GAY WEEK AT STATE

Carnival, Concert And Tea Enjoyed

The Mothers' Week-end conducted under the auspices of Y. W. C. A., Newman Club, and Menorah, began Friday evening, May 8, with the Spanish dinner held in the cafeteria. Later in the evening, the college mothers were present at that most colorful of events, the Spanish Carnival. Fascinating flower girls offered them fragrant roses, while dreamy-eyed señoritas tempted them with trays of sweets. Gay balloon vendors also tendered their bright wares until the trumpet notes announced the entrance of the Queen. The entire Carnival program provided State's visitors with an entertainment as brilliant and colorful as the magic land of Spain itself during fiesta time. The greater part of the proceeds from the event will be used for a memorial to Miss Martinez.

The entrance of the Queen of the Carnival, Jean Dardess, clothed in yellow satin and crowned with pearls, aroused breathless admiration. Mantled attendants and beplumed pages, the latter of whom were Margaret Stinard and Mary York, accompanied her. A bull fight, a duel, a cabaret scene, and dancing followed the grand march of the Queen. Much credit for the success of the carnival is due to Professor and Mrs. Stinard and Catherine Hodge, president of Spanish Club.

On Saturday, May 9, college mothers attended the annual spring concert held in the auditorium, under the auspices of the Music Association. Here, through the cooperation of the Women's Chorus, the Mixed Chorus, and the College Orchestra, the mothers were given an opportunity to observe State's musical ability at its best. After the concert dancing was held in the gymnasium until eleven o'clock.

Monday, May 10, Mother's Day, witnessed the impressive closing of the week-end activities at a vesper service held in the college rotunda. At this time Dr. Brubacher spoke on the training of youth, as the common interest of both mothers and college.

Katherine Hammersley sang a solo and, following the service, Beulah Eckerson gave a number of piano selections during the tea at which Mrs. Brubacher poured. Before departure each mother and daughter received a café as a token of regard from Y. W. C. A.

State's mothers were unanimous in their praise of State's activities in work and play.

"ICEBOUND" MAY 30

"Icebound," Davis' drama of New England life, will be staged on May 30 at the Vincentian Institute, under the auspices of the Dramatic and Art Association. The cast has been completed and is now holding regular rehearsals. Jim Jay, the sheriff and the last character to be cast will be played by Edwin Van Kleeck

State vs. Cortland At Ridgefield Sat.

Cortland Normal School's baseball team will invade Albany Saturday, for the second game on the varsity baseball outfit's schedule. The game will be called at 3 o'clock, at Ridgefield Park, according to Harry W. Rude, '25, manager.

Cortland was defeated by State in basketball this season, but is reported to have an unusually strong baseball team. A hard fight is anticipated for the Purple and Gold.

Graham is expected to start on the mound for State, with Liebich and Johnson in reserve, and Kuczynski on the receiving end. Either Newbrow or Gainer will play at first. Captain Le Barron will hold down the second sack, with Donnelly at third and Sage or Langford at short. Outfield men include Stahlman, Cantwell, Goff, and Jensen.

Wednesday, the team had a practice game with Union, at Schenectady.

are under the care of Myskania.

Presentation of the News and Quarterly awards will be made by President Brubacher. Those who will be given the News pins are: Harry S. Godfrey, '26, editor-in-chief-elect; Edwin Van Kleeck, '27, managing editor-elect; Margaret Benjamin, '26, copy reader-elect; Helen Elliott, '26, business manager-elect; and Helen Barclay, '26, subscription manager-elect. Quarterly prizes are in gold and go for the best prose and poetry of the year. Winners' names are secret until the awards are made. The senior farewell song is the traditional song used for Moving-Up Day. Mildred E. Hammersley, '25, will be the ly speaker. Edmund H. Crane will announce the new Student Association officers.

The parade's line of march will be: College, to State Street, to Broadway, around Plaza, back to State Street, to Capitol steps. Here a group of college songs will be sung. Three national motion picture news-reel organizations will photograph the parade. Mayor Haekett, President Brubacher, John T. D. Blackburn, campaign chairman and possibly Governor Smith will lead the parade. Each class will furnish a float and there will be a band. Albany alumni were this week invited by Myskania to parade.

