

Essay - Contest Awards Trips To Scandinavia

Swedish American Line Celebrates Centennial
Six free trips to Scandinavia will be presented as the first and second prizes for the best essays on the subject of "The Influence of Swedish Settlers on a Community or Region", the contest being open to all members of Student Association. This competition is given in commemoration of the Swedish Pioneer Centennial being celebrated in 1948, and is sponsored by the Swedish-American Line, New York City.

This is the first time that a contest on this subject has been initiated; many interesting stories of Swedish settlers and their constructive influence on American culture should come to light, according to Earnest B. Beareth, contest editor.

First prize will consist of a free trip to Scandinavia in the summer of 1948 totaling approximately eight weeks, with Cabin Class accommodations on the Swedish-American Line, including transportation to and from New York and the winners' residence in United States or Canada. Second prize will be a free trip to Scandinavia with the same provisions as for first prize except that the trip will last for approximately six weeks instead of eight. Third prize consists of a $200 trip to one of the Swedish Pioneer Centennial Celebrations in the Middle West in 1948; fourth prize is a $100 United States Savings Bond, and fifth and sixth prizes consists of $50 and $25 Savings Bonds, respectively. Not more than one prize will be awarded to one family; the winners of first and second prizes will travel as groups.

Rules for the contest will be posted on the bulletin board in the P.O. All students interested should investigate further at the NEWS office.

There will be three different contests open to the following groups, which will be judged separately:
1. College undergraduates; 2. High School and Preparatory School students; 3. Adults regardless of occupation.
This means that there will be two free trips available to contestants on the college level.
Fourteen prominent educators have consented to serve as judges for the contest, which will close April 1, 1948.

In his talk, Dr. Taylor will discuss in part his visit last June 15 to 22 at Lake Success as Educational Director of the Collegiate Committee for the United Nations.

Today at Hobart College, Dr. Annette Dobbin, Assistant Professor of French, is attending the annual conference of college language teachers.

State Closed Armistice Day

Dr. M. G. Nelson, Dean and Acting President, has announced that there will be no classes held on Armistice Day for State College students. Bizet's Opera "Carmen" Attracts Large State College Audience

A warm and well balanced production of Bizet's opera, "Carmen", was presented by the San Carlo Opera Company Tuesday night in the Palace Theater. While lacking in professional polish, and noticeably weak in the first act, the performance was well received by a capacity audience.

Coe Clade, as the gypsy Carmen, revealed an unusual strong, rich mezzo-soprano voice. Here was the one voice that consistently conquered the bad acoustics of the Palace Theater.

Frederick Jagel, a tenor with previous experience at the Metropolitan, sang an acceptable Don Jose, although his acting was perhaps not as convincing as that of Miss Glade. He sang particularly well in the "Flower Song". Notable among the supporting cast were Carlo Morelli, as Escamillo the toreador, Miss Cravi, as Don Jose's rejected sweetheart Micaela, and the excellent ballet troupe led by Lydia Arlove and Lucien Prideaux.

The chorus was extremely alive and precise throughout. The music itself was by far the most professional part of the performance. Among the tremendous audience were the familiar faces of many State College Students.

Dunn Elected Frosh President

Choose Richard Thorne Vice-President of Class

By a landslide majority, Gerald Dunn was elected President of the freshman class on the second distribution. His closest opponent, Donald Ely, trailed by 67 votes. Richard Thorne became Vice-President of the class on the sixth distribution.

The vote for secretary was much closer, the two top candidates being tied on the eighth distribution with Jane Cook pushing ahead to win the election in the ninth.

The election for Treasurer was finally determined by one vote. Marie Thurlow was ahead of her nearest opponent, Alice Gersh, for three distributions but Miss Gersh won the election on the fourth distribution by one vote.

Election for Cheerleader went out to eight distributions but Ruth Owen was ahead all the way. She received the quota on the eighth distribution, her closest opponent, Mary Eade, being behind by twenty-nine votes.

