CHARLES CROSS WINS PRESIDENCY

*****

DR. FREDERICK SAYS--

"In the spring, things change, and the change is not always for the better. Of course the flowers grow, but the weeds also grow. Nothing in this world is all good or all bad, not even spring or medicine. How we use or care for ourselves, our bikes, or our chance to learn determines whether we gain or lose.

I do not want to make this spring message a sermon, but I would just like to remind you that most things can be good or bad, and that goes for examinations. Exams can be beneficial if they are used to help you fill in the gaps in your learning, and if they help you to understand better what you have been studying all year. Exams can be bad if they stimulate you to nervousness and fear. Practice looking on exams as an opportunity to further your education. Believe it or not, they are designed to help you here at Milne, not to make life hard for you. Good luck and a pleasant summer to you all."

Dr. Frederick

COUNCIL ELECTIONS HELD

Charles Cross, '43, of Homeroom 135, was elected president of Junior High Student Council for the 1939-40 term, on Wednesday afternoon, following a joint assembly in the Auditorium, which was in the form of an election rally, with the candidates and their managers speaking. Others in the contest were William Soper Raymond Stickney and Benjamin Van Acker.

DRAMATICS CLUB PRESENTS COMEDY; MILNE ORCHESTRA PLAYS AT ASSEMBLY

At assembly Monday, May 29, the Junior High School Dramatics Club presented its bi-annual play, Refund, a comedy, which was enjoyed immensely by the whole audience. The play was directed by Miss Mary Genova of State College.

Before and after the presentation, the Milne Junior High Orchestra played, under the direction of Dr. Carleton Moose. The members of the orchestra are Don Faucault, Geraldine Paul, Walter Griggs, Fred Detwiler, Stanley Ball, Walter Fredenburgh, William Leng, Claude Wagner, George Gordon, and Richard Gundel. Their closing selections were "On, Milne High School" and "On, Wisconsin." The audience accompanied the orchestra by singing "On, Milne High School."

BROTHER OF MILNE SUPERVISOR SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

On Monday afternoon in assembly Mr. Jack Taylor, brother of Mr. Wallace Taylor, Milne supervisor, was introduced to the Junior High School by Dr. Frederick.

Mr. Taylor, a native of Kansas, teaches speech, directs plays, and coaches debate in the town of Paola.

Among the many poems and pieces of prose which Mr. Taylor read, the finale of the program, "The Shooting of Jack McGrew," was enjoyed most by the audience. Miss Christine Ades, of State College, assisted at the piano with this number.

Mr. Taylor, visiting his brother, plans to stay in Albany another week, before travelling back to Kansas.

REGAN ADDRESSES NEWSPAPER CLUB

Fred C. Regan, co-editor-in-chief of the Senior Crimson and White, addressed the Junior High Newspaper Club at its last meeting on Thursday, June 1. His topic was "Essentials of Good Journalism."

Regan included in his talk a history of the Crimson and White, and illustrated it with older copies of the paper and with the trophies which the publication has won.

Fred has been very helpful to the Junior High Crimson and White staff in offering suggestions, helping with mimeographing, and giving confidence to the staff.

WILL APPEAR IN YEARBOOK

This year, a picture of the Junior High Crimson and White staff will appear for the first time in Cricks and Ivy, the senior yearbook. The staff voted to contribute toward the cost of this picture in one of the recent newspaper club meetings, if the paper cannot pay it.

RAMBLING AROUND WITH THE CLUB REPORTERS

Those successful SMITH GIRLS made a profit of about three dollars on their tea dance, and are now planning to give themselves a party with it. They are making scrapbooks to be sent to the children in the hospitals.

The Typing Club as a test for their practice and skill throughout the semester recently had a race. The L. C. team composed of Jean Dorsey, Jane Foster, Florence Horne, Jean Obenous, and Arthur Baskin, raced against the Smith team, which had Betty Baskin, Norice Foster, Stanley Heidenreich, Harry Mosher, and Esther Wykes. The L.C. Team won 11 to 8.

The Dancing II club is planning a party with the Dancing I club, to be held in the near future.

The Girls' Sport Club and Boys Sport Club played tennis and baseball out in front of the school.

The Boys Cooking Club, which has recently decreased, due to the many baseball enthusiasts, made chocolate cupcakes last week, and as we had a sample, we can safely say they were one of the best things made all year.

The Girls' and Boys' Sports Clubs had a very exciting baseball game. There were two casualties. One proved to be very serious. Ethel Baldwin and Harry Culp ran into each other trying to catch a fly. Ethel is now in the hospital with a broken collar bone, and Harry is unharmed. I'm sure we all hope she gets well very soon. The softball went "smack" into George Edick's eye. Aside from the casualties, the game went well. The score was 13-4 with June's team winning.

