

LISC Report for Senate Meeting, 12/7/22

LISC met on December 5th, 2022. We approved minutes from the November 12th meeting and received updates from the Dean of Libraries, ITLAL, and Lindsay Van Berkomp, LISC Chair.

Report from the Chair (Lindsay Van Berkomp)

- Resolution from CORE at the upcoming Senate meeting for inclusion in AI initiatives on campus
- Spring meetings will be scheduled shortly—three meetings, there will be a Doodle poll
- Open Access Implementation Committee updates will come after February

Report from the Libraries (Carey Hatch)

- Renovations – Moving ahead with Current Periodicals Room, increased opportunities thanks to gifts
- Reorganization – A plan deliverable to the Provost is expected in January
- AI – The Libraries are interested in leveraging space and services to support the AI initiative, willing to engage LISC for collaboration.
- Cambridge University Press Transformative Agreement – Significant increase in access, adds an additional 331 journals. Any faculty member publishing in these journals will not face processing fees.

Report from ITS (Brian Heaton)

- No report

Report from ITLAL (Aviva Bower)

- The restructuring of ITLAL and Ed Tech Services into CATLOE (Center for the Advancement of Teaching, Learning, and Online Education) occurs on January 2. An email from the Provost's office will go out soon and there will be a website FAQ to introduce instructors to the new organization of the Center.

Upcoming Senate Meetings:

- Wednesday, December 7, 2022