Harvey Clearwater won the election for publicity director with ease. His Hatch became Songleader with a wide majority.

Neither the WAA Representative or Manager won with a majority. Patricia Jai was elected representative on the fourth distribution and Audrey Weller was made manager on the sixth distribution.

Name Four to Student Council
Student Council went out to eighteen distributions. Patrick Dooley was elected on the tenth distribution, Dutch Schultz on the thirteenth, Betty Cushing on the fourteenth and Edward Moriarty on the nineteenth.

A list of the numerical tabulations will be found on page four of the NEWS.

Students Petition Ballot Recount For Who's Who

At Student Council Meeting Wednesday night, a petition was presented to the President of Student Council asking for a recount of the ballots in the recent Who's Who election. It is rumored that Myskania will assist the members of Press Bureau in recounting the ballots.

The election was conducted and tabulated by Press Bureau which is supported through Student Association. According to the Constitution of the State College Student Association, by Laws, Section 4, upon petition of 25 members of the Association, any action or ruling of any organization supported through the budget shall be reconsidered by that organization, and subsequently, if desired by the petitioners, an appeal shall be made to Myskania.

In addition, support is also given to the Albany Community Chest, which serves thirty local agencies; the Cancer Research Fund, the March of Dimes; the Red Cross; and the Tuberculosis Association. As last year, the quota is $1.00 per person.

The Campus Chest Committee urges that students make additions or substitutions to the above causes if they feel so inclined. They may do so by contacting the Chairman through Student Mail or leaving a note in the Dean of Women's office.

Canvassing of various groups and individuals will begin Monday. All Residence Halls will be contacted during the campaign, and the house which first reaches 100% participation will receive a prize. Commuters, including all those who live in private homes in Albany, will be canvassed by a squad of commuter workers who will make personal contacts. In addition, organizations on campus will be reached for group contributions.

Monday noon in the Commons, free entertainment will formally mark the beginning of the '47-'48 Campus Chest Drive. During the week, a Chinese Auction will be held, and plans are in the making for many other events and affairs.

Mr. Lansky said, "We feel that an internationalist spirit would be an asset for State College and that the World Student Service Fund is one of great importance." The Campus Chest Committee consists of Coletta Fitzmorris and Margaret Seaman, Juniors, and Ruth Smith, '50. Canvassing: Heinz Engel and Joseph Carosella, Sophomores, Publicity: Katherine Grant and Marie Griest, Entertainment: and Barbara Houck, Faculty Contacts.

DR. J. L. MORENO
Conference Speaker

Lansky To Head Campus Drive

Donald Lansky, '49, Chairman of the State College Campus Chest Drive, has announced that the 1947-'48 campaign will begin this Monday and will continue through November 22.

The money collected is used to help support thirty-five different agencies. First among these is the World Student Service Fund. This is a fund supported by colleges and the families of college students only which provides food, clothes, books, fuel and other needed materials for students in Europe, Asia, South America, and all over the world where need exists in education.

In planning the conference, the members were careful not to make the program a theoretical one, according to Miss Simon. It is a workable agenda; one in which the delegate can accomplish something. The theme will be "Ways of Working With People"—an attempt to push lethargic belief into action. It will show the future teacher what he can actually do (using certain tactics, strategies and methods) to help unite the working forces of mankind.

Simon To Greet College Delegates In Page Today

"Working With People" To Be Dominant Theme

At 9:30 A. M. today, the Second Intercollegiate Conference on Intergroup Relations will begin. The two-day program is sponsored by the Intergroup Council of this college and will feature the presentation of the sociodrama process by Dr. Jacob L. Moreno, Director of the Psychodramatic Institute of New York City, tomorrow evening at 8:30 in Page Hall.

The appearance of Dr. Moreno will be the culmination point of the two-day program. Dr. Elaine Forsythe, Assistant Professor of the meeting and states that the process is not difficult to learn and will prove valuable in the classroom. No admission charge will be made for the program.