Tonight the tug of war between sophomore and freshmen girls will be at 8 o'clock. At 8:15 the men's pole rush will be held on the campus. Tomorrow night at the Step Sing, the winner of the sophomore-freshman rivalry will be announced.

Songs to be sung on the Capitol steps will be: the Alma Mater, "N. Y. S. C. T.," Basketball song, "Life is Very Different," and "Auld Lang Syne."

SWETTMANN BREAKS RECORD

With one college record broken and another equaled, Saturday's preliminary track meet foreshadows a successful and close meet on Moving-Up Day. Swettmann, '27, broke the college record for basketball throw by five feet, when she whirled the disc seventy-four feet, four inches. Shaffer, '26 and DuBois, '27, made four feet six in the running high jump, thus equaling the college record made by Emily Belding in 1924. Hutchins, '25, Raynor, '26, Rowland, '28, came within an inch of the record. Hoyt, '25, scored in the baseball throw with one hundred fifty feet, four inches to her credit; Swettmann, '27, placed second with one hundred forty-three feet, ten inches.

Shaffer '26 came within an inch of equaling the college record for standing broad jump, when she made seven feet, three inches. Empie, '27, and Swettmann, '27, came close on her record with seven feet one and three-quarters, and seven feet, one inch respectively. The nearest competitors in the running broad jump to DuBois, '27, were Hoyt, '25, and Benjamin, '26. DuBois made thirteen feet, seven inches. Hoyt, twelve feet, eleven inches.

ALUMNI OF STATE MEE

Dormitory Drive Program Broadcast

With the gathering tomorrow night at the Hotel Ten Eyck of several hundred alumni of State College and Albanians, there will start the State College Residence Hall Campaign for $400,000. The campaign managers feel that the event is one of the most poignant in the history of the college, and one that may mean as much to the college as any single event ever meant before.

The speakers at the meeting, which is to start at 6:30, will be Secretary of State Florence E. S. Knapp, Senator William T. Byrne, President Brubacher, and John T. D. Blackburn, chairman of the campaign.

A feature of the dinner will be the broadcasting by Station WGY of a cross-section of the dinner, from 7:35 to 8:00 daylight saving time, when President Brubacher will greet the radio audience, and Mr. Blackburn will tell of the work that State College is doing, and describe the campaign. A part of the broadcasting will be the following program by a small chorus of State College girls, directed by Professor Candlyn. The program follows:

Time is on the Wing. . . . . French Chanson
The Bell-Man. . . . . Forveth
Shadow March. . . . . Canlyn
The following are the members of the chorus: sopranos, Thyra J. Bo Vier, '26, Katherine J. Hammersley, '28, Ethel Hunter, '25 Frances I. St. Denis, '26, Ruth Lomber, '25; altos, Florence Gillett, '26 J. Charlotte Jones, '28, Mary E. Swart, '26.

Fourteen teams of workers have been formed, and will canvass as members of the civic division, which has as its objective the obtaining from the city of Albany of $150,000. Other teams are expected to fall in line. One of these teams is headed by Dean Pierce, and another by Miss Winchell. Many alumni teams have also been formed, and will also canvass the city, as well as other alumni.

About twenty other dinners will be held in New York, Utica, Schenectady, Troy, Hudson, Poughkeepsie, Buffalo, and other cities where there are groups of alumni. At many of these dinners the broadcasting will be received by radio sets and loud speakers at the dining tables.

83-AND STILL LOYAL

Dean Pierce reports that a letter was recently received by the Residence Hall Committee from an alumna eighty-three years of age, who graduated nearly sixty years ago. She states that her only income is a pension of thirty dollars a month, but from that she is giving a little and hopes to give more. A money order was enclosed. If she can do that—what can the students do?

SCIENCE HALL BEGUN

The first step in the actual construction of the foundations for the proposed $800,000 William J. Milne Science Hall addition to State College has been begun. Water connections are being made with the plot of ground near the present college buildings by an Albany firm. The E. C. Hoyt Construction Company, which was awarded the contract for the foundations, has charge.

