Commissioner Mulrooney To Address Students; Hagaman to Speak

Young Women's Christian Association will conduct a panel discussion on crime at a meeting, Thursday. November 18 at 3:30 o'clock in room 206 of Draper hall, according to Jean Edgcumbe, '38, president. The topic for the entire panel will be "How Serious Is the Crime in New York State?'

Among the speakers will be Edward Mulrooney, former police commissioner of New York City, now head of the State Department of Correction; Frederick Hagaman, a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and Mr. Hebling from the Coxsackie Industrial school Coxsackie, N. Y.

Mr. Mulrooney, who will lead the Speaker Names discussion and consider the subject from the viewpoint of the causes of crime, has been commissioner of the Department of Correction of the State of New York since February 1936. He began his career as a patrolman on the police force o New York City in 1896 and advanced by promotion until he became police commissioner in 1932. He held that position until 1936 when he accepted his present position.

He is also chairman of the New York State Alcoholic Beverage Conable to present some very interesting sidelights because of his long association with organizations combating crime.