Assembly Program

Father George B. Ford of the Corpus Christi Rectory in New York City will speak in Assembly this morning as part of the program of the conference. He will be introduced by Dr. Robert Fisk, Principal of Milne School.

Intergroup Council will play host to delegates from 14 colleges: Oneonta, New Paltz, Oswego, Plattsburgh, Cortland, Saint Rose, Fredonia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, Michigan, Skidmore and Albany. Along with the delegates will come student and faculty observers from several of the colleges.

The conference is open to all State College students; it is hoped that many will attend these sessions in which they are interested, states Joy Simon, '48, Conference Chairman. Most of the meetings will be held in the Lounge.

In addition, support is also given to the Albany Community Chest, which serves thirty local agencies; the Cancer Research Fund, the March of Dimes; the Red Cross; and the Tuberculosis Association. As last year, the quota is $1.00 per person.

Economics vs Education

Why will a State College student give to Campus Chest when the canvasser reaches him? Because he has a dollar saved by leaving out few cups of coffee at the Boul, and can't wait to get rid of it? Mmmmm? Or because he wants to keep up with the Joneses? Maybe. Or because he knows of thirty-five places where his dollar will do good, and is willing to invest in someone's future? We hope.

Most of us are prone to think of any event in economic terms and to count the cost of an undertaking as the primary factor in measuring success. Characteristically, the "goal" of the Campus Chest drive is one dollar per person—the same amount as last year in spite of skyrocketing in other departments. But the "goal" of that steel engraving is phenomenal.

Your contribution will serve thirty-five local and national agencies, of which the most important is the World Student Service Fund, which functions wherever a need in education exists. This fund buys not only books, but clothes, food and fuel for students throughout the world. It is supported by students and their families, and should be especially important to us.

In addition to the W.S.S.F., a dollar will help thirty-one other agencies. If you know of another organization which is worth helping, it will also be considered as an addition to the list. By giving now to Campus Chest, you will avoid appeals from separate agencies throughout the year.

A goody-goody appeal is no good. Nor is it a help to intimate that, as the largest Teachers' College in the state, we should give, as a whole, more than the smallest amount, as we did last year. But a spark of internationalistic feeling will produce results beyond our limited concept of the value of a dollar. That spirit results in saying, willingly, "I'll never miss a buck if it means food or something for some character studying at French State Teachers' College, majoring in English!"

Supply and Demand

What has happened to Press Bureau? No Campus Queen stories or pictures in Albany papers, in spite of their desire for news from State; little or no information in home town papers about some students with important positions here; and in-expert, if not incorrect procedure in the Who's Who balloting add up to a minus in efficiency or interest. The demand for news of State students is there; the machinery for production is established; why aren't the goods forthcoming?

Blind Man's Bluff

By EUGENE McLAREN

This Reporter is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS.

Last week announcement by the Grand Marshal to the effect that Campus Commission would remove any undersized notes from the student mailboxes should be interpreted to the effect that ONLY Campus Commission will remove notes from the boxes.

WHO'S GONNA BE WHO? Big question of the week is, just how were "Who's Who" votes counted? If they were actually counted by the method of adding the numbers in front of each name and declaring the lowest sixteen elected as appears to be the case, the recount by preferential method next week should prove very interesting.

FOOTBALL LOVELY AS A TREE? It is always nice to beautify the college campus. On the other hand it is essential to have healthy teachers.

RED CROSS The proposed Red Cross Chapter here could offer among other things monetary and other aid to vets, home nursing and home economic courses and aid to anyone in an emergency.

INSURANCE AGAIN U. S. Life Insurance Company is sending out letters explaining the recently adopted plan to the parents of all State College students, so maybe if they're convincing we'll all have insurance before we know it.

PREFERENTIAL VOTING Unfortunately there is no space available to keep our promise of an explanation of preferential voting.

These Are the Hollow Men... This is the way the world ends; This is the way the world ends;

"Nice place you've got here, Al." "Thanks, Dave. Yeah, the missus and me feel pretty lucky, getting it the way we did."