INDIAN LADDER HIKE

To accommodate all students going to Indian Ladder May 22-23, buses will leave college Friday afternoon at 4:30 and Saturday morning at 10 and 12 o'clock. Return buses will leave the foot of the Ladder at 5:30 and 6:30, Saturday evening. Those taking advantage of the over-night camp will furnish their own suppers for Friday. The cost of the trip and other data will be posted on the G. A. A. bulletin board early in the week, at which time opportunity to sign up will be furnished.

RESPECT FOR MINERVA

Faculty and student indignation has been justly aroused by the act of vandalism perpetrated last week by persons not yet apprehended, upon the statue of Minerva. Discussion of the inane stupidity of the defacement, fortunately reparable, is vain. Efforts at finding the guilty ones are being made and should have the support of every State College student.

Minerva is a work of art. It is more. It is a symbol for the college, the Goddess of Wisdom. As such it is an honored possession.

Whoever defaced Minerva will be caught. Regardless of identity they will be punished.

Several Leaves Of Absence Granted

Dr. Brubacher will address the association of training school teachers of New York City at the Hotel Pennsylvania a week from tomorrow. He will speak on the content of teacher training programs to an audience of men and women who have charge of teacher training for the schools of the city of New York. President Brubacher has also been asked to speak at several high school commencements next month.

Dr. Harold W. Thompson of the English faculty has been granted a year's leave of absence to study English literature, it has been announced by President A. R. Brubacher.

Dr. Thompson will sail for Europe July 4 with Dr. George M. Wiley, assistant state commissioner of education. He will study at the University of Edinburgh and then will return to complete the year with studies at Harvard.

Dr. Brubacher also announced that Miss Eunice Rice, also of the English department, whose engagement has been announced, has resigned. Her resignation will be effective July 1.

It is expected that three other members of the faculty will announce their resignations later.

Miss Elizabeth H. Morris assistant professor of Psychology, will be given a leave of absence for the first term of next year. Miss Morris will spend the semester in completing residence work necessary for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at Columbia University, New York. She will return to the college staff in February.

T. Frederick H. Candlyn, college music director and organist of St. Paul's Episcopal Church has been requested by T. Tertius Noble, organist and choir-master of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church of New York, to take charge of the choir and music, and preside at the organ at St. Thomas' during July and August, when Mr. Noble will be on his vacation.

St. Thomas' has one of the finest organs in the world, and its organist, T. Tertius Noble, is regarded as one of the leaders of his field in this country. The music from St. Thomas' Church is broadcast every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from station WJZ.

During his absence from St. Paul's, the organ will be played by Willard E. Retallick, '27, organist of the Memorial Baptist Church.

GREENBERG AMONG CAST IN WGY PRODUCTIONS

Rosaline Greenberg, '26, leading woman of the WGY players, was heard as Ann Rutledge, when an experiment in radio production of historical drama was made Friday evening, by the WGY players. They presented "The Spirit of Ann Rutledge," a four-episode play written by Professor Harold W. Gammons of Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Professor Gammons is an instructor in English at Central High School, Scranton. In this play he has dramatized the life of Lincoln, the whole play tending to show the influence which the early love of the great emancipator had on his life. Each act is a play in itself, though there is continuity of thought and action.

VANDALISM AT STATE

Vandalism, alias college spirit, sense of humor, or pep, is prevalent at State. The late tampering with Minerva, and the condition of class and locker rooms bear unmistakable testimony to support this statement. It may be a display of sportsmanship to laugh when the figure, about which centers the revered traditions of the college, is defiled; but it's the sportsmanship of the "me too," the person who lacks perspective, who follows, carelessly, the actor of the moment. As for the doer, he has a pathetic lack of a sense of what is fitting, what is common decency. The most effective way to aid such persons to acquire such a sense is for us to ignore their antics when committed; to stop them if we have the opportunity. Our college spirit should be of such a caliber as not to condone any actions on the part of our fellows which would detract from the honor and dignity of our traditions.

It may be a demonstration of pep to turn things "up-side down," but it is a display of pep gone to seed not to put them "right-side up" again. It may be on account of carelessness or thoughtlessness that we repeat the match of conversation, heard in the locker room, neglect to put back the borrowed books, or recklessly elbow our way through the cafeteria; however it's a hideous example of lack of sane college spirit. The educated man is not the rowdy or the "rah-rah" boy of the comic section, but the good sport with a fine sense of eternal fitness of things.

