NEWMAN CLUB PLANS EVENT AT EXECUTIVE MANSION ON NOVEMBER 13

A silver tea will be given under the direction of the Newman Club of the New York State College for Teachers Saturday, November 13, from 4 to 6 o'clock at the executive mansion. Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, wife of the Governor, will head the receiving line. A music program will be given under the direction of Sister Alphonsus of the Academy of the Holy Names.

The proceeds of the tea will be added to the fund to build a Newman dormitory at the college.

Miss Catherine Wansboro, president, has appointed the following committees in charge of the arrangements: Miss Elizabeth Carey, general chairman; refreshment, Miss Dorothy Collins (chairman), Miss Catherine Hanley, Miss Marion Brennan; publicity, Miss Katherine F. McGarrahan (chairman), Miss Alice Clear, Miss Caroline Berberick; arrangements, Miss Katherine Merchant (chairman), Miss Margaret Vangura, Joseph Sherlock; invitation, Miss Alice O'Connor (chairman), Miss Martha Perry and Miss Anna Mae McEniry.

JUNIORS SCORE

Wednesday afternoon the junior quintet defeated the freshmen on the Albany High court by a score of 13 to 4. The upper classmen had the advantage of the freshmen from the start, the score being 6 to 3 at half time in the former's favor. Linck featured for the juniors, scoring 9 points, while Sherley and Carrolan did the scoring for the under classmen.

S. C. T. LETTERS

New Point System

At last we have something that will interest every State College girl. You all want to win your S. C. T. letters, I know. Think how nice it would be to wear a big purple and gold S. C. T. on your sweater, and let people know you belong to State. G. A. A. now has a way by which you can all earn your numerals and letters, that is, if you work hard enough. Up to this time a few lucky girls won their letters by playing basketball, but now we have a system by which, with a little perseverance, you can say, "I won these at State College."

G. A. A. under the supervision of Miss Bennett and Miss Card have worked out the following "point system." By coming out for different events you earn so many points, and upon gaining 40 points you win your class numerals, and the girl winning the most number of points at the end of the year wins a cup. All those winning 60 or more points will receive S. C. T. letters. These numerals and letters will be different from any others you may have won in basketball or elsewhere, so it is up to everyone to try out for this. At the end of the year the girl having the most points receives a cup given by the G. A. A.

The following are the points given for each event:

- For each basketball practice attended, 1 point.
- For each basketball game played in, 2 points.
- For Indian Ladder hikes, 2 points.
- For shorter hikes, 1 point.
- For each swimming party, 1 point.
- For each skating practice, 1 point.
- For each tennis practice, 1 point.
- For each soccer practice, 1 point.
- For each hockey practice, 1 point.
- For each athletic practice, 1 point.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The first of the monthly corporate communions of the Canterbury Club for the year was celebrated at St. Andrew's Church on Sunday morning, at eight o'clock.

The following key members have been appointed for the year 1920-21: Doris Davey, '21; Charlotte Lynch, '22; and Mabelle Jochumson, '23.

Rev. Paul Micon, President of the National Student Council of the Episcopal Church, will address the members of Canterbury at the January meeting.

JOSEPH HENRY SOCIETY

The first meeting of the Joseph Henry Society will be held Thursday evening, October 28th in room 150. All members are urged to be present at this meeting.

SENIORS WIN

As part of the Campus Day program the senior five won over a picked team from the other three classes by a score of 17 to 3. The game was hard fought, but the seniors led throughout, blanking the underclassmen in the first half by a score of 8 to 0. T. Cassavant, Hathorn, and H. Polt did the scoring for the Red and White, while Sherley was the only man who succeeded in breaking through the strong guarding of the seniors for a field basket.

NEW COURSE STARTED

Exhibits Open to Students

An extension course on "Immigrant Backgrounds and Homelands," dealing with the different countries of north and southeastern Europe, has been started at State College. The lectures are given Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m., in room 161, and in connection with them pictures are exhibited, showing the history and life of the people in these countries. These pictures are on view permanently in room 161, and students are cordially invited to see them any day between four and six in the afternoon. The exhibits are changed every week, so that the program is varied and gives a more extensive impression of the various European countries. This week's exhibit deals with Russia.