"Old man Scarpalucci used to own it, didn't he?" "That's right, but he had to get out. He tried to buck Reynolds's campaign for the office of District Tax Collector. He went around telling people that Reynolds was corrupt, and was using the office for his own good. Naturally, Reynolds got sore, and sent some of his boys around to try and persuade Scarpalucci that he better just keep quiet. But the thick-headed wop kept right on squawking. Said he was gonna make some sort of a sink about it. He never got any place with it, though, and after Reynolds got in again, he made things so tough that Scarpalucci had to sell immediately. I heard about it, and got in on the ground floor."

"Scarpalucci had to sell at a terrific loss didn't he?" "What the hell, Dave. Like I was telling the missus, if those foreigners don't like the way we run things here, let 'em go back to where they came from."

"That's right, but he had to get out. He tried to buck Reynolds's campaign for the office of District Tax Collector. "Step right up, folks, for a thin dime, the tenth part of a dollar, try to ring the bell. C'mon, all you muscle men, show off to your girl how strong you are. Win a lovely prize, grab that hammer there, young fella, step right up..."

A tall blond young man with the honesty of the wind in his face took hold of the hammer diffidently. On his second attempt, the red ball shot to the top of the neon column, and the bell rang.

"I'd like to try again, mister." "Not quite so breezy now, the barker nudged. Again the bell rang.

"Awright, awright, fella, keep on moving now, let someone else have a chance." The barker took two cheap prizes from the rack, ungraciously thrust them at the proud youngster, and hustled him out of the crowd. He growled to a bystander, "Those Scandahoovians are all the same. Never know when they've had enough. Big dumb oxes, all brown, no brain..."

This is the way the world ends; This is the way the world ends; Not with a bang, but a whimper.

On The Bench

By PAULA TICHY

The Winter season is nearly upon us. By Winter season we mean as far as sports are concerned. As yet WAA has not appointed its Captains for the coming season but it is highly probable that such news will be forthcoming within the next week.

Why don't the various group houses, sororities, etc., start thinking about their teams now or at least decide as to whether or not they will enter one in the leagues. Just as it seems fashionable to be late for a play so also it seems to be fashionable to enter a team and then withdraw it. We realize that there are many reasons for such an act but it does give rise to many otherwise avoidable difficulties.

Looks like St. Mary's is in for another benefit. If all goes well the money received from the State vs. Alumni basketball game will go to "The Angels." This is the opener of the season and will undoubtedly attract a large gate.

Coach Hathaway is giving the fellows plenty of practice but the team will also need a lot of moral support from the rest of the school, so let's "give 'em all we've got."

Some of last year's turnouts wouldn't even be a credit to a school of 400 much less a college of 1300.

IN MEMORIAM We wish to extend our condolences for all those who died attempting to perform their duties on the Tennis courts.

George Poulos took State's first Cross-Country meet last Saturday, running the two-mile course in 10:12.6. The runners plan another meet for tomorrow.

Our newly formed Tumbling Club is off to a good start. 25 enthusiasts have turned out, promising a good future.

Fresh-Sophs To Meet In Rivalry Volleyball The Soph-fresh rivalry volleyball game will be held on Wednesday, November 12. This game will mark the fifth contest between the classes and the first time that volleyball has been played for rivalry credit.

The freshman team defeated Myskania in a preliminary contest. The frosh displayed ability at the basic skills of the game and may well give the Sophs a tussle.

Team Captains The Sophomore team will be captained by Ruth Mattison, WAA Manager for the Class of '50, while Lucy Lytle, '49, will coach the frosh team.

Final Cut Next Week Coach Hathaway intends to make another cut sometime next week. This will be the final cut of the season and from there on the team will be set.

Jays Defeat Gremlins In Hockey Match, 2-0

Winners Score Twice In Second Period Drives

Bowling under the superior force of a fast, well coordinated Sophomore team, the plucky frosh hockey squad was defeated 2-0 in Wednesday's rivalry contest. Sponsored by center Ellie Adams, the Sophs captured the three rivalry points offered.