ENROLLMENT OF SUMMER SCHOOL TO BE LIMITED

Enrollment of the ninth annual summer session will be kept down to a maximum of 750 persons, if possible. President Brubacher said today. College facilities provide for only that number of students and an effort is to be made this year to prevent the overcrowded conditions which have existed in the regular session and in the last two summer sessions.

This will be accomplished, Dr. Brubacher said, by lessening the numbers of students in courses offered teachers in elementary and grade school work. The State Education department is trying to direct all such teachers to one of the state normal schools this summer.

The session will open July 6 for registration. The following day classes will begin and will continue for six weeks with examinations August 14.

CHORUS TO SING AT COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

Students who will sing at the Commencement program next month have been picked by T. Frederick H. Candlyn, college music director. These members of the Women's Chorus will sing at the baccalaureate service, June 14, and at commencement, the following day: first sopranos, Thyra BeVier, Ethel Hunter, Justina M. Layden, Florence Greenblath, Mary E. Murray, Catherine J. Hammersley, Marjorie M. O'Connor, M. Wilson; second sopranos, Ruth C. Moore, Inelda St. Denis, Anna F. Davton, Ruth Leubner, Florence Platner, Alma Falle, Dorothy Rowland; first altos, Ruth E. Fee, Muriel L. Wenzel, Georgia DeMocker, M. Adelaide Wilkins, Muriel H. Weber; second altos, Florence Gillett, I. Charlotte Jones, Ruby Herman, Joyce Persons, and Mary Ewart.

Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity conducted its annual spring dance Friday evening at the Colony Plaza. About thirty couples were present and dancing was until 1 o'clock. Percy C. Briggs, '26, was chairman of the committee, assisted by Edwin A. Juckett, '25, and Harry S. Godfrey, '26. Dr. Caroline Crossdale and Professor Elizabeth H. Morris were patronesses.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Mae Cronin, a State College graduate, of Bennington, Vermont, to Day Waite of Havana, Cuba.

Miss Cronin is a member of the faculty of the Pelham Manor High School.

The announcement was made at a luncheon given recently by Chi Sigma Theta.

Mary Flaunigan, '26, has been confined at the Chi Sigma Theta house this past week as a result of an injury sustained while giving a toe dance at the Spanish Carnival. Miss Flaunigan dislocated her knee which has temporarily incapacitated her. She is to be commended on the calm way in which she took her injury, for without the slightest exhibition of pain or confusion she motioned the stage curtains to be drawn.

Theodore G. Cassavant has been appointed principal of the Castleton Union School for the coming year.

Mr. Cassavant is a graduate, '21, of the State College and was known as an athlete.

Monsignor Barry-Doyle addressed the Newman Club recently at Newman Hall, 741 Madison Avenue. Monsignor Barry-Doyle was obtained through the efforts of the Rev. Joseph A. Dunne, superintendent of the parochial schools and director of the club's religious work.

Gamma Kappa Phi will hold its spring house dance Saturday evening, May 16.

Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Duff, and Mrs. Benedict were guests at the Eta Phi house last week-end.

Miss Gladys Pearsall spent the week-end at the Eta Phi house as a guest of Ethel Osborn, '27.

Eta Phi welcomes Melanie Grant, '27, as a pledge member.

Miss Margaret Meyers, '22, was a guest at the Eta Phi house last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Gellrick and daughter, Eleanor, visited Louise Gellrick, '27, over the week-end.

Mrs. Robert Carpenter, formerly Edith Jensen, '24, spent Thursday night at the Alpha Delta Omicron house on her way to Dartmouth College, where she spent the week-end. Beta Zeta had its spring house dance Saturday evening, May 3. It was "open-house" for other societies. The ebaperones were Miss Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scott. The committee chairmen were: decorations, Phoebe Skidmore; music, Sally Wood; refreshments, Dorothy Rex.

Robert K. Hornung, '26, has been elected captain of the varsity basketball team for next year by the present squad. Hornung's election has been confirmed by the college athletic council. Hornung played forward on this season's outfit. John Gainer '26, is the retiring captain.

