DISABILITY SERVICES

UAlbany is committed to universal access. ADA parking is available near each ceremony venue for vehicles with DMV-issued plates or permits. Accessible shuttles are also available.

WHEELCHAIRS/ELEVATORS

A limited number of wheelchairs are available in the SEFCU Arena to assist only with guest transportation to/from cars and seating areas (not for use through the duration of the ceremony). CAPTIONING AND ASL INTERPRETATION

American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters are available in the SEFCU Arena to your right as you face the stage, and the Entry Plaza to your left as you face the stage. Live captioning is available as well at www.albany.edu/commencement.

FIRST AID

In 1844, a group of optimistic believers – students, faculty, and supporters – answered an extraordinary call: To instill knowledge in others in order to make a better world. Today, that legacy endures. As we celebrate the University at Albany’s 175th anniversary, we remain committed to inspire the aspiring; to create a climate where diverse voices thrive; and to support great minds to turn possibilities into promise through teaching, research, and service.

THANK YOU!

Commencement is brought to you by hundreds of staff, faculty and volunteers from the University community. Special thanks to all who have made these events possible!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

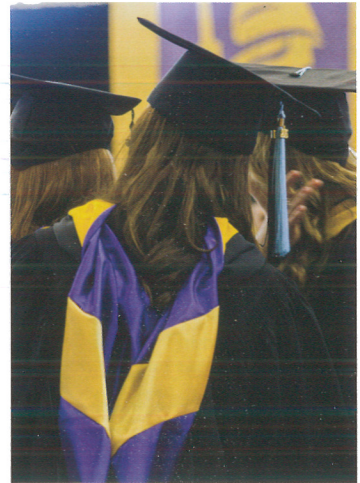

Almost all graduation ceremonies feature “Pomp and Circumstance” as part of the processional. Named after a line from Shakespeare’s Othello, the song was written in 1901 by Sir Edward Elgar. It was played when Elgar received an honorary degree from Yale University in 1905. Other schools quickly picked up on the tune, which eventually spread to nearly every college and university in the U.S.

The mace symbolizes the authority invested in the president by a school’s governing body. Carried by the Grand Marshal, it is used only at formal academic occasions. A gift from the Class of 1930, UAlbany’s mace is made of bronze and walnut, with several symbols incorporated into the design and a base that reflects the fluted columns of the campus.

Tradition dictates that chains of office are worn by University presidents on ceremonial occasions as part of their regalia. UAlbany’s presidential medallion, designed by Kurt J. Matzdorf Silversmith, Inc. of New Paltz, New York, is sterling silver and features the University seal.

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning.

Minerva, the Roman goddess of wisdom, is the enduring symbol of the University at Albany. The figure of Minerva has appeared on the University seal since about 1913, along with the Latin motto “Sapientia et sua et docendi causa,” or “Wisdom, both for its own sake and for the sake of teaching.”

For more fun facts, visit www.albany.edu/commencement/101.

The tradition of moving the tassel from one side of the cap to the other symbolizes the students’ transition from degree candidate to graduate. Prior to the ceremony, an undergraduate’s tassel is worn on the right; upon the conferral of degrees by the University president, it should be moved to the left side. Graduating students at UAlbany wear tassels of the color representing their field of study, and students earning their master’s and doctoral degrees also have these colors represented on their hood. The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts (Liberal Arts), Humanities, Letters (Literature): White
 Commerce; Accountancy, Business: Drab
 Communication Studies: Silver Gray
 Economics: Copper
 Education: Light Blue

Engineering: Orange
 Environmental Studies: Russet
 Fine Arts: Brown
 Journalism: Crimson
 Library Science, Information Management: Lemon Yellow
 Music: Pink

Philosophy: Dark Blue
 Public Administration, Public Policy: Peacock Blue
 Public Health: Salmon Pink
 Social Science, Natural Science: Golden Yellow
 Social Work: Citron

ALMA MATER

College of the Empire State
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.

Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.

Ways of pleasantness are thine,
Leading where in wisdom's shrine,
Joy and cheer, and hope divine,
Ever dwell for aye.

Thine the voice whose call we hear,
Thine the hand which holds us near,
Thine the heart, so true, so dear,
Cherished, loved away.

Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.

'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.