Despite poor field conditions due to rain, both teams played excellent hockey. The game was one of the best hockey contests played here in some time.

The Sophomores opened the game by continually putting the gremlins on the defensive. They were able to keep the ball deep in '51's territory throughout most of the first half. The defensive work of the frosh, however, prevented scoring during the period.

The second half saw the frosh drive into the offensive. The Sophs, however, lightened defenses and again drove into Gremlin territory. Following a beautiful down field play, Adams succeeded in scoring the first Soph point. The ball changed hands repeatedly as each team strove to score.

The Blue Jays moved into the gremlin striking circle and after two attempts blocked by goalie Pat Jai, Adams again scored for the Sophs.

Van Denburgh Retires Position Held 27 Years

State College has lost another member of its administration during the past week. Miss Van Denburgh resigned her position as Registrar, after having served the college in this capacity for the past 27 years. During her time spent in the office, she worked under the administrations of Dr. A. R. Brubaker and Dr. J. M. Sayles.

This resignation last week was not a complete surprise to the school, because Miss Van Denburgh planned to leave at the end of summer session. However, the date that she was leaving was unannounced, so that her departure was unexpected. As a result, the State College News was not able to secure a personal interview with Miss Van Denburgh. We were able to secure some information about her resignation from Dean Nelson, however, and the following are a few facts about her life outside the office.

Miss Van Denburgh was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary fraternity, and on campus, she served on the faculty of Psi Gamma sorority.

Before leaving the school last Friday, the faculty held a farewell tea in her honor. Dr. M. L. Hayes, Assistant Professor of English, was in charge of the affair. Mrs. Sayles and Mrs. Nelson poured. There were a large number of faculty members present, and they presented Miss Van Denburgh with a leather traveling bag, as a going-away gift. Miss Burbank, Dr. Sayles' secretary, was also guest of honor at this tea.

At present, Miss Van Denburgh is visiting in Utica. She will return to Albany on November 10, to prepare for her trip to Florida. After spending the winter there she plans to reside permanently in Albany after next April.

Art 6 Students Arrange Displays

Members of the Classical and Art 6 class, "Design Through Visual Aid" are responsible for the bulletin board displays along the halls this week, explains Ruth E. Hutchins, Assistant Professor of Fine Arts.

Members of the class have been assigned to the bulletin board of their major or minor subject. They chose topics and try for a balanced, colorful presentation. The experiment has the triple purpose of presenting information, giving experience to the Art students, and providing examples of good bulletin boards.

The following are the locations of the experimental bulletin boards: For Science, the upper right end of second floor Husted; for Mathematics, first floor Draper outside the mathematics office; for Modern Languages, French and Spanish, first floor of Richardson; for Commerce, third floor Draper; for Social Studies, second floor Draper, at the Library end of the hall; for Classics, Room 2, first floor Richardson; for Art, second floor Draper, opposite the Art Department; and Music, Room 28, Richardson.

Sandwiches, Prices, Over-Crowding, Scored By Students In College-Wide Dissatisfaction With Cafeteria Conditions

General dissatisfaction with the State College Cafeteria was indicated this week in a poll taken by the STATE COLLEGE NEWS. Students who were interviewed showed either extreme dissatisfaction, indifference, or mild approbation, but there were very few who rose to the defense of the cafeteria.

The questions asked by the poll takers were these: "What is your opinion of the State College Cafeteria?", and "What changes, if any, do you think should be made in the cafeteria?"

From the one hundred eighty-two people questioned, sixty-eight per cent definitely believe that the cafeteria is not functioning satisfactorily, that the prices are too high, that the food, particularly the sandwiches, is poor. Twenty-seven per cent are indifferent. They either don't eat in the cafeteria, or else they have nothing to offer one way or the other about conditions. Only eight per cent of the students think that the cafeteria does a good job, that the food is good and the prices fair.

A Junior suggests that two cashiers would speed the line at noon, and that the sandwich counter line, in crossing the dinner line causes confusion.