FRESHMEN LOSE

The seniors defeated the freshmen in basketball Friday afternoon on the High School court, by a score of 38 to 8. The frosh played a hard game, but excellent teamwork on the part of the seniors enabled them to pile up a safe lead at the start. In the last few minutes of play Holmes, the senior mascot, was given a place in the lineup. Holmes, who is the smallest man in college, received a great applause from both sides when he took his place at center.

FIRST CAMPUS DAY AT STATE COLLEGE

Athletic Events a Great Success

New Quartette Entertains at Night

Last Saturday afternoon State College held its first annual Campus Day. The Physical Education Club had charge of the affair, and it presented a program that provided the best kind of amusement for everyone.

The first event, which took place in the park, was the cross-country run. Neumer, '21, who finished in 5:30:3/5 minutes, came in first. He was followed by Putnam, '24; Cassavant, '24; and Sherley, '24.

All the other outdoor games were staged on the college campus. The girl's interclass potato race was the first event. The junior team finished first, though the sophs, who took second place, put up a stiff resistance.

There were two races of the three-legged type—one for girls only, and one for man and girl against man and girl. The girls race was won by the frosh team of Belding and Heinemann. The other race was also won by a frosh team—Belding and Sherley. A feature of this last race was the spill the Crane-Polt team took just as it reached the finishing line.

Then came the obstacle races—one for men and one for girls. The contestants were expected to squeeze through two barrel hoops, to slip between the rungs of a ladder, to hop over a chair, and to slide under a table. The girls' race was won by Ernestine Owen, '21, with Emily Belding, '24, a close second. The men's race was won by Cassavant, '24, with Baker, '21, in second place.

The senior-soph versus junior-frosh soccer game was the next event on the program. The girls who made up the teams were picked players. Consequently, the

FAMOUS RUSSIAN SOLOIST TO SING AT STATE COLLEGE.

A concert of Russian music will be given in the State College chapel Wednesday, November 3, at 8:15 p. m. This is the first of a series intended to illustrate the music of the people of Eastern and South Eastern Europe, and it is part of Dr. DePorte's extension course on "Immigrant Backgrounds and Homelands." It will be followed by concerts of Polish, Italian, and Jewish music.

The choir of the Russian church at Watervliet, consisting of from twenty to thirty male and female voices, will present an interesting program of sacred and secular songs. Miss Isa de Bernhard, a member of the famous Russian Isa choir, will give several solos. Dr. Thompson, who has charge of the series, will play difficult Russian compositions. The admission price will be twenty-five cents.

ANOTHER FORM OF RIVALRY

Who's going to be the first to pay his blanket tax? That is an important question at this time. Freshmen, do you know that it's an honor to be ahead of the other fellow in this? Well, it is, and the class all of whose members pay their blanket tax first is the honor class of the year. So start saving your money now, and put it away where it will be handy when the office on the second floor opens for business.

'24, here's a chance for you to get the start of those sophomores. '23, it would be a shame if you let the frosh beat you to it. And juniors and seniors, you surely are not going to let the underclassmen put one over on you. Who's going to be first? Let's answer that question as soon as possible.

SOME SPIRIT, PLEASE

We owe the deepest gratitude and appreciation to those who started things going toward a Campus Day. It seems as if the very best way of showing our interest would be by attending the games. Of course, Campus Day was something new and untried. Perhaps that is why so many of the students felt it unwise to go. It would be better to find out first if such things were worth going to. Anyway, there were not nearly as many students there as might have come if they were really interested in college affairs and college people.

The students that did come were not nearly noisy enough. In fact, the only organized cheering was done by a small group of frosh during the entire program, and by the soph and frosh teams that took part in the tug-of-war. This lack of cheering was so noticeable because it had been widely advertised that these events would be entirely interclass.

We have found out early in the year what is the matter—and we shall just have to get up some more "pep" and dig up some good yellers here in State.

