

CRIMSON AND WHITE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1938

ALBANY, N. Y.

THE MILNE SCHOOL

VOLUME IX

SENIOR NEWS

NUMBER 3

Senior Class Decides Upon Yearly Dues

At the regular Senior Class meeting last Monday afternoon, the budget committee gave a report on prospective budgets. After discussing the matter at length, members of the class decided to accept the plan which called for dues of $6.00 a year from each person. This budget allows $125.00 for the Senior Ball; $175.00 for the Crimson and White Magazine; $50.00 for a gift for the school, and leaves $30.00 for a miscellaneous fund. A separate fee will be collected later to finance a Senior outing.

Jack Mac Gowan presented sample photographs from another Albany photographer, whose fees were substantially lower than those of Gustave Lorey. In addition, he would take all school group pictures without charge. In view of this better offer, the class decided to send a committee to Gustave Lorey, which would attempt to get him to lower his regular rate.

'35 VALDICTORIAN EDITS VASSAR PAPER

Barbara Allen, valedictorian of the class of 1935, is the editor-in-chief of the Vassar College Miscellany News. Miss Allen is very prominent about the campus and her position as editor entitles her to a telephone in her room. She is majoring in History and Economics.

Miss Allen was a member of Sigma and the
(cont. in column 2)

MISS WHEELING CONDUCTS ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE

On Thursday, October 20, at 2:00 o'clock in the Little Theatre, Miss Katherine Wheeling conducted a round table conference on Journalism. This was in connection with the meetings of The Eastern States Teacher's Association which were held in Albany on Thursday and Friday.

The majority of the sixty persons who attended the special conference, were inexperienced advisors of new school papers. For their benefit, Miss Wheeling and other Capital District journalists conducted a discussion. Mr. A. J. Schabel, a printer from Philip Schuyler High School and L. B. Clark, a worker on the mimeographed paper at Roessleville High School, described their work. Mr. Keith Blake, of Gloversville, which has the newest paper of the Capital District also gave some helpful advice.

Miss Grace Kay, of Philip Livingston Junior High School, who is the president of the Capital District Press Association showed some of the advantages derived from such an organization.

Following the discussion delegates asked questions and later viewed displays of school newspapers.

Cont. from Column 1

French Club. In her senior year she was mistress of ceremonies of Sigma, president of French Club and a winner of the Prize Speaking.

HAMPTON CHOIR SINGS AT SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

During the regular Society period on Tuesday afternoon the entire student body attended a special assembly in the Page Hall auditorium. The program consisted of Negro spirituals which were sung by a quartet of singers from the Hampton Institute in Hampton, Va.

A Mr. Booth, who is the Field Secretary of the Institute, gave a short history of the Hampton Choir and also briefly described the background of Negro spirituals. Later, Edmund Jackson, a recent graduate of Hampton, explained some of the problems which Negroes have to overcome in order to get a college education and how Hampton Institute aids its students in overcoming them. In addition, he told something about life at Hampton and the courses of study which are offered.

The quartet, which was composed of Gregory Kiah; 1st. Tenor; George Hamilton, 2nd. Tenor; Jay Thomas, 1st. Base and William Byrd, 2nd. Base, received a tremendous applause after each spiritual and, after an encore, they presented "Walk in Jerusalem". Previously, they had especially pleased their audience with "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" and "Water Boy".

These singers, who have sung in all parts of the United States and Europe, had come to Albany to sing at other academis. Because of special effort on the part of Benjamin Douglas, they consented to sing at Milne.

CRIMSON AND WHITE
BUYS TYPEWRITER

The Crimson And White Newspaper has recently purchased a new typewriter, costing fifty dollars which is to be used for cutting stencils by the newspaper only.

In a recent issue there were two kinds of type. Part of the stencils had been cut before the new typewriter arrived, but Dr. Kinsella being anxious to use the new machine cut the rest of the stencils with the new typewriter. Therefore in the future, the type will be clearer and more readable.