May Fete Colorful; Shaffer In Charge

Five hundred girl students took part in a May Fete on the college grounds Thursday evening. Calisthenics, group dances, and athletic exhibitions were parts of the program. Miss Isabelle Johnston, girls athletic director, and Rutland R. Baker, men's coach, had charge. A class of boys of Milne High School also took part. Afterwards the Girls Athletic Association had a strawberry festival in the rotunda. Each class had its own booth. The rotunda was decorated with class colors. The junior and senior banners were displayed. Strings of Japanese lanterns crossed and recessed the rotunda, lending a festive air. Melanie Grant and Bertha Zajan, sophomores furnished music.

The following were in charge: Lorena Shaffer, newly elected president of the G. A. A., general chairman assisted by Marion Rhodes. Elizabeth Milmine was responsible for the decorative scheme. Helen Elliott was in charge of the publicity and advertising, and Bertha Zajan and Melanie Grant were on the music committee. The following were chairman of the class tables: senior, Alice Daly; junior, Mildred Loman; sophomore, Madeline Tietjen, and freshman, Katherine Saxton. The chairman of class waitresses were: senior, Iva Hinman; junior, Alice Gooding; sophomore, Mary Neville; and freshman, Mary Lee.

Newman Pilgrimage Sunday, May 17

Newman Club held its regular meeting on Wednesday, May 6 at four o'clock in Room 211. During a business session, an amendment to the Newman Club constitution making the president of Newman Hall a member of the Newman Council was proposed and adopted. Mary Morrissey, '26, one of State's delegates to the conference of the Albany Province of Newman Clubs, gave a detailed report of the conference activities. (Due to an error in the April 24 issue of the News, Edna Fitzpatrick, '25, rather than Mary Morrissey was mentioned as a delegate, with Alice Daly, '25, Eleanor Callery, '26, president of Newman Hall, announced a tea to be given Saturday, May 16. All club members and their friends are invited to attend.

Sunday, May 17, is the date set for the annual Newman Club Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs at Auriesville. Transportation facilities will be provided by the Newman Alumnae and the start will be made from college at nine o'clock. Today is the last opportunity to sign up for the pilgrimage. The annual Retreat is scheduled for the week-end of May 22-23 and will be held at the Academy of the Holy Names, closing with the fourth Quarterly Communion of Newman Club. The committee in charge of the breakfast to be held at the Academy is as follows: Eleanor Fitzgerald, chairman, Katherine Kelliher, Lucy Frisco, Juanita Devlin, Doris Sinnott, and Marion O'Connor.

Student Elections

Officers of important student organization and publications at State College have been chosen for next year. Chief among them are these: Olga A. Hampel was elected editor-in-chief of the Quarterly by its board, and president of the Dramatic and Art council by the council. Marion M. O'Connor was made president of Newman Club and of Music Association.

Minnie E. Greenway was elected editor-in-chief of the 1926 Pedagogue by the junior class.

Miriam B. Snow was chosen president of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Ruth L. Moore, '25, retiring editor-in-chief of the Quarterly, announced the rest of next year's board as follows: Marion Chesbrough, business manager; Carleton A. Moose, Helen Arthur, and Margaret Stoutenberg, advertising managers; Sophia Rogers, Julia Fay, Daisy Smith, and Beatrice Wright, literary editors. Another issue of the Quarterly is expected by Moving-Up Day, Miss Moore said.

Miss O'Connor, president-elect of the Music Association succeeds Beulah M. Eckerson. Thyra BeVier, '26 was named treasurer. T. Frederick H. Candlyn, musical director, said the year's program has been completed.

The Chamber of Commerce Club elected: president, Eleanor Callery; vice-president, Bertha Zajan; secretary, Julia Fay; treasurer, M. D. Landon; reporter, Percy C. Briggs. Floyd E. Landon is retiring president.

Memorah Society and French Club voted Monday. Dorothy Dietz is the retiring president of Y. W. Other new officers are: Margaret Benjamin vice-president; Georgianna Maar, secretary; Margaret Stoutenberg, treasurer; Ethel DuBois, under-graduate representative; Miss Edith O. Wallace, Miss F. Laura Thompson, and Mrs. Jesse F. Stinard, faculty advisory council members.