Brimmer Speaks At Conference

Mrs. Bertha E. Brimmer, Secretary of the Alumni Association at a fall luncheon meeting of the Nation's Capitol Branch of the State College for Teachers' Alumni Association, held in Washington, D. C. After the meeting the Branch made a money contribution which combined with a money gift from the class of 1941 makes the amount sufficient to buy the china which will be used for the first time at the Sayles Hall tea next Sunday.

Elizabeth Carmany, Dorothy Meyers and Anne Ludington, recent graduates, were president and accepted responsibilities for the May meeting. Several other members of the Branch have teaching positions or fill important government positions.

The Capitol Branch has in the past undertaken projects to help the Residence Halls, which were built by the alumni in 1935 and in 1941. Last summer they sent money to be used for cups and saucers for tea parties at Sayles Hall.

Education Council To Administer Teacher Exams

The American Council on Education will prepare and administer its ninth annual program of examinations which are designed to measure certain abilities, knowledges, and interests associated with teaching as a professional activity. New examinations are prepared annually by prominent educators so that the materials will be sensitive to new developments in education and representative of outstanding professional thinking.

Teachers and teachers-in-training may apply to take these examinations for purpose of self-evaluation, and to meet the requirements of school systems and colleges that participate in the program. All inquiries and applications should be made before Christmas vacation. Arrangements for setting up examining centers are being made at the present time. Individuals who wish to apply to take the National Teacher Examinations, or who is interested in securing further information about the program may consult Dr. Elizabeth Morris in Room 10.

RPI To Award Degrees In Cooperation With State

RPI, in cooperation with State College and the State Department of Education, has devised a plan to help meet the nation's needs for more and better teachers in Science, technology, Mathematics, and vocational education. Livingston W. Houston, President of RPI, thinks this plan will fit in with the national government's program for the development of atomic energy and other scientific advance.

Under this plan, which is described as the only one of its kind, RPI will confer two degrees which have not been offered before: Bachelor of Science in Vocational Education and Master of Science in Education.

Students will take courses in engineering, applied science, mathematics, drawing, industrial and technical education and in general subjects by attending evening, Saturday and summer courses set up at RPI for that purpose.

Albany Schools Open To Public

During the week of November 9 to 15, the Albany public schools in observance of American Education Week, will open their doors to the public and invite everyone to visit them on this occasion. Special programs have been arranged and every parent and prospective teacher may take advantage of this opportunity to obtain a bird's eye view of the American educational system.

American Education Week has received the highest cooperation from Albany merchants who have provided window space for exhibits in the down-town area. Radio programs have been scheduled throughout the week over stations WROW and WABY one of which will be devoted to a panel discussion with members of the State College Faculty.

By bringing education to the fore this occasion serves to remind the public "The Schools are Yours"—the theme for American Education Week.

Eddy To Discuss Marshall Plan In Assembly

Change Big-8 Program; Add List To Directory

Assembly this morning will feature Dr. Sherwood Eddy, author, lecturer and world traveler, who will speak on "The United States and the Marshall Plan." Dr. Eddy, author of thirty-five volumes on international, social and religious questions, has first-hand knowledge of many of the battlefields and leaders of the two World Wars. Graduated from Yale in 1891, he went to India at his own expense, and worked among students there for fifteen years; he has spoken in several hundred colleges in all parts of the United States, Europe and Asia.

At the Student Council meeting in the Lounge Wednesday night, a new item was decided to be added to the Directory. The item will be known as "Who To See" and will consist of a list of the names of persons to be contacted for various reasons necessary for State functions.

Thus far they are: Insurance, Donald Langsley, '48; use of the public address system, Dr. Floyd Henrickson, Assistant Professor of Education; rivalry rules and dates, Maria Mieras, '48, or Myskania; Assembly absences, Anthony Prochillo, '50; Lost and Found, Renee Harris, '50; prior approval, Pearl Pless, '49; activities dates, Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women, or Mrs. Annette Malseed; class dues, the class treasurer; lost student tax tickets, Nancy Walsh, '48, or Dr. Edward L. Instead of the "Big-8" productions performed in previous years, there will now be "Big-4" productions, all under the auspices of Student Council. The Big-4 program will consist of productions by Sophomore and freshmen classes, the Christmas program and State Fair.