SEVENTH GRADE VICTORS OVER NINTH

Thursday, May 25, on the campus lawn the 7A team beat Miriam Boice's team, 9A. With Emily Phillips and Helen Peterson taking turns in the pitcher's mound, the seventh grade managed to scoop up a score of 7 to 4. The ninth grade put up a fine fight against the team that is the top-ranking one of the Junior High.

The mimeographers have actually cleaned the mimeograph! The Print Shop is closed--no more "heads." All the clubs are about to adjourn for the year--the Club Editors have retired. The Department Editors get no news, as all supervisors are busy making out tests. The Feature Editors have completely run out of ideas. The stapling machines are empty, and the early-bird staplers are too busy to reload them.

The poor editors are actually out of work, to say nothing of news.

With a happy summer ahead of us (following the exams) we of the C & W close with hopes of a better paper next year, and with good luck and best wishes to you all!

Miriam and Bob

* LETTERS TO THE EDITORS *
*****

Editors, Crimson and White:

I took the fact into consideration that this is the last issue of your paper, and realized that I wanted to be present with you again.

GOOD LUCK!

In Miss Waterbury's departure, Milne is losing one of its friendliest and most helpful supervisors. She has taken charge of our assembly programs, supervised the Junior High Crimson and White, and helped us to enjoy English. She is always willing to give assistance to anyone. Throughout the year, she has been one of our most popular faculty members.

Mr. Warren Densmore, who was graduated from State College in 1938, will take Miss Waterbury's place. While at State, he was president of the Student Association and a member of Myskania, senior honorary society. He also taught twelfth year English during the first semester of his senior year. At present he is teaching in Islip, New York. When September rolls around, we shall be looking forward to meeting him again.

To Miss Waterbury, we wish much success and happiness--ALWAYS.

This week I want to call to the attention of you and your readers, the two pictures which have recently played at the Strand Theatre. The first, Rose of Washington Square, is the story of a young, pretty girl (Alice Faye) who, while trying to crash the stage with a blackface comic (Al Jolson), falls desperately in love with a handsome young thief (Tyronne Power). The plot thickens when Power is accused of a large robbery with the rest of a gang, and is released from prison on bail, then escapes, and practically breaks his wife's (Alice Faye's) heart.

The picture is ably directed by Gregory Ratoff, and is filled with songs of yesterday which bring back memories to many of our fathers and mothers. Al Jolson is excellent in the show, singing as he used to, with a blackened face, "Mammy!"

Second picture on the list is Sons of Liberty, a Warner Brothers Technicolor Short, with Claude Rains, Gale Sondergaard, Montague Love, Henry Stephenson, and an excellent supporting cast. The picture is the story of Haym Solomon, a brave patriot who did much to help win the Revolution, both financially and spiritually.

Be sure and see both of these pictures when they play at your neighborhood theatre.

See you all next fall!
As ever,
That Same Critic!

FROM JOE MILNETTE'S DIARY-----
 (Week of May 22-26)

Monday:

Assembly today---Junior High Dramatics presented a swell play: Refund.
 No school tomorrow!

Tuesday:

Memorial day! Slept this morning-- and how! Went swimming this afternoon at Mid-City. Saw a lot of Milnettes there. Bob Clarke's new bathing suit certainly is spiffy! (or isn't that the word?)

Wednesday:

Same old grind today. Took a look at those "handmade" pinhole cameras that the ninth grade general science made.
 They take swell pictures.

Thursday:

Last meeting day of all Junior High clubs. Goodbye until next Fall!

Friday:

Boy, what a week! Sure am glad it's over. Fort Orange Council Boy Scouts are having their annual Camporee over the weekend. Milne will be quite well represented.

Well, goodbye, Dear Diary, I'll be with you again real soon!

As over,
 JOE.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF--

---Barbara Russell received a word of greeting from Bill McGregor.

---Glenna Smith lost her Adolphoi pin.

---Marion Horton had joined the Albany
 High Band on their trip to the New York
 World's Fair. (We wonder why.)

---Stik Manning wasn't bashful when he had his picture taken. (He wasn't the only one.)

---Cabbage to the Milne students for their very poor support at our game with Albany High.

---Candy to all those "Junior High-ers"
 who supported the Junior Class' Travel Hop.

---Candy to Glenna Smith for "joining Adolphoi."

---Cabbage to all those pessimists who predicted "bad, rainy weather on moving-up day."

---Candy to Johnny Poole for the swell job he has done as president of Junior High Student Council.

---Candy to Bruce Clements, '40, for his fine cooperation with the Junior Crimson and White.

---Candy to Ellen Wilbach and Miriam Boice for missing lunch last week Thursday in order to work on the Crimson and White.

---Candy: At this time the staff of the Junior Crimson and White wishes to thank Justine Hermann, Bernice Mosbey and Edgar O'Hara, State College seniors, for their invaluable work as directors of the Newspaper Club. Without their assistance we would have been unable to publish the paper. Grateful acknowledgment is also due Miss Burnice Duell, State
 '42, who served as typist for the paper.
