the endorsement of Mayor O'Dwyer, will come before the Board of Estimate on Thursday with a recommendation for approval from Mr. Patterson, and are slated for unanimous adoption.

NYC Bowlers Start Friday

The Municipal Bowling League, reorganized to include men, as it did before the war, will get its tournament under way on Friday. At 5:30 p. m. the 26 women's teams and at 8 p. m. 36 of the 52 men's teams start rolling. On the next evening the 16 other teams get their workout.

The competition takes place at the Capitol Bowling Alleys, 1680 Broadway, NYC, and lasts several months.

VAN NAME PRAISED FOR WORK ON PENSION TAX EXEMPTION

Attorney Morris L. Strauss of 261 Broadway, ex-NYC Assistant Corporation Counsel, and himself a pensioner, praised Ralph L. Van Name for leadership in the fight to exempt public employee pensions from U. S. income taxation.

Praises Van Name
"Ralph L. Van Name, Secretary of the NYC Employees' Retirement System," said Mr. Strauss, "has rendered valiant service in behalf of reduction of income taxes on pensions."

"If all pensioner and public employee organizations of city, State and nation would rally around Mr. Van Name's efforts, a great deal could be accomplished to reduce income taxes on pensions."

"If Congress would take as good care of public employees as it does of private employees an equitable result would be achieved."

How Pension Tax Works
The Income Tax law does not state that pensions are to be taxed, but does not specifically exclude them, therefore the Treasury Department has ruled that 3 per cent of the amount contributed by him to the fund must be reported annually as income until the annuity received exceeds the contributions. The rule is stated by the U. S. Civil Service Commission as follows:
"An annuity under the Retirement Act is not reported as income until the annuity actually received exceeds the sum contributed by the individual to the retirement fund. Until this point is reached, 3 per cent of the sum contributed by him to the fund must be reported as income. When the amount of annuity received and excluded from gross income equals the sum contributed by the employee, the subsequent annuity is subject to being reported in its entirety for income tax."
