Cunning Campers Combat Cold By Consolidating Bunks, Bedding

To the tune of an apparently perpetual-motion pump outside the lodge and an unquestionably perpetual-motion group of songsters within, women of the Class of '50 were initiated into the companionship of their fellow State students last weekend.

Neither blankets and baggage held up by the truck strike nor buses off on the wrong road blighted their stay for the campers.

A sunrise ceremony at the foot of a cross of birch and evergreens set a Sunday mood, and then, to save which the frosh gave a promise of the individual ability which came out the next night in the frosh talent show.

Principles and Policies...

Operating principles form the basis of action for all organizations...

The State College News functions according to two simple rules...

1. The State College News is published according to accepted journalistic standards...

2. Since the News is supported by Student Association funds...

Both sides of any controversial issue will be presented in our news columns...

Each story is displayed according to its general interest value among students...

We ask in turn the cooperation of the student body; it is impossible to produce an accurate and interesting newspaper if we do not receive correct information...

Unrestricted Area...

Just to clarify an apparently confused situation, the PO is not a restricted area...

However—please note the qualification—the News office is not a locker-room annex, recovery room, typing bureau or cafeteria...

This is a point of information for upperclassmen. There is, and has been for a number of years, a locker room right across the hall from the PO.

A full week of work is required to put out each issue of the News, requiring frequent use of the PO by staff members...

Campus Commission Rules...

By MINDY SKOLSKY COURSE NO. II—OPINION & HENRY WALLACE

On the evening of September 12, at a Madison Square Garden rally of the National Political Action Committee...

If you have read the Hearst, Gannett or McCormick press concerning the former Secretary of Commerce's speech, you have no doubt been led to believe that Wallace expressed pro-Russian views...

The fundamental view expressed by Wallace in his speech was that the United States should seek peace, not war, with Russia...

Wallace also said he is "neither anti-British nor pro-British—neither anti-Russian nor pro-Russian."

He is rather, judging from his address, pro-world, and the opinions he expressed are those favoring the harmonious "one world" Wendell Willkie pleaded for.

Unfortunately, the situation in our country today seems to have reached the point where everyone who says that war with Russia is inevitable is applauded...

The fact that Wallace did speak even though he realized he was politically "sticking his neck out" shows that he is an individual not interested in selfish motives...

State Stars "Sing the Blues" After Music Disappears

Last year, several large amounts of money were stolen from the students here at State. In two cases, the purses were carefully returned—empty.

This year, a theft which affects directly or indirectly every individual in the school has taken place. Music belonging to the "State Stars," a band formed by members of the class of '49, was placed on a desk in the Commons by a member of the band.

The "State Stars" was formed last year through the efforts of a group in freshman class in an attempt to provide State with a long-needed swing band. The money for their music was collected at jam sessions in the Commons and by contributions of the students in assembly.

Without this music the band will be unable to fulfill engagements for college functions until more money can be collected.

Snader To Leave Milne Faculty

Dr. Daniel W. Snader, assistant professor and supervisor of mathematics in Milne, has been appointed associate professor of mathematics in the Galesburg Branch of the University of Illinois at Champaign, Urbana, Illinois.

At Galesburg, Dr. Snader will have charge of the division of mathematics and physical science. He will do some teaching of mathematics and will have about 34 teachers under him.

Dr. Snader has spent 8 years at Milne and while there has had an opportunity to work out an experimental program in mathematics.

While in Albany, Dr. Snader also sponsored the Capital District Mathematics Association, one of the few of its kind, and wrote 3 books which will be published by the J. C. Winthrop Company.

New Home The Galesburg Division of the University of Illinois, where Dr. Snader will teach, has recently taken over the four and a half million dollar building for the new hospital.

In closing, Dr. Snader said, "I shall always have a deep affection for State College and its faculty. The association Mrs. Snader and I have had here will always be cherished."

As an opening, Woodie will add another welcome to the already lengthy list compiled by the frosh. And then, when Woodie has had his last word, the curtain will rise and the freshmen will taste their first sample of '47 talent.

But the evening will yet be young and the frosh will accompany their Senior mates down the winding stairs to the gym to demonstrate their dancing abilities.

Class members have pitched in to help with the work. Harold Gould will be responsible for the skit and another entertainment. His assistants, Chuck Axtelrod, Judy Dube, Carol Berg and Jean Elting, in their hands lies the fate of the entertainment.

