NEW YORK STATE COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS
ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918

VOL. III No. 6

ALBANY, N. Y., NOVEMBER 21, 1918

$1.50 PER YEAR

FIRST MEETING OF NEWMAN CLUB

"Marshal Ferdinand Foch is every inch a man, every inch a soldier, every inch a patriot, every inch a commander, and was worthy of the greatest responsibility ever held by mortal man."

This tribute to the generalissimo of the Allied armies, and now the idol of the civilized world, was given last Friday afternoon in an address by the Rev. Joseph A. Duncney, superintendent of the parochial schools of the Albany diocese, at the first meeting of the Newman Club of the State College for Teachers. The meeting, conducted in the college auditorium, was the first of the regular fortnightly meetings.

COLLEGE CALENDAR RADICALLY CHANGED

In order to make up for the time lost during the epidemic many striking changes in the college calendar have been made. The vacation at Thanksgiving time will cover only Thanksgiving Day. Christmas vacation will be shortened by three days.

Midyear's exams will be entirely omitted, daily marks and test marks making the averages for the semester.

Fuller notice will be found on page two.

ATTENTION!

277 students have paid their blanket tax; but there are 84 Seniors, 65 Juniors, 66 Sophomores and 110 Freshmen who have not yet come across!

If you take pride in your college, if you want it to be one of the best, if you enjoy college life and college activities, you will pay your tax. If you're not enjoying college life, pay your tax and you'll get into the spirit.

You have the privilege of paying your five dollars Monday, November 25, from 9 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.

CAFETERIA OPENS

The Home Economics Department has opened a cafeteria in Room "T," in the basement of the Science Building, for the purpose of serving lunch to the faculty and students of the college. Soups, sandwiches, milk, or other beverages, salads, and hot dishes of various kinds will be obtainable.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY

Y. M. C. A. Leader Speaks

Student Assembly Friday was given over to the great Allied drive. Dr. Brubacher first introduced Professor Decker, who is chairman of the War Committee of State College. The latter then explained the purpose of the drive in brief and incidentally related the excellent part which State College took in the war drive of last winter. State College was fourth on the list, headed by Columbia, Cornell and Vassar. Professor Decker then introduced Mr. Jos. Alling of Overseas Y. M. C. A. force, who demonstrated his ability to tell us of the work which the united organizations are doing. Mr. Alling was present at the Front at the beginning of the great drive on Chateau-Thierry last July.

S. A. T. C. NOTES

Training of Men to be Continued Until Further Notice

After the parade on Monday many of the men began to talk of demobilization and release—but so far no orders have been received other than that the training is to be continued for the present and regular college work resumed.

In Company A bayonet work was started last week with Lieutenant Knighton as instructor. Many of the men enjoyed weekend passes at home.

Companies B and C have been issued uniforms, rifles and bayonets.

SONG CONTEST IN G. A. A.

The old songs are quite worn out. We, and alumnae before us, have sung "Ain't She Neat, Ha, Ha!", etc., upon so many varying occasions that whatever charm they may have had seems to belong to the past.

So we are proposing a contest. Write your song, full of sentiment, or pep, or both, and hand it to Agnes Nolan, '20, by November 29th.

Every song, whether a prize song or not, will be kept and sung. So do your part and try one of the prizes—first, a war savings stamp; second, two dollars in thrift stamps; third, one dollar in thrift stamps.

The judges are: Miss Pierce, Miss Bennett, chairman; Miss Card, Professor Belding and Professor Birchenough.

MARGARET SHEVLIN

It is with deep regret that State College learned of the death of Margaret Shevlin, member of the Class of 1918. Miss Shevlin was a victim of influenza and died at East Syracuse, where she was teaching history.

Miss Shevlin attended and was graduated from the Saratoga Springs High School. She entered State College in the fall of 1914, and during her four years here was prominent in college activities. The esteem with which her fellow students regarded her capability as a leader was shown by the many offices to which she was elected. She was president of Newman club, president of Promic.

OMICRON NU PAYS

TRIBUTE

Omicron Nu feels very deeply the loss of one of its alumnae members, Marion Payne, '17, who died of influenza on October 10th. Miss Payne's death occurred at Herkimer, where she had been teaching in a vocational school since her graduation from college.

Her splendid character, her capability and her pleasing personality won for her a place of prominence in many of our college activities. In addition to being a member of Omicron Nu she was a charter member of Myskania and was very active in Y. W. C. A., being an officer and a member of the cabinet during her Senior year.

With her going, Omicron Nu loses the first member in the history of the society.