ONCE AGAIN

On the voting on the budget which took place last week and the week before there was much discussion over the "Quarterly." In the end nearly everyone voted in favor of it, but still there seemed to be some feeling against it. It is perfectly true that many of us do not care to read the Quarterly or would not miss it if it were not published. But there seems to be a way in which we can look at the subject more broad-mindedly.

We are all interested in our Alma Mater and in the things which help in its advancement. The "Quarterly" is one thing which adds to the breadth of State College. When we stop to think of the number of affairs and of the number of interests at State College, the more we can count, the more pride we feel in her achievements. If the "Quarterly" were not in existence, we would have just one less thing to enumerate. Of course the tax may be a little larger, but before long we shall have forgotten that we had to pay that extra dollar or two. But, on the other hand, people from outside will look at State College with more respect when they realize that she is able to support a paper of as high a standing as the "Quarterly."

So don't you all agree that we can sacrifice our own personal feelings against it, if we have any, and think of the cause as a point in favor of State College? In doing this we can give the Quarterly our heartiest support.

TRIP TO SCHENECTADY

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, freshmen,—you've always intended to go to Schenectady ever since you came to Albany whether it was five weeks ago or a hundred and fifty-five. And it's always been the same tale, no chance to go or nobody to go with or not quite sure what you'd do with yourself, if you should get there. Well here's your chance; to-morrow meet at college, Western Avenue entrance, at 11:45 to take the 12:00 car to Schenectady. As for the crowd, of course, we haven't gotten them all tagged and catalogued, at quite this early date, but there'll be a crowd there, don't worry, and Miss Fay is going to chaperon us, and incidentally clear up all the points on the local history of Schenectady that we're going to know after we've taken Course II. Oh, one thing more, probably not the least thing either, if you had your breakfast at 6:30 (?), is that you're to bring your lunch, and sometime, about one o'clock, we will have a picnic just to fortify our historic legs for their afternoon's ramble. Remember, if this piece must have a moral—opportunity knocks but once!—here's yours, so grab the tail end of the 12:00 o'clock car, that's better than putting salt on its tail and surer. Agnes S. Smith, '23.

PHYSICAL ED. PARTY

The party in the gymnasium started at 8:30 when the Milne High Jazz Orchestra began to play. The dance lasted until 11 o'clock. This was a fitting climax to the end of an enjoyable "Field Day." The dance was well managed and everyone enjoyed himself. Miss Ball played during intermissions. There were many guests from out of town present. The chaperons were Miss Pierce, Miss Cobb, Miss Phillips, Miss Martinez, Miss Bennet, Miss Card, and Mr. Snavely.

UNION COLLEGE TO CO-OPERATE WITH CITY FOR WINTER SPORTS.

Hockey Contests, Skiing and Ice Boat Races to be Features

Daniel J. Sweeney, Schenectady park superintendent, is looking forward to a record season of winter events in the parks, including skating, skiing, tobogganing, hockey contests and carnivals. Superintendent Sweeney will cooperate with Union College authorities in planning the winter events, thus giving the college men a rink for their hockey events.

Included in the plans for a greater revival of winter sports will be the construction of a toboggan slide, which will probably be built on Robinson hill, run down across the drive and stretch out onto ice of Iroquois lake. A toboggan will be a new feature at Central park and is expected to prove popular. Superintendent Sweeney says he is certain a slide will be constructed that will be safe.

It is said that facilities for skating on the college grounds will hardly be adequate for the hockey contests and ice-skating events that the college will endeavor to develop. This is the reason for seeking the cooperation of Superintendent Sweeney. With the greater facilities offered by the ice field of Iroquois lake the college can arrange premier contests, which will include hockey matches, skating races and boat races. It will also afford an opportunity for those who wish to indulge in sail skating.

Professor Howard Opdyke of Union College, suggested to Superintendent Sweeney the advantages that would be obtained by combining their efforts. It is planned to bring to Schenectady some of the best skaters of the country and to schedule events that will rival those held by the big northern winter resorts. For the skating events it is likely that a prize in the shape of a loving cup will be offered. The cooperation of the public is expected to warrant the offering of this prize.