Even ushers will be present, with Sally Dunn, Marty Dunlap, Trudy Kasper Girvin and Betsy Bronman blazing the trail to prize seats. The decorations fall to Hank Druschel and his able assistants, Clyde Cook, Marie Saluce, Dorothy Struzenberger, and Paul Penrose.

Red (Malcolm) Evans and Bolo Marsland have charge of treating the floor, administering to the mike and sponsoring the spotlight. Dick Smith has chosen his own committee for the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tibbetts will assist Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Standing with the chaperoning.

College Close-ups

In the early morning to repaint the Idol a beautiful green. Hands were substituted for brushes. The Frosh substituted shortly afterwards and three combustibles upon the statue, setting it fiercely aflame and despoiling the Sophomore handwork.

Class rivalry doesn't seem to be taking up all the time of the students though, for on many a campus the football are getting in shape for the opening of the season. Lacrosse teams are also moving into the spotlight.

At Brockport State Teachers College the Big Brothers and Big Sisters have spent the past week taking their freshmen to receptions, open houses, buffet suppers and the like (sound familiar?)

The student body 7 to 10 in the evening. So, girls, if some handsome specimen of manhood tries to tell you he goes to Sage don't be too quick to doubt him. He might at that.

Over at Union class rivalry seems to be flaring already, among other things the traditional painting of the Idol. The Idol, a large stone Chinese image which was donated to the college years ago, has been set aside for the students to do with as they will.

It seems that the image has received many a coat of paint and, according to last week's Concordensis, this year is no exception.

The Sophomore class resumed its persecution of the Freshman class as numerous yearlings raised North College frosh from their beds.

Wood Cuts

By Frank Woodworth

This week we are concerning ourselves with some old problems that have reared their ugly heads as well as the inevitable new ones that have arisen. It has been suggested in Student Council that freshman veterans who wish to take active part in rivalry wear some class token for recognition. In spite of the fact that the "GI Bill" stipulates that veterans are not required to observe traditions, it seems only fair and reasonable for a person who takes active part in traditions, in this case rivalry, to observe the rules. We feel that freshmen veterans should at least wear their class ribbons or blue name tags if they wish to take part in rivalry events.

The next item of business is concerned with ping-pong. The table and equipment that we have at present is inadequate for the needs of the student body. This table was purchased by MAA several years ago and has taken a terrific pounding ever since. We feel that a new table should be obtained in the very near future, if not sooner. Until such time, we would like to urge the people who use the table to be fair about the length of time they play. There are many people to use the table and it is not good sportsmanship to monopolize the table during the school day. If everyone cooperates in this matter, we are sure that the situation will be somewhat eased.

Football Prospects

After some indecision, intramural council has arrived at a football schedule of sorts. The main trouble has been the organization of teams. It has evolved into a catch-as-catch-can organization which appears to be the best possible solution. The main obstacle lies in the fact that many of the men who signed for football do not know each other and, therefore, have had difficulty in organizing teams. It also appears that the men of the freshman class have been especially slack about signing their names to the list. We would like to take this opportunity to remind the frosh that football is worth three (3) rivalry points which might make a great deal of difference one way or another when the day of reckoning comes around. The whole school will be watching the game. No one will overly criticize a losing team, but your reputation and class prestige will suffer if you make a poor showing. The score isn't as important as the spirit shown. So, let's get on the ball, boys, and turn in your names to Ken George, who is in charge of the team. He needs more recruits.

We have been interviewing various and sundry (sultry) people in regard to their opinions of the new seating arrangement in Brubacher Lounge. The first person we encountered was none other than the ever smiling (now sad) Irishman, Bob Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan is quoted as saying, "Gee! I'm Graham Duncan was equally pleased. He said, "I hear that they are reserving orange crates, complete with names, over in the St. Mary's housing development." After hearing these testimonials we are convinced that there will be a new housing problem at State College.

Honestly, folks, we'll print the football schedule next week. *He's a Grad student—grad, that is!

Football Season Opens On Page Field, Monday

Seven Teams Organize In Intramural League

This Monday will commemorate the return of a regular intramural football league to the State College campus. Although several informal games were played last year there was no organized schedule.

For the past few days teams have been practicing from 4 to 5:30 p.m. to get in shape for the coming season. Starting Monday at 4:30 p.m. two games will be played every afternoon except Friday on Page Hall Field. With seven teams competing it will take approximately three weeks to complete one round with each team playing six games.