Four Houses Reach Quota In Chest Drive

The contest among group houses sponsored by Campus Chest ended Monday noon with a tie between four group houses. Alpha Epsilon Phi, Kappa Delta, St. Thomas More, and Syddum Hall were the first to get their quota of one hundred percent donation filled at $1.00 per person. Prizes will be awarded by Helmut Engel, '56, this morning in Assembly.

The emphasis this week will be on the Commuters' Drive. Commuters, which include in this case anyone not living in a group house, include over 650 students. A group of canvassers, each with a list of twenty-five commuters, is making individual contacts. The drive will continue until Friday, November 21.

Today from 12 to 12:30 in the Commons, Campus Chest will sponsor a Chinese auction. Cliff Thorne, '49, will auction off the "Campus Chest."

On Thursday, November 20, at 3:30 P. M. in Room 20, the Academy Award winning movie, "Seeds of Destiny," will be shown. The movie outlines the work of the World Student Service Fund in Europe and Asia, and shows education as it now exists abroad.

Twink Surprises College With Brand New Husband

Monday night the phones started buzzing, and suddenly astonished gasps broke forth all over Albany. "Twink! Not you? When did it happen? Well, where will you be living?" It's not Twink anymore though. It's Mrs. Don Walsh... a few feet of personality and President of Student Association. "It seems that married Presidents are getting to be a habit at State College."

In response to all the queries that greeted her, Twink replied, "October 18... in Peekskill." As for a place to live, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh are now keeping house in their own apartment, as of Tuesday. It may not be very big, but in this case, does it really matter?

News To Enlarge Reporting Staff With Jrs., Srs.

Definite action to enlarge the editorial staff of the NEWS was taken by the NEWS Board at a meeting last Wednesday.

In order to clarify the situation, a new plan will become effective this year. Three reporters will be chosen from the Junior class and three from the Senior class. These people will act as advisors to the Sophomore reporters, and cover special assignments. In past years, people who have worked on the NEWS for two years were dropped when the Junior editors were chosen. The new system will eliminate this waste of experience through the appointment of Junior reporters.

The NEWS Board will select the six special reporters and six Sophomore Desk editors next week. Any Junior or Senior interested in reporting, should submit his name to the Editor of the State College NEWS, if possible, before Wednesday of this week. The editor may be contacted by dropping a note in the NEWS mailbox, opposite the women's locker rooms.

To Hold Clinic For Chest X-rays

Compulsory chest x-rays will be given by the Albany County Tuberculosis Association on November 20 and 21, in Room 107, Draper, according to Milton G. Nelson, Dean and Acting President.

It is required that within these two days, all students in the college appear for their x-rays. In order to accomplish this, it will be necessary to report to Room 107 during their first free period. There will be no fee, as the examination is considered an essential part of the State program to eradicate tuberculosis.

A request has been made for girls to wear plain sweaters without buttons or jewelry and the fellows to wear shirts without buttons on the pockets.

Bulger Visits High Schools

Paul Bulger, Coordinator of Public Relations, has announced that he will travel to several high schools throughout the state in a program designed to stimulate interest in State College.

Today, Mr. Bulger is at Katonah High School, where he is showing the film "State College." On November 20, he will have the same program at Oneida. Nyack will be visited November 24.

Stokes', Peterson To Entertain In Piano, Violin Concert Tonight

Moreno Reveals Psychodrama To Capacity Audience In Page

By SARAH CARUSO "Paris was supposedly my objective for tonight, but I'm very glad I'm here," said Dr. J. L. Moreno as he addressed a capacity audience of State College students, IGC conference delegates, and Albanyans at the presentation of the sociodrama in Page Hall last Saturday night.