NOTICE TO SCHOLARSHIP HOLDERS

Scholarship holders are requested to consult the bulletin board for official notice concerning scholarships which will be paid Friday afternoon, Nov. 22, between 2 and 4 o'clock.

S. A. T. C. WELCOMES NEW LEADER

Captain H. D. Rush, who is succeeding Captain E. L. Reed as commander of the post (State College Military Detachment), arrived in Albany last Saturday morning. Captain Rush had charge of the Syracuse detachment for a time, but was transferred from there to New York for special work. In behalf of the men of the detachment the "News" welcomes Captain Rush to State College.

FRESHMEN MADE NOMINATIONS FOR OFFICERS

Lively Contest Expected December 2nd

A meeting of the Freshman Class was called Monday noon by Sergeant Fitzgerald and Private Tower, representing Myskania, for the purpose of nominating class officers.

President Bruce of the Sophomore Class read the Freshman rules and Mary Whish, '21, read the list of penalties for failure to abide by the rules. A penalty day is soon to be chosen.

ARMISTICE IDEAL

News comes from all sources—abroad, home training camps, citizen activities—everywhere the same, that the signing of the armistice has brought forth a decided cessation of war work. It seems the tendency is to lay off—to ease up. The soldiers are reported to be thinking now of the home coming instead of the overseas trip. Citizens are reported to be failing to buy war savings stamps and to have stopped payments into the War Chest, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. funds.

To be true, this reaction is only human—and "we're only poor, weak mortals after all"—but we have learned through the past hard months to work and have forgotten how to rest on our oars. The spirit, attitude and actions of the American public have merited world-wide praise and admiration. Efficient service has become the American ideal—and Americans have lived up to their ideal.

The fact that hostilities have ceased and that peace is in sight is no reason for relinquishing our ideal. Beyond any question the days ahead are to be the most trying ones since August, 1914. With reconstruction ahead the only possible slogan is "Efficient Service." It is expected that America, who has suffered least, will sacrifice most in the stupendous task. It is left for America to fight on now—it is left for her to atone for the two and a half years of her inactivity at the opening of the war. Her experience after the Civil War peculiarly fits her for the present needs. But the work is to be infinitely greater.

This country's position among world powers is due to the perfect co-operation of its millions of individuals. Otherwise, such Utopian transformations could never have come. Every person has saved and served to the limit and then has saved and served more. And each individual is going to pick up the battle and fight as he never has fought before. Once more each one will take up the slogan, "Efficient Service," and carry on until victory is really complete and peace rules over Europe and its forgotten battlefields—Europe a land of rebuilt homes.

Let us then take a new hold, looking constantly toward the ideal of "Efficient Service."

COME OUT FOR THE NEWS

In the issue of October 3rd, the "News" Board Constitution was printed, together with regulations governing the appointment of new members to the editorial board. At the same time an appeal was made for new recruits to be added to this year's staff.

As yet the response has been slow, due, doubtless, to the long vacation period. Still, new members are needed. The terms remain the same, and the present board is anxious to assign "try-outs." Freshmen and Sophomores, get busy! The position of editor-in-chief awaits you in your Senior year. But you have to climb up. New honors and new possibilities of service to your Alma Mater await you. Come out AT ONCE!

Hand your name to any member of the board of editors and receive your assignment from Miss Bronner. Then work hard and add your name to those printed at the top of column one, page two.

Come out for the "News!"

NOTICE

It will facilitate the compiling of the College Calendar if persons or organizations desiring to meet at college will register at Dean Pierce's office two weeks ahead of time. This will allow the Calendar to be published in the "News" inclusive of all functions scheduled in the week to follow. Co-operation of students is requested in this matter.

SENIOR CLASS NOTES

At a meeting of the Senior Class last Thursday it was decided that the class dues for the year should be two dollars. The dues committee, which consists of Mildred Oatey, Margaret Becker, Viola Brownell, Veronica Farrell, Helen Fay, Ethel McKenna, Harriot Poole, Jeanette Reller and Marion Tubbs, is prepared for the Senior Class Dues Drive. Avoid the Christmas rush by paying dues immediately!

Jeanette Reller and Harriot Poole were chosen to lead in the song contest Friday.

Attention is called to the fact that caps and gowns should be ordered at once.

LOBDELL '20 RESIGNS FROM NEWS BOARD

Van Allen Lobdell, '20, has tendered his resignation as assistant business manager of the State College "News," the resignation to take effect immediately. The "News" greatly regrets its loss, and reluctantly accepts the resignation. Mr. Lobdell's duties as first sergeant made it impossible for him to continue longer his connection with the college weekly.