Teams Organized

With the season just starting not much can be said about the relative merits of any team but most of them have some players who were outstanding in the old intramural league. The Ramblers led by Red Evans should have plenty of drive with Feeney, Kullman and Hansen in the line-up. The Van Derzee Hall (formerly Arnold House) team will be captained by Al Stone. Train-with lots of high school experience would be one of the mainstays of the team. Stan Gipp and Art Olive, co-captains of the Finks, promise a light fast team with a wide open offense. Howie Lynch's Grads with Bull, Levin and Munson on the squad have a potentially powerful nucleus to begin with if they can regain their former prowess after their long layoff. Kenny George is organizing a freshmen team. They're dark horses since none have played at State before but with a large freshman class from which to choose there should be some experienced men. Bolo Marsland's Raiders with Ashworth, Hippick and Klitridge have an untried combination of speed and height. Sayles Hall Annex, with George Poulos as captain and Zanchelli and Jackson as potential spark-plugs, completes the seven team league.

Rules

There may be some changes, but the main points of the old six-man touch rules were as follows: (1) Two hands on rear below belt for a tackle. (2) Four downs to make fifteen yards for a first down. (3) Other rules as in regular eleven-man football. Men who aren't on any team and who would like to play or who would be interested in officiating should contact Coach Hathaway, Al Stone, or Bolo Marsland.

Tichy Forms New Class

Paula Tichy, '48, has announced that all interested persons may sign up for driving classes Monday from 7 to 8:30 A.M. at the stamp booth. Miss Tichy reports that lessons will be given in "Minnie" (also known as that yellow "car?"). Since space is limited, only one student can be accommodated in the front seat. However, a large registration is anticipated and Miss Tichy has made arrangements to poke a hole through the top of the vehicle so those sitting on the roof may have an unobstructed view of the dashboard.

WAA Stars Will Entertain At Frosh Frolic

Are 'ya hungry frosh? Homesick, maybe? Always bored on Saturday afternoons when all your homework for Monday is done? Forget your problems, Frosh Frolic will solve 'em all. You've never heard of Frosh Frolic? It is WAA's method of introducing the Women's athletic program to the class of 1950. There you can meet the stars of WAA as well as show off your own talents. Committee Chairman

Mary Quinn, '48, is general chairman of the affair, and has promised a program of variety and fun characteristic of a WAA get-together. Ginny Day, '48, in charge of arrangements, has announced that the event will take place Saturday afternoon, September 28, at the Dorm Field. The program will begin promptly at 2:30 and will close at 5. Paula Tichy, '48, has guaranteed food a-plenty for all—peanuts, coke, and apples (the peanut idea is original this year). Micky Seaman, '49, has lined up the State College Trio to head the entertainment list with a supporting cast of Sweeney and Binn with their Shakespearean drama entitled, "Nellie the Farmer's Daughter"; and Aggie MacIntyre of story telling fame will give with the double talk. Wilma Diehl, '48, is busy making programs for everybody to put in their scrapbooks, and Tilden, '48, has outlined the afternoon's sporting events.

Speeches and Introductions

Miss Johnson will welcome the class of '50 with a brief outline of the purposes and goals of WAA. Edna Sweeney, this year's president, will introduce the other members of WAA council with a word about the functioning of the council. The other members of council for this year are Vice-President, Betty Ann Margot; Secretary, Beverly Sittig; Treasurer, Pat Tilden; Office manager, Wilma Diehl. The Senior representatives are Ginny Day and Gerry Callahan; Juniors, Paula Tichy and Mary Quinn; Sophs, Sophomore and Senior Classes and Micky Seaman and Muriel Owens.

Varsity, intramural and freshman basketball will ring in the late fall activities soon after Thanksgiving recess. For the first time in several years a freshman basketball squad will be organized to strengthen future varsity teams. State's basketball future seems to be a bright one.

Also Bowling

Accompanying the swish of the basketball hoop, the staccato banging of ball hitting pins will resound from neighborhood bowling alleys. Bowling leagues are being planned and a tournament will round out bowling activities. Ping pong tournaments, swimming and volleyball leagues are other highlights of an energetic fall athletic program.

Baseball, Track

Spring will find the varsity baseball squad kicking up the dirt of Ridgefield Park on the first fair day in late February. Track, a newcomer to the field of State varsity sports, is tentatively being planned if enough interest can be aroused among the men. Tumbling and boxing clubs and a softball league will round out a truly hazy year in State's athletic history.