Miss O'Connor succeeds Mary Driscoll as Newman president. Other elected are: vice-president, Gertrude Lynch; treasurer, Julia Fay. Revote on other positions were held this week. H. E. Club elected Rachel Westfall president; Elizabeth Doyle, vice-president; Mildred Graves, secretary; Jeanette Manville, treasurer; Elizabeth Bender, senior editor; Joseph Walker, reporter; Beatrice Wright and Carolyn Josselyn.

Charlotte Jones, '28, and Ruth Landon, '28, were elected new members of the Dramatic and Art council. Melanie Grant, '27, was chosen secretary, and Miss Lane was made treasurer. Other members are Mary Flannigan, '25, and Eleanor Harrison, '27, Miss Grant, Miss Jones, and Miss Lane, with Miss Eunice A. Perine, instructor in fine arts, were appointed a committee to promote the sale of art postcards published by the council. These are on sale in the Co-op. The picture on the front is a drawing of a southeast view of the columns of the Administration Building. On the reverse side is space for address, a short sketch of the college history, and an original poem by Miss Hampel.

Frosh Lose Idol; Search Closed Sat.

College authorities may interfere in the underclass rivalry between sophomores and freshmen, as a result of alleged acts of '28 last week in its unsuccessful hunt through college buildings and the campus for the sophomore idol, it was reported today. Clarence A. Nephew, president of the freshman class, was summoned by President Brubacher to discuss some of the freshmen methods of searching.

Freshmen failed by one davenport to find the lost mascot, although they hunted all week in large groups. Saturday, the final day of the hunt, first year students redoubled their work in a last attempt to locate the mascot, a plaster-of-paris statue of a lion.

Freshmen are reported to have disturbed some members of the faculty by overhauling their desks in a hunt for the mascot. Only college administrative offices were barred as hiding places and any other place in the building was allowed.

The statue was hidden beneath the davenport in the women's faculty room by President Ralph P. Harris, William I. Clarke, Harold Parry, and K. Lee Dellahay, members of the sophomore class. By the victory, the sophomores forge five points in the lead in the rivalry. Tonight, another phase of the struggle comes with the annual sophomore banner fight. Tomorrow, it closes with interclass athletic events for women students at Ridgely Park. The winner will be announced tomorrow night at the Step Sing.

A determined effort is being made by student and faculty authorities to discover who is responsible for injuring Minerva. President Brubacher is said to favor stringent methods of punishment if the guilty ones can be identified. It is believed neither State College nor Milne High School students were guilty. Suspicion has attached to boys of another nearby high school.

Senior Breakfast and Ball May 15

The Senior Breakfast will be held at the Ten Eyck on June 1, at 8 o'clock. Mildred Whitegiver, Iva Hinman, and Madeline Finch, working under Frances Thompson, the general chairman promise a successful senior event. Mildred Hammersley will act as toastmistress. The class speakers will be: 1921-22, Edwin Juckett; 1922-23, Alice Daly; 1923-24, Marian Schrader; 1924-25, Mary Bull. Dr. Brubacher and Dean Metzler as representatives of the faculty will address the class. Assessment is two dollars.

The Senior Ball is scheduled for June 15, at the Colony Plaza from 9:00 to 2:00 o'clock. Louise Baeder acting as general chairman, urges all to sign up for this closing senior function. Assessment is two dollars a couple. The committee consists of: Jessie Wayman, Esther White, Esther Eldridge, Esther St. Denis, Beulah Eckerson, Edith Leek, and Mary O'Hare.

SOPH AND JUNIOR ELECTIONS

The results of the various class elections are as follows: sophomore elections—president, Edna Empie; vice-president, Bertha Zajan; secretary, Julia Fay; treasurer, Mrs. Hartman; manager girls' athletics, Ethel DuBois; G. A. A. Council, Gertrude Swettmann; song leader, Melanie Grant; men's athletic manager, Edwin Van Kleeck; men's athletic council, Harold Perry; reporter, Lillian Bell; finance board, Ruth Coe and Edna McNutt; cheer leader, Bertha Zajan. Junior elections—president, Niles Haight; vice-president, Eleanor Callery; secretary, Hilda Klinkhart; treasurer, Helen Elliott, (resigned); reporter, Olga Hampel; cheer leader, Jeanette Wright; song leader, Mary Flannigan; finance board, Mary Flannigan and Miriam Snow; manager girls' athletics, Elizabeth Milmine; manager men's athletics, Marion Landon; G. A. A. council, Margaret Benjamin; men's athletic council, H. Ferguson; editor-in-chief of Pedagogue, Minnie Greenway; business manager of Pedagogue, Carolyn Coleman.