DEARSTYNE ELECTED
STUDENT PRESIDENT

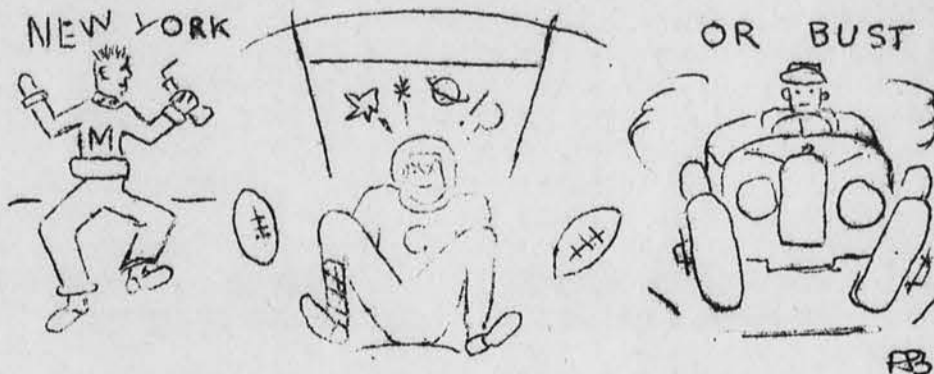

Frederick J. Dearstyn, a junior in the College of Business Administration at Northeastern University at Boston, Massachusetts, has been elected president of the Student Union Cabinet. Mr. Dearstyn has been a member of the Student Union for three years. He has also belonged to Nu Epsilon Zeta fraternity during the three years and was co-chairman of the Freshman Camp for one year. He was graduated from Milne in 1934.

GLEE CLUB GROWS

This year there are over fifty members in the Glee Club, which, under the direction of Dr. Candlyn, sings at many of the Milne activities.

At their first meeting Dr. Candlyn tested the new voices to determine whether they were soprano, contralto, tenor, or bass. There are more members than usual, especially more boys!

The first public appearance of the Glee Club will be at the Christmas Plays in December.

DRAMATICS CLUB DIVIDED;
ADVANCED SECTION
PLANS PLAY

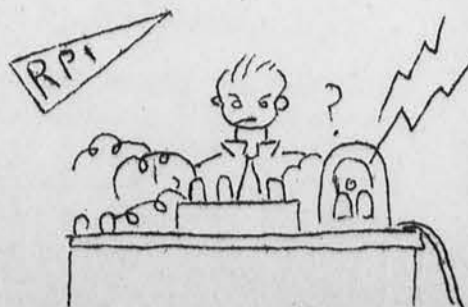

"There will be two divisions of the Dramatics Club this year," Miss Mary E. Conklin, faculty sponsor of this organization, announced. "The advanced section includes juniors and seniors; sophomores make up the other group."

The members voted to open the Christmas Play try-outs, scheduled for November 9, to the entire school.

Instead of practicing technicalities or acting, the advanced section voted to produce an assembly play this semester. The committee to select the play includes: Armon Livermore, chairman; Shirley Baldwin, Doris Holmes, Robert Wheeler, and Arthur Bates.

HANER HEADS CLUB

Robert Haner, a Milne alumnus of 1935, was recently elected president of the Radio-Club at Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute where he is a student in the electrical engineering course. Mr. Haner was on the staff of the "Crimson and White" throughout his four years in high school.

HI-Y PLANS OUTING
TO NEW YORK CITY

On Saturday, October 29, some of the members of the Milne Hi-Y will attend the Columbia-Cornell game in New York City.

The group will leave on the day preceding the game, and will arrive in New York at five o'clock. After eating, they will visit the N. B. C. studio and other points of interest.

The boys will tour Columbia's campus on Saturday morning, lunch with the faculty in the afternoon, and stay at the college Saturday night.

On Sunday, a tour of Fordham, and New York University is planned.

ORCHESTRA PRACTICES

The Orchestra Club conducted its weekly meeting Friday afternoon, October 14, in the auditorium to practice and to discuss buying new music for which it will need seven dollars. It is hoped that the money can be obtained from the senior class.