Ellen Donahue, '20, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Her previous training will make her a valuable asset to the paper. Miss Donahue is president of the Girls' Athletic Association and acts as instructor of several women's gym classes.

MYSKANIA APPOINTS MISS HOLDER TO COMPLETE HONOR ROLL

Clara Holder, '19, has been appointed by Myskania to have complete charge of the Honor Roll of State College. It is necessary that the list of men of the College who are in the service should be completed at once. The student body is urged to hand any information available to Miss Holder.

PATRIOTISM IN MILNE HIGH

The students of the Milne High School are working out a novel scheme in connection with the English classes. The students who are buying Liberty Bonds on the installment plan are presenting plans in oral compositions concerning the purchase of the bonds. During the year war benevolences will be discussed, and at the end of the year a vote will be taken to determine to what organization the money shall be given. This work is in charge of the practise teachers of English.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO EARN MONEY

An opportunity is given to persons who desire to earn some pin-money to co-operate with the Woman's Exchange, which is open in the food conservation room of the County Court House.

Any person who can cook successfully is in line to assist in this work. If any student of the college desires to take this opportunity, she will call Miss Bloodgood at the County Court House, Main 5900. Recipes will be furnished by Miss Bloodgood for this work, if desired.

The Woman's Exchange, which has just opened in the Albany War Kitchen, Room 79, County Court House, is in need of baked foods to meet the demand of the buyers.

Any baked foods are desirable, namely: Cookies, cakes, quick breads, yeast breads, biscuits and muffins.

All baked foods are to be sugarless and should be accompanied, when sent in, by the recipe, so that copies of these can be made and given out with each article we sell.

All cookies sell at 25c per dozen. Pies at 30c and 35c each, depending on size. Cakes 60c, 70c, 75c, according to size and kind.

Yeast breads are preferable to quick breads, although there is call for both.

The persons making the different articles receive the profit, with the exception of a very small rate of commission to pay the running expenses of the Exchange. The rate is 1c per dozen cookies, 1c for pie, 2c for cake, etc.

Report of the Committee on Schedules and Examinations with suggestions for making up time lost due to the epidemic. Adopted by the Faculty on Monday, November 11, 1918.

The calendar, as originally scheduled, called for 88 recitation days, 12 examination days in the first term; 95 recitation days, 12 examination days in the second term.

Lost from the first term, 28 recitation days—(Oct. 9-Nov. 9).

Make up part of this time as follows:

Cut Thanksgiving recess two days (allowing just Thursday).

Cut Christmas recess three days.

(Recess as originally planned begins Friday, Dec. 20, 5:50 p. m., work resumed Tuesday, Jan. 7, 8:10 a. m.)

Have the recess begin as scheduled and have work resumed Friday, Jan. 3, 8:10 a. m. This gives 11 days, exclusive of Sundays, the same as last year.)

Omit the final examinations for this term and substitute therefor the average of grades obtained by tests held

HOME ECONOMICS NOTES

The Home Economics Practice House will be opened for occupancy next week.

Linda M. Smith, '18, has accepted a position as instructor of Home Economics in Potsdam Normal, Potsdam, N. Y. Miss Smith makes the second graduate of the Class of '18 to receive a position in Normal instruction.

The dressmaking shop is open for business from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. every day except Tuesday and Saturday. Any member of the College faculty, or student body may have garments made, remodeled or repaired by seeing Miss Tempany, who is in charge of the shop at 156 Central avenue.

Y. W. C. A.

With the ceasing of hostilities in Europe the work of the Y. W. C. A. increases. In order to carry on this work successfully your assistance is being solicited in the United War Work Campaign. Miss Florence Stubbs, '20, has been appointed as the Y. W. C. A. Chairman of the War Work Committee at State College. Detailed accounts of the campaign are given in pamphlets now being distributed by the Y. W. C. A.

The first meeting of the Y. W. C. A. since the reopening of College, was held Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13, in the auditorium. Miss Dorothy White, '20, had charge of the meeting. Professor Kirtland, who spoke on the "Riches of To-day," gave a very interesting and inspiring talk. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Florence Stubbs.

Miss Helen Fay, '19, during her vacation, was engaged in war work, caring for influenza patients at the Homeopathic Hospital.

A large number of Y. W. C. A. girls took advantage of the "At Home" day at the new Y. W. C. A. dormitory, 31 South Lake avenue, on Friday afternoon, and inspected the new home from top to bottom. Among the guests were Mrs. Finley, Mrs. Brubacher, Mrs. Walker and Miss Pierce.

