SENIOR NEWS

FOUR SOCIETIES TO PRESENT ORIGINAL SKIT ON SOCIETY DAY, MAY 15 IN AUDITORIUM

Preparations are being made for Society Day which will be held on May 15 in the Page Hall auditorium. The name of the original play to be given is "The Search Bottom Twins at Ocean Rest or They Search No More." As complete secrecy as is possible to obtain is being observed in regard to the plot. Try-outs were held in room 224 on last Tuesday, but the results will not be publicized.

The committee in charge of this event is composed of Barbara Allen, Elizabeth Roosa, Christine Ades, and Clarence Chatterton. This year the four societies, Quin, Sigma, Adelphei, and Theta Nu, will participate in the program. This follows the precedent set up last year when what was originally "Girls' Day" was expanded to admit Adelphei, thus making "Tri-Society Day."

COUNCIL CONSIDERS JR. BOYS' SPORTS AND BROKEN FOUNTAIN

Tuesday, the Student Council considered the boys' sports petition as requested by the junior council. A recommendation to lay the matter before Coach Rutherford Baker before proceeding further with it was handed down by the council by junior representative Gordon Robinson.

The council also discussed the investigation of the broken fountain which the faculty has instituted, and pledged itself to aid in it in every way. The fountain referred to is in Draper Hall and was broken last Saturday night during the senior high party by an unknown person.

HI-Y PLANS SYRACUSE VISIT

At the last meeting of the Hi-Y Club, it was announced that the boys of the club will visit Syracuse the week of May 18. They will stay at the various fraternities, and will view a baseball game and track meet.

The date of the annual Faculty Father and Son Banquet has been decided to be May 16, on the Thursday before Moving Up Day in State College. It will be at Jack's Restaurant; William Hotaling is in charge of the banquet.

SOCIETIES CHANGE DATE OF Q.T.S.A. FROM MAY 3 TO 10 COMMITTEES ARE ANNOUNCED

By unanimous consent of the four societies, Quin, Sigma, Theta Nu, and Adelphei, the date of the annual Q.T.S.A. formal dance has been changed from May 3 to May 10. Tickets for the dance will be $1.50 per couple and the dance will be held from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock in the Page Hall gymnasium.

Committees for the dance have been chosen to work under Raymond Hotaling, general chairman. The decoration committee, under Doris Shultes, consists of Herbert Smith, Edwin Freihofer, and Barbara Bladen. Edwin Blockside, chairman, together with Vivian Snyder, Douglas McKeen, and Olive Vroman compose the ticket committee. Erma Komfort heads the publicity committee with Alice Wander, Jack Beagle, and Clarence Chatterton. Roger Orton is chairman of the committee which will obtain the orchestra and is assisted by Barbara Birchenough, Dunton Tynan, and Florence Brenenstuhl.

ATTENTION, MILNITES:

Here is your chance for recognition in our Crimson and White year book. A large amount of literary material—poems, stories, and book reports—is needed for the June issue. There is quite a great deal of literary talent in Milne, and all attempts will be more than welcome.

There should be a good literary section in the June issue this year! All contributions must be typed double space and cannot be returned. They should be in to me as soon as possible.

Hopefully yours,

Carolyn Mattice

COME OUT, MILNE TALENT, WHEREVER YOU ARE

Last Saturday night witnessed the most unusual collection of vocal and terpsichorean (dancing, to you) talent yet mustered from the ranks of amateur celebrities in Milne. Senior high students at their second party were given undeniable proof of the abundant entertainment material which Milne offers when a highly varied floor-show under the direction of a very capable master-of ceremonies was presented during the intermission. The program was very well received and there seems to be little doubt that many were surprised at the skill with which several of the artists executed their numbers (and that's not a pun, either).

However the participants represented but a small portion of the wealth of talent which we know to exist in Milne. Among our friends and chance acquaintances there are many whose talents deserve an audience far larger and more appreciative than a small group of friends.

The question is, then, why do our gifted friends remain in hiding? Surely not all can be too shy of temperament or too modest of character. Perhaps it is because each is distrustful of his power to hold an audience's attention, but if that is so it means that he does not know we want his contribution. And the logical ending of all this we see to be the fact that our own apathy and disinterest in the actual getting of people to perform is the cause of a would-be enter-tainer's "cold feet." Think of the manner in which great prima donnas have to be coaxed and you will be able to understand why our own amateurs have trouble in convincing themselves that their talents are really wanted.

ARE YOU GOING TO COLLEGE?

In these days of depression and unemployment, a college education has become necessary for those who wish to obtain a position. If you do intend to go to college it would be advisable to decide at the earliest possible date to which college or university you would like to go and get an idea of the requirements for entrance. Nearly every institution either of a purely general or of a specialized nature publishes a yearly catalog or bulletin stating definitely the required high school courses to be completed for entrance. It may mean an extra year in high school for those who do not consult the catalogs in time.

Several colleges and universities with outstanding scholastic records are Amherst, Alabama, Cornell, Colgate, Columbia, Duke, Georgia, Tech., Harvard, Haverford, Hamilton, City College of New York, University of Michigan, Union, R. P. I., M. I. T., Vassar, Holyoke, Skidmore, and Wells.

More Interviews:

Various Milnites all decked out in their possible gorjus future attire!

1st Milnite: I say there, can you tell me the way to the Ce-Op.

Policeman: Say, you can't go wandering around the streets of this here boig in any contraction like that.

2nd Milnite: Hi, ma, what have we got for dinner tonight?

Ma: You go right upstairs and change that outfit. Who do you think you are coming to dinner in such garb as that?

3rd Milnite(on Pearl Street): Say, I wonder what's the matter with me today. That's the third time somebody has dropped money in my hand.

Passerby: Maybe it's that Salvation Army uniform you've got draped around you.