The members of the orchestra are: Sammy Coppolino, leader--alto saxophone; Joseph Ledden, piano; Charles MacCulloch, tenor saxophone; Benjamin Douglas, accordion; Robert Jones, trumpet; William McGregor, trombone; and Edward Langwis, drums.

Editorial Staff:

Editor in Chief: Betty Barden
 Sr. Associate Editor: Chas. Sanderson
 Associate Editor: Fred Rogan
 Art Editors: Marcia Willey
 Chas. Molculloch
 Features: Doris Walsh
 Betty Tincher
 Sports: Ed. Stockweather
 Ruth Rasp
 Curricular News: Bob Wertendyke
 Societies and clubs: Jane Grace
 Alumni News: Jane Phillips
 Anita Hyman
 Exchanges: Jean Best
 City Paper Corros. Carol Boyce
 Doris Holmes

Reporters:

William Saunders Earl Goodrich
 Ed. Landwig Doroty Shattuck
 Bob Bardon Ira Moore
 Estelle Dilg Arthur Bates
 Martha Freytag Sally Devereux
 Dorothy Day Nancy Glass

Journalism Class

Business Staff:

Business Manager: Herbert Marx
 Printer: Newell Cross
 Mimeographers: Armen Livermore
 Al Metz
 Typists: Helen Ehaman, Harriet
 Gordon, Shirley Burgess, Esther
 Stulmacker.
 Circulation: John Wykes
 Faculty Advisers:
 Miss Katherine Wheeling
 Miss Grace Martin
 Dr. Thomas Kinsella

Published weekly by the Crimson and White staff at The Milne School, Albany, New York.

ON THE SENIORS

"I am part of all I have met." Have you ever realized how merely knowing various people influences our lives? Most of the junior high school look up to the upperclassmen who set the example for them to follow.

Our last year's seniors made such a big success of the Glee Club that this year fifty students joined the group. That class was also more pleasant and sociable than usual and left a feeling of friendship in Milne.

Some of our own seniors have set good examples which will inspire others in future years. Don Douglas has helped to make our Christmas plays a success, and as president of our school, furthers the cooperation of his class mates. Ruth Rasp is a leader in athletics and sets a good example for the lower grades to follow. Betty Barden is doing a fine job of managing the newspaper. Joe Laddon and Esther Stulmacker are always willing to lend their talents during our assemblies.

Other leaders of our class also influence the lives of others. Whether a seventh grader or a senior, each should do his best to make Milne a better school.

Alumni Notes

Greetings Fellow Milnites,

To begin with, I would like to extend my thanks and appreciation to Milne's faculty for all that they have done for me. If I do succeed in life, it will be because of the background obtained at Milne.

For the benefit of you who do not know I am at the present, a very bewildered and meek little freshman over at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy. To you Seniors I was once a great, big Senior, too, but the knowledge that I have picked up on my own insignificance is tremendous.

In high school someone was always behind me to make me work; in college this is not the situation. If a student does his work, everything is all right. They don't force you to work, but failure to make the grade is just too bad for you. All accomplishments depend upon the individual.

I would like to give you a few suggestions to follow. Don't hide behind the person in front of you whenever the "prof" looks your way. Do not fight too hard for the rear seats during recitation. You might hurt somebody. Finally, don't study too hard.

Seriously, however, college is a grand place. The work is difficult, but you'll like it anyway.

Any fellow who might wish information concerning the Institute will find me more than willing to please them.