Superintendent Sweeney and his athletic director are members of the Amateur Athletic Union and all events will be under the auspices of this association.

Interest in ice skating was given a great impetus with the opening of Central Park several years ago, and each winter since then, thousands have skated on Iroquois lake each week. The city plans to keep the ice in the best of condition for skating, and a number of hockey rinks will be roped off. The park superintendent promises that there will be room for every amateur team or league that wishes to use these rinks.

In the near future Superintendent Sweeney will announce the preliminary plans for carnival events. These will be arranged for winter holidays, weather permitting. It is likely that the lighting effects for the night events will be made possible by co-operation with lighting experts of the General Electric Company. Superintendent Sweeney will endeavor to make the ice field attractive either day or night.

Superintendent Sweeney said the outlook for a successful season of winter sports was unusually bright and that he believed the public would derive as much pleasure and benefit from the recreational features of the park next winter as they have from the tennis, baseball, picnics and other summer events.

THE LEADING ELEVENS

Centre College Eleven Has Rolled Up 255 Points; Penn State Second with 204

Centre College, which lost its first game since 1917 by going down to defeat at the hands of Harvard last Saturday by a score of 14 to 31, is the leading scoring eleven, having registered 255 points in four games this year. Penn State is runner-up with 204 points and has turned in five straight victories. Georgetown ranks third with 174 points.

Harvard has won five straight games and was not scored on until Centre College piled up fourteen points in Saturday's tilt. Yale has won three out of four games, while Princeton has a clean slate to date. Cornell also has won all its games, while Williams college has captured three out of four.

Union college of Schenectady has lost five straight games, failing to score on any of its opponents, who have run up 172 points. Rensselaer Polytechnic institute broke its losing streak last Saturday by defeating Worcester Tech, 7 to 6.

WHO'S WHO

"Y" House

Dr. and Mrs. Brubacher were entertained at dinner Sunday.

An informal birthday party was held Monday evening, October 18, in honor of Dora Piersma, '21.

Winifred Glesen, '20, was the guest of Mary Allen, '23, and Beatrice Haswell, '23, Saturday and Sunday.

Mabel Gage, '21, was the guest of Harriet Holmes, '21, Friday night.

Charlotte Benedict, '21, spent the week-end at her home.

Dorothy Howe, '21, was a dinner guest of Laura Ebell, '23, Friday night.

Syddum Hall

A meeting was held on Tuesday night, Miss Wemple presiding. The plans for the house dance are completed and further action is to be taken. The party is to be held Saturday, November 6, 1920. The entertainment committee, consisting of Dorothy Patterson, '20, Florence Dorsey, '23, Margaret Eaton, '24, and Joyce Dwyer, '24, have their plans completed and promise all a good time.

James R. Cline and son were visitors at the House Thursday evening.

A permanent peppy record of this year — the Ped!

First Campus Day

game was a closely contested one in which many fine plays were made. When the final whistle was heard, the score was tied 2 to 2. Later, when the tie was played off, the game fell to the junior-frosh team.

The tug-of-war between the sophs and frosh was the last and the most amusing of the campus events. When the signal was given thirteen husky sophs pulled fiercely against thirteen plucky frosh. But at the end of the allotted three minutes the sophs had a big advantage over the frosh—perhaps 20 yards or more. The rivals cheered each other heartily, and all made their way to the A. H. S. for the interclass basketball game.

This game was entirely one-sided. The senior team managed to hold itself far in advance of the other team consisting of Link, '22, Johnson, '23, Reilly, '23, Flynn, '23. The final score was 18-3 in favor of the seniors. This last event ended the athletic events of our first Campus Day.

The activities for the evening started with a dance on the pavement, for which the Milne High School orchestra furnished the music. Then a sing was held in the college auditorium for about an hour. Mr. Cadlyn played, and the State College quartette gave several selections. The members of the quartette were Charles Reilly, Theodore and John Cassavant, and Gruble. Their singing was very much enjoyed and ardently applauded. We sang all the old songs in the college song book, and everyone felt that college sings are really worth while, and we should have more of them.

