HAVE WE ANY MANNERS?

It appeared that everybody was having an enjoyable time at the Junior High party last Friday until a few began to forget their manners. First, someone pulled down the balloons too soon. Then, if a person got a balloon, it was not long before it was broken. This balloon bursting caused a miniature riot that led to the tearing down of the decorations. The gymnasium soon had a disorderly appearance, and the janitors a great deal more work. If the people had some consideration for others, everyone would have had a better time and less work.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENTS

The time for electing next year's Student Council president is near. This is always a time of much excitement but there is no reason for trouble or arguments. Everyone has the right to vote for the person he wants and if his coice is different from someone's else, there is no reason for dissention.

There are certain qualifications for this office and your candidate should meet these. Prevent any unnecessary trouble. Only one man can be elected and that person will be the choice of the school.

WHO?

"Who do you think will be our next Student Council president?" is the question the Rambling Reporter has been asking this week. The answers were:

Robert Mason, 126, Atwood; Carroll Boyce, 135, Atwood; John Unser, 227, Wheeler; Albert Smyth, 124, Wheeler; Joan Hunting, 126, Atwood; Catherine Morrison 126, Atwood; Betty Miller, 126, Atwood; Emily Sanderson, 227, Wheeler; David Fuld, 135, Wheeler; Ruth Van Gausbeck, 127, Atwood; Della Carvill, 135, Atwood; Helen Norris, 126, Wheeler; Armon Livemore, 127, Wheeler; Edward Langwig, 126, Wheeler.

The persons asked stated that they believed their choices were for the person best suited for the office.

HOMEROOMS PLAN HOBBY
SHOW FOR THIS AFTERNOON

The hobby show in which homerooms 124, 126, and 135 are to take part, is to be presented this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Milne library. The exhibits will consist of shell collections, model making, stamps, and many other varied interests of the students.

The mothers are invited at 3:00 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

The committees from homeroom 126 are: publicity, Sellick Mintline, chairman; hostess, Laura Lyon; refreshments, Joan Hunting; art, Paul Knox; and exhibit, Robert Mason. Carroll Boyce, 135, and Robert Schamberger, 124, will represent their rooms.

GIRLS' SEWING CLASSES
TO PRESENT ASSEMBLY

The girls' sewing classes are preparing to give an assembly this Tuesday. It will be in the form of a play called "The Fashion Book" where the girls will display their products. There will also be entertainment by the "Quintuplets", Irene Hawkins and others.

Evelyn Wilber and Jacqueline Townsend will be the actresses in the play. The play was suggested by Andelle Chadderdon and Shirley Baldwin.

FIELD DAY AND ELECTION
POSTERS ARE ON DISPLAY

A number of the posters on Field Day and election of Student Council president which were made by the seventh grade boys in art class are now on display in the show window just outside the library door.

The posters on display were made by David Fuld, Robert Saunders, Ernest Dixon, Fred Ward, Charles Locke, and Billy Mosher.

** CHARACTER SKETCH **

The person chosen for the character sketch this week is from homeroom 124. She or he is short and has blonde hair. The individual is quite athletic and is in the athletic club. This person has just received a new bicycle.

Anyone guessing the name of this character should write the person's name and his own name, homeroom number, and the date and hour on a slip of paper and place it in the "Crimson and White" drawer.

The character for last week was Stanley Swift. Those guessing correctly were Ann Loucks, Betty Miller, Beatrice Raab Sally Lavine of 126, and Carroll Boyce of 135.