Keep up the old Milne spirit,
Richard I. Game

President of the class '38

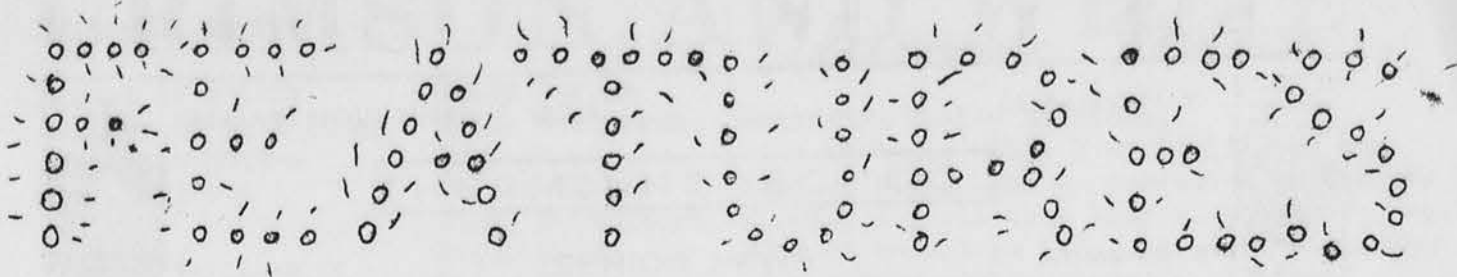

P.S. How about an alumni game in basketball this year? We have never had one before and this would be a good year to start.

MOVIE REVIEW

Magnificent Authentic
Remarkable
Intriguing
Exciting

Arousing
Novel
Terrific
Ostentatious
Inspiring
Noble
Entertaining
Tremendous Thrilling
Educational

REMEMBER WHEN.....

Everyone who had a Victrola was playing those cardboard "Hit of the Week" records? When one got tired of a record, he had lots of fun scaling it in a vacant lot....The countryside was thickly populated with "Tom Thumb" Golf Courses? They're still popular at Asbury Park.... Make-Your-Own Indian Bead Rings were all the rage?...The Miracle Food Market on West Lawrence Street was the old Fine Hills Theater where we used to spend every Saturday afternoon?...Milne used to begin at 8 and get out at 2? (Those were the happy days!)....Yo Yo's first came out?...The old Clinton Square Theater Occupied the site of the White Tower Stand? . . .The Grand's Vaudeville was the swellest show in town?...A supervisor opened the door just as you throw a spitball?... Mr. Peanut first started his long hike up and down N. Pearl Street?...You used to ride the Whip and all the other rides at Mid-City Park..Milne Seventh Graders used to be terrorized by such rumors as "The Balcony Seat" etc.?...!The Shadow", "Fu Manchu", and "Chandu" were your favorite radio thrillers?... "Whostonville" was one of your favorite programs?...The Guidance Office and Appointment Bureau used to be a Social Science Room?

GONE WITH THE WIND -

HALLOWEEN

The Wind is shrill, the skies are sober,
A Saturday night in late October,
A small corner light is the only gleam
In the city streets on Hallowe'en.

Deep in the shadows of faraway mountains,
Pixies are dancing to tinkling of fountains
Off in the graveyard, way out by the orchard
Skeletons are betting on the fatal black card.

The town lies dark, steps littered with trash,
When finally is heard a terrible crash
Boys are at pranks so original and keen
There's no doubt about it, tonight's
Hallowe'en

ARE YOU COLOR BLIND?

If buttercups are yellow, what color are hiccouphs?
Ans. Purple.

If hiccouphs are burple, what color is a bride and groom?
Ans. Wed.

If a bride and groom is wed, what color is a baby ghost?
Ans. Boo.

If a baby ghost is boo, what color is shampoo?
Ans. Drone.

If you are not onlightened by this bit of information, you are either color blind, or you don't understand baby talk.
Remedy: See your doctor!

?
Guess WHO
IN
MILNE

REMEMBER HOW

Strange you felt your first day in Milne?...Scared you were when sent out of class?...Fascinated you were the first time you saw the Indians in the museum of the Education Building?...Happy you were last spring when school let out?... Excited you were at your first Milne Dance?...Slaphappy you were on the K.P. excursion?...You admired Rin Tin Tin in the movies?...It burned you up when you had to break a nickle to fill your pen in the library?...Hard it was to buy a copy of LIFE when it first came out?