Post Scripts

By Pat Sheehan

"Rain, rain go away, Don't come back 'til Thursday." There you have the sport's editor's idea of heaven.

A "recurrent headache" for the sports staff is the problem of filling up the "holes" reserved for contests that have been washed-out. Albany has the most unpredictable weather. You are likely to have perfect sailing weather on the day you planned a winter carnival, a ski season without snow, or winter blizzards in the middle of May.

"Sent on Wednesday, Printed on Thursday, Delivered on Friday..."

Either our newspaper instincts or the natural impulse for self-preservation prompts us to try to cover all sports events. But it is impossible for us to cover any athletic events scheduled on Thursday. The copy is sent to the printers on Wednesday and the paper is in the presses before any Thursday results can be reported. We hope that the presidents of WAA and MAA as well as the rivalry managers will keep this in mind when scheduling events throughout the year.

"Sauce for the goose, Is sauce for the gander..." We mentioned that the WAA bulletin board was beautifully kept last year. Mindy did a fine job and this year Elie Binn is following in her footsteps. She has already started decorating with enticing notices. But MAA was not to be outdone. Notices, invitations and sign-up sheets overflow their allotted space and get plenty of attention from passers-by.

"If at first you don't succeed, Try, try again..."

The invitation to try-out for Sports Staff is still extended to men of the Sophomore and Senior Classes and to Sophomore women.

Ellen C. Stokes Will Address Assembly Today

Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women, will address the student body in today's assembly. Elections will take place for a Sophomore and Junior representative to Student Council and there will be voting on a financial resolution. The nominations for Student Council from the class of '48 are Rita Coleman, Dorothy Diffin, Marian Mierns, and Curtis Pfaff. Candidates from the class of '49 are Patricia Devlin, Barbara Houck, and Agnes McIntyre. The financial resolution which will be voted on is, "Resolved, that $32.50 be appropriated from the Student Association surplus to buy a typewriter for the Pedagogue."

Commuters Plan Club Activities

A full year's program for Commuters Club was planned by the executive board at a meeting Tuesday. Commuters will be able to attend more college evening activities through the club's arrangements for supper in the Lounge and a system of car pools under the direction of Al, et Rad, '47. A Hallows' party for October 26 is being planned with Clara Creed, '48, as chairman. Other activities will be a song, contest and a poster contest, conducted respectively by Helen Callano, '49, and Audrey "Bobby", '49, which will soon be open to all club members. Plans have been started for a Big 8 performance and a Christmas program. Gerry Wallis, '47, and Ann Gourley, '49, are carrying on an investigation of the housing facilities at the Y.W.C.A. in Albany. It reports are favorable, a better attendance of commuters at college functions will soon be in evidence, said Miss Wallis. Esmerie Sledge, '49, editor of the "Rob" newspaper, "Tommy's Tattles," has announced that the first issue will be sent to all commuters next week.

Welcome Interlude Takes State Students By Surprise

Never before did a pink slip—a piece of paper, that is—mean so much in the lives of State College students.

Tuesday morning a notice was posted on the bulletin board. "College classes will be dismissed at 11 A. M., Wednesday, October 9, and will reassemble at 8:10 A. M., Monday, October 14." It's almost unbelievable, but by golly, for once it's true. Amidst the jumble of packing and looking up train schedules, the Seniors watch with envious eyes remembering the rest of the bulletin, "Milne School remains in session and Senior teachers in Milne are to meet their Milne School appointments during this period." The reason for the vacation is that the college faculty is going to attend a conference of Teacher-College Faculties at Buffalo—It isn't just one of those things that happen every day.

Hillel Appoints Rabineau Head Of Weekend

Louis Rabineau, '48, was named general chairman of the Hillel Religious Weekend to be held October 10-20. On Friday, October 18, there will be religious services and on Saturday, October 19, a "Spish Party" at the Jewish Community Center. A picnic at Thatcher Park on Sunday, October 20, will climax the weekend. Rabbi Solomon Mosezon, chaplain of Hillel, was the speaker at the first meeting held last Wednesday. New students and officers were introduced to Rabbi Mosezon by Solomon Minsberg, '47, president of Hillel. During the meeting, Rabbi Mosezon gave a brief explanation of the meaning of the Shofar or Ram's Horn which is traditionally sounded on the New Year. Saturday, October 5, is Yom Kippur, the holiest day in the Jewish year. On this day the Jewish people fast from sundown on Friday until sundown on Saturday.
