FIELD DAY TO BE AT LYONS LAKE TOMORROW

JOHN FINK IS ELECTED
JUNIOR HIGH PRESIDENT

The long planned Field Day will take place tomorrow instead of the annual excursion for Milne students. The persons who are planning on attending are to meet outside Milne by the Washington Avenue entrance at 8:30 o'clock.

There will be no swimming but other athletic events to take place are baseball, various kinds of races, and other events of interest. Only those who sign up beforehand may enter these. A feature will be the faculty baseball game.

All the students are to bring lunches but ice cream will be distributed free. Each pupil will be given three tickets at Lyons Lake which may be redeemed for ice cream.

There will be ten buses to transport the students. If it rains, Field Day will be held just the same as the buses are closed and there are shelters at the Lake.

No ticket is necessary to go. Several members of the faculty will be in charge of the event. It is expected that everybody will return home at 5:00.

The final results of the election for president of the Junior High School resulted in a victory for John Fink. The voting took place Wednesday.

After the balloting, there was a discussion for a re-vote. In a special Student Council meeting yesterday noon, the final decision was that Fink was elected. The Constitution states that it does not require a majority vote to decide.

John Fink had seventy-seven votes, which were three over his nearest competitor, Robert Wheeler.

STUDENTS PICK MOVIE FAVORITES

Myrna Loy and Dick Powell were voted the most popular actor and actress of the Junior High school in a contest conducted recently by the movie club.

Several pages of the club scrapbook will be devoted to these people.

CO-OPERATION MOST IMPORTANT

Although quite a few Milne students may not agree with the recent election results for Student Council president, it is now up to everyone to co-operate with the president-elect.

Everyone cannot be satisfied all the time and those who were on the losing side must be sports enough to work with Student Council and not against it.

More people voted for John Fink than for either of the other two candidates, and as the Constitution does not say that the candidate shall need a majority vote, he was duly elected.

We should all back our new president in his work next year for the good of the school.

THE RAMBLING REPORTER REPORTS--

"Do you think it was fair to the pupils of Milne when the faculty changed the school hours for next year without consulting the pupils?" was the question asked this week. The answers, almost evenly divided, were as follows:

Jane Wedder, 227, no; Dorothy Mosher, 127, no; David Wilson, 227, yes; Marilyn Smith, 227, no; Robert Mapes, 336, yes; Margaret Lasher, 121, no; Shirley Baldwin, 121, no; Jean Tarshes, 227, no; Edmund Haskin, 320, yes; Arthur Thompson, 336, yes; Wilson Hume, 224, no.

The majority of the people who said "yes" stated that the faculty did what they thought best and that the students do not know enough about the subject to decide on a question like that.

Those on the opposite side believe that according to the theory of democracy they should have been allowed to decide the hours.

NEW DOOR SIGNS MADE IN SHOP

A new set of door signs have been made in the shop for a number of the rooms in Milne. Included in the list are signs for the science office, commerce department, main office, mathematics department, shop, Dr. Frederick's office, general science department, history office, home economics room, and Latin rooms.

THE LAST ISSUE

This is the last issue of the "Crimson and White" for the present school year. In the past two semesters, the staff has edited approximately twenty issues.

The "Crimson and White" staff wishes to thank the students and sponsors for their cooperation, and look forward to a bigger and better paper next year.

LOST AND FOUND

A number of articles which have not been claimed are still in the lost and found department in Miss Nicos' office, room 120. Among them are five fountain pens, five eversharp pencils, two key cases, one compact, and a buckle off a shoe.

If any person has lost anything of this nature, the lost article may be in Miss Nicos' office.

 CHARACTER SKETCH **

The person chosen for the character sketch for this week is a seventh grader in homeroom 135. He or she is a little overweight for his or her age and makes stamp collecting a favorite hobby. The individual is sometimes known as the "Walking Dictionary" because he or she uses many large words and can give a definition for any one of them.

Anyone guessing the correct name of this person is to put his answer on a slip of paper with his own name and homeroom number in the "Crimson and White" drawer.

The character for last week was Dexter Simpson. Elaine Becker, of homeroom 135, guessed the correct person.