According to Miss Zerka Torem, Dr. Moreno's assistant, the sociodrama is a form of the psychodrama; yet it is more general and deals with the corrective aspects of a person's life. There are three types of the sociodrama: exploratory, diagnostic and therapeutic. The exploratory type was presented Saturday night in order to find out if the participant had a problem. The diagnostic type is used to determine the nature of the problem while the therapeutic method solves the problem. The latter is used very often with people who are neurotic.

The proof that the conference was a success lies in the fact that each delegate returned to his respective college with specific plans.

Frats To Sponsor Weekend Parties

"Club 51" and "Kappa Delta Rho Manor" will be the themes for the informal dances to be sponsored this weekend by Potter Club and KDR, respectively. Potter Club's dance will take place at the Scully American Legion Post tonight at 8 P. M. KDR will hold its dance Saturday night in the Ingle Room from 8 to 12 P. M.

John King, '50, General Chairman of the Potter Club dance, has announced that girls who plan to attend the Stokes-Peterson concert first should sign out for the party, in order that they may have 2:00 hours.

Committees for the KDR dance have been released by Robertson Baker, '49, Chairman. They are as follows: Refreshments, Raymond Verrey, Graduate; Dale Wood and Glen DeLong, Seniors; Music, James Brophy, '49; Decorations, William Baldwin, '48; Favors, Jack Brophy, '49; Entertainment, Clifton Thorne, '49.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. Butler will act as chaperones.

Program Offers English Melodies, "Herodiate" Aria

Page Hall will be the scene of a concert sponsored by Music Council, tonight at 8:30 P. M. The concert will feature Dr. Charles F. Stokes, violinist; Margaret Anderson Stokes, pianist; and Mr. Karl A. B. Peterson, bass-baritone. This will be the fourth annual appearance of the Stokes' in an ensemble program locally, whereas Mr. Peterson will be making his first public appearance in Albany at this event. No admission will be charged.

The program will consist of a group of old English melodies and the famous aria "Vision Fugitive," from the opera "Herodiate," by Massenet, rendered by Mr. Peterson; Grieg's F major sonata, Opus 8, and the Sibelius Sonata, Opus 80, performed by Dr. Stokes; and five songs of Schubert given by Mrs. Stokes. The violin sonatas performed by Dr. Stokes are chamber music works and consequently rarely performed in Albany; they are Scandinavian pieces.

Previous to his position as Professor of Music at State, Dr. Stokes was Director of the Instrumental Department, Musical Education at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, Ohio; he also attended the University of Cincinnati. At present he is first viola player and also assistant conductor of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Stokes has graduated from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and also attended the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. For one year prior to her marriage she was Director of Music at the El Paso School for Girls in El Paso, Texas. Both Dr. and Mrs. Stokes appeared in many concerts before and after their marriage both in the West and in the South.

Mr. Peterson was an undergraduate at Washburn University, Kansas, and took his master's degree and doctorate work at Columbia University.

AD To Present Plays Tuesday

Plays directed by Everson Kinn and Harold Mills, Juniors, will be featured Tuesday, at 8:30 P. M. in Page Hall. The offerings of the Advanced Dramatics Class will include the Elizabethan tragedy "Dr. Faustus" by Christopher Marlowe, and a one act melodrama.

The cast of "Dr. Faustus," directed by Mills, includes: Faustus, Gifford Wingate, '49; Mephistophills, Warren Reich, '49; Valdes, Donald Ely, '51; Cornelius, Frederick Knoerzer, '51; Wagner, Robert Wilcox, '49; Old Man, Richard Clark, '50; Helen of Troy, Phyllis Witt Penn, '50.

The melodrama, directed by Kinn, takes place in prison a short time before an execution. The prisoner about to die refuses to divulge his identity. "The setting," Kinn says, "is very unusual and has not been done previously at State." Members of the cast are: Tony Prochillo, '50, Mary A. Cheatham, '49, Stewart Campbell, '48, George Christie, '49, Thomas Lisker, '49, and Robert Lynch, '48.

Srs. May Order Pictures