SPEAKING CONTEST MAY 25

Selections of a widely varying character have been chosen by the contestants in the annual Prize Speaking Contest, Monday evening, May 25. Emily Williams will interpret a scene from "Monsieur Beacaire," by Booth Tarkington; Florence Blumenstock has chosen "Witches' Leaves," by O. Henry; Lucy Jones, "The Nightingale and the Rose," by Oscar Wilde, Edna Wolfe, "There Ain't No Ghost," by Ellis Parker Butler; Marjorie Youngs, "How the Whale Got His Throat," by Kipling; and Goldina Hills will present a scene from "The Call of the Wild," by Jack London. Judges for the contest have not been selected.

CO-OP TO AID DRIVE

Anyone owning second hand books which are still in the Co-op, must call or them by Friday, May 29. Any books left there later than that date, if they are not texts that will be used next year, will be confiscated in order to make room for the incoming second hand books in June.

Watch for new things in the Co-op. The beautiful new post card view of the college is being sold entirely for the benefit of the Dormitory Fund. Every loyal student will buy one for himself and several to send his friends. The Co-op has secured a new supply of "One Hundred and One Famous Poems" in the twenty-five cent edition, and a few in a beautiful leather edition suitable for graduation gifts. Be sure to notice the latest novels.

HISTORICAL ENTHUSIASTS

Historic Albany does not lack for appreciation by the freshmen of State College. On Saturday, May 2, Miss Fay piloted about twenty-five young history enthusiasts, first to the Historical and Art building, and thence to Schuyler Mansion, where everything was viewed with great interest, from the tomahawk scar on the stair rail to the quaint costumes of the Revolutionary period.

LAST ISSUE OF NEWS JUNE 1

The annual "big issue" of the State College News, which is the only other issue to be published this year, will come out about June 1, or a little before. Copies will be sent to high schools in New York State, in accordance with a plan adopted about eight years ago. The issue will be much larger than the usual size. Space is given to the usual stories of the week; and a large number of pictures, showing college organizations, activities, and buildings, are published. A resume of the year's events, a description of the college courses, notes on the student activities, athletic stories, and names of officers of college clubs and classes for next year are published.

BIOLOGY AND CANTERBURY CLUBS ARE ACTIVE

On Wednesday afternoon, May 6, the Biology Club went to the peat bog on the Schenectady road. This proved to be one of the most interesting hikes of the season, although most of the members waded in ice-cold water. Many rare plants were found there. The members who attended were Dr. Douglas, Ruth Collins, Mary Hitchcock, Mildred Strang, Ethel Wilburn, Christie Bartholomew, Madeline Tietjen, Margrid Hagelberg, Mildred Wilson, Harold Ferguson, Harold Perry, John Sturm, Robert Hubbard, and Reginald Dixon.

Canterbury Club will have a hike out the Country Club road Saturday afternoon, May 16. They will leave St. Andrew's parish house at four o'clock. A bacon hat will be the feature of the day.

The Canterbury Corporate Communion and breakfast for May will take place Sunday, May 17, at 8 o'clock. As this is the last one of the year, all members are urged to come.

CLASSES PLEDGE TO DRIVE

At student assembly, last Friday, Dr. Brubacher discussed in detail the two phases of the Residence Hall Drive. There is the campaign which is being carried on among the students of the under-graduate body; and there is the campaign which is being promoted among the citizens of Albany.

"The city has its eyes upon us," declared Dr. Brubacher, "and what we do the city will do." As a result of Dr. Brubacher's talk and the efforts of the Dormitory class committees, all classes are crowding the 100 per cent margin in the signing of Dormitory pledges.