Campus Day closed with a dance in the gym, which lasted until eleven. Milne High orchestra played, and everyone had a good time. Campus Day has certainly proved to be a success, and it is hoped that this institution will be kept up and made a college tradition.

For each volley ball practice, 1 point.

Entrances for meet:
First place, 5 points.
Second place, 3 points.
Third place, 1 point.

So you see, girls, you won't have to work so very hard after all. All that is needed is "pep" and "spirit" and every S. C. T. girl should have both, and here is just the place to show us what you can do.

A captain will be appointed at the next G. A. A. meeting to take charge of each event, and she will keep track of all the points for each person. So come out to the next meeting (Tuesday noon), and find out more about it.

If you have not already paid your dues, pay them to one of the G. A. A. officers now, for our point system starts this Saturday with the Indian Ladder hike.

The Young Man — "Wall, if it gives you an idea for a sermon, maybe it's wuth it!" — Life.

Consolation

"Ain't yer vaccination healed up yet?" asked Jimmy.
"Naw," replied Tommy.
"Geel don't it make yer feel bad?"
"Naw, the doctor told mom I mustn't take a bath till it's all healed up." — Philadelphia Press.

Absent in Vain

Mistress — "Did anyone call while I was out?"
Maid — "No, ma'am."
Mistress — "Dear me! A whole afternoon wasted." — Boston Transcript.

Court Humor

First Court Jester — "I fail to see what the king means. He pays about forty ministers, and they do absolutely nothing."
Second Court Jester — "Ah! The Idles of the King." — The Circle.

"See yourself as others see you," The senior said.
"Tell me how can this be done?" The freshman said.
Came the answer,
"Easy! Buy a Ped!"

"Have you heard the latest?"
"No, tell us quick," they said.
"The latest hasn't happened yet, "But you'll find it in the Ped."

Peter Piper picked a Ped.
Grinning, he said,
"This is better'n pickled peppers,
"To give pep to my bread."

See your memories of college!
Where?
Why in print and in picture,
In the Ped.

INTERSORORITY TEA

The annual intersorority tea will take place Saturday, November 6, 1920, in the rotunda of the college, from 3 to 5 p. m. All women of the college, especially freshmen, are invited.

Barry Coaches Boys' Academy Eleven

Marty Barry, formerly of State College and now at Albany Law school, is coaching the Albany Boys' Academy football team. Coach Barry is having excellent success with his team—it being one of the best Albany elevens.

The Boys' Academy is fortunate in securing Barry for a coach—he is a well known athlete in this vicinity, participating in a large variety of sports. His special sport, however, is basketball.

State College well remembers when Marty Barry was a star for its basketball varsity. Last season Barry played for the Troy State League.

Members of H. E. Faculty Attend Conference

Miss Grace Gillett, head of the Home Economics Department and Miss Eva Wilson, of the same department attended the Home Economics Conference held in New York Oct. 25 to 28th. The meetings, held at the McAlpin Hotel, included books and papers by people well known both in Vocational and Home-making lines and outside.

Nobody Likely to Remember

In the United States, Scotland has a great reputation for learning, and a lady who went to that country from Boston expected to find the proverbial shepherd quoting Vergil and the laborer who had Burns by heart. She was disillusioned in Edinburgh. Accosting a policeman she inquired as to the whereabouts of Carlyle's house.

"Which Carlyle?" he asked.
"Thomas Carlyle," said the lady.
"What does he do?" queried the guardian of the peace.

"He was a writer—but he's dead," she faltered.

"Well, Madam," the big Scot informed her, "if the man is dead over five years there's little chance of finding out anything about him in a big city like this."

He Knew His Friend

Berkowitz and Sternberg, traveling salesmen, met on the train.

"I have just come from St. Louis, where I did a tremendous business," said Berkowitz. "How much do you think I sold?"

"How should I know?" replied Sternberg.

"Of course you don't know, but what do you guess?"

"Oh, about half."

"Half of what?"

"Why, half what you say."