Charlotte Benedict, '20, and Mary Allen, '22, have joined the girls at the house.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

during the term, the number of the tests to be at least two.

Extend the first term one week, to Feb. 8.

The number of recitation days recovered for the first term would then be 23.

Thanksgiving .....	2
Christmas .....	3
Examination period .....	12
Extension of term .....	6

Total .....

Lost from the second term six recitation days due to extension of the first term.

It is thought advisable not to attempt to recover these as the only ways of doing it are:

Omission of the spring recess.
Omission of the final examinations.
Extension of the college year one week to June 23.

Or a combination of the three.
We feel that the spring vacation of one week is a necessity for both the faculty and students, especially this year, as the actual teaching work will have no intermission of any kind from Jan. 3 to April 16. To omit the recess would mean the teaching would continue from Jan. 3 to May 30, which is too long a period.

The final examinations in June should not be omitted, especially since the examinations are omitted in January.

The college year should not be extended to June 23, as this would give only two weeks' rest before the beginning of the summer session. Moreover, many of the students will be needed again this year as they were last year for farm work.

SUMMARY.

The number of recitation days lost on the year's work due to the epidemic is 28. The number recovered by reorganization of the college calendar is 17, leaving a loss of 11 days, 5 in the first term and 6 in the second.

(Signed)

H. BIRCHENOUGH,
G. M. YORK,
H. M. DOUGLASS.

The plan is to have the cafeteria self-supporting. The charge made for food will be such as to cover only the cost of the food and running expenses, thus assuring a moderate price.

The lunch room hour is between 11:15 and 12:45. It is desired that all those who can eat before or after the official college lunch hour, which is 11:45 to 12:15, do so, to relieve the congestion during this period.

As well as catering to the faculty and student body at noon, the cafeteria proposes to take regular boarders for breakfast and dinner. Anyone may engage board by the week for three meals a day, two meals a day or one meal a day by arrangement with the cafeteria manager, Miss Tuttle. In this case, also, the price will be moderate, to cover only the cost of food and running expenses.

The cafeteria promises to be a big advantage to State College, and many will be greatly benefited by its installment.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY

Mr. Alling said in part:

"There are so many things I should like to tell you that I feel like an Egyptian mummy—pressed for time. I was in Washington when news of the signing of the armistice came, and as I stood upon the steps of a building a soldier came up and said, 'Say, if they don't send us home soon I'll put up a howl that they'll hear twenty miles off.'"

"And that is just the spirit of the boys over there. That great group of men will put up a howl that will be heard for 3,000 miles! And yet it will be over two years before they can come home.

"I want you to visualize that army; it is the sight of a lifetime. There are the great American made railroads, docks, freight cars, machine shops, etc., all the way from the coast to that Front where our army would have put the war where it belonged—on German soil. All this made a great impression in France. 'A nation that can do this cannot be beaten,' they said. 'Thank God they are our allies.'"

Mr. Alling then went on to give a very vivid description of the front. The bustle and roar, the strained effort and concentration on fighting itself. He told of the strict precautions taken on board ships going back and forth and declared we could not give too much praise to the American Navy, but for whom our troops never could have gotten across.

"And let us not forget the Allied armies," he cautioned. "Remember that they fought for four and one-half years while we were not realizing that this was our war, too. Great Britain has only one-half our population—yet, consider the enormous army they put into the field. In France thousands have gone beneath the sod during these four years.

"The Germans thought we could not take men from all walks of life and train them. But we have found, and the Germans have found, that man to man our men are more than their equal. The spirit of the wounded is wonderful. Always they say, 'How quickly can we get back again?' or, 'Yes, they got me, but I got them first.'"

"Are we worthy the sacrifice these boys are making?"

Mr. Alling then remarked on the leveling of classes among the boys over there and the disappearance of religious controversy. He said that never before has an army been taken care of in its spare time, the time when the soldier earns his reckless reputation. He described thoroughly the recreation huts. He closed his remarks by appealing to the students to subscribe to the various campaigns as opportunity is presented.

ALPHA EPSILON PHI

Some of the Alpha Epsilon Phi girls enjoyed a hike to East Greenbush last Saturday afternoon.

Anna Kitz, '18, who is teaching at Tannersville, was recently in Albany.

Marion Levitt, '18, who is taking charge of the Lorey studio at Schenectady, spent the week end with Ruth Greenblath, '21, at her home in Troy.
