MILNE DEFEATS PERU, 21-14; TO MEET COBLESKILL TOMORROW

On last Friday in the Page Hall Gym the Milne Varsity again swept down on an outstanding opponent, winning their seventh game. This time the unlucky victim was Peru High School. The final count was 21-14. The game started off with a bang, both teams fighting furiously for the ball. The scoring was limited because of the great defensive play of both teams.

Entering the gym at the second half the Crimson held the slim advantage of 7-6. During the third period the Tide's passwork began to function and the Milne basketeers slowly drew away from the Peru team. "Doug" McHarg led the Crimson and White attack with 9 points. Rosenstein was next in the scoring with 6 points.

Tomorrow night the Milne team and a large group of rooters will travel to Cobleskill for the final game on the Crimson schedule. Two Greyhound busses will transport the fans to the scene of the closing encounter. A victory for Milne will mean a record of 8 victories and one defeat.

FRENCH CLUB PRESENTS PLAY

The assembly program last Wednesday consisted of a play, "Nous Verrons" presented by the French club under the direction of Mr. Wilfred Allard of State College. The cast included Christine Ades, Mr. Allard, Barbara Allen, Luise Morrison, Ganson Taggart, Olive Vroman and Paul DePorte. Several other Milne students participated in the mob scene.

Mr. Allard obligingly took a leading part due to the inability of Osmond Smith, originally scheduled to act in the play, to participate.

MILNE GIRLS DEFEAT ALUMNAE

Last Saturday, the Milne girls started the morning off very early with a 19-15 victory in basketball over their alumnae. The game was scheduled for 8:30, and it was so early that the girls had just gotten home from the game the night before when they had to leave immediately for their game against the Alumnae. The score at the end of the first quarter was 6-0 with the Alumnae in the lead, and at the half, 10-8.

STUDENT COUNCIL DISCUSSES POINT SYSTEM, NOISY ANNEX, TARDINESS

The point system in Milne was discussed at the student council meeting last Tuesday. A group of changes in this system has been submitted to the faculty for their approval.

Dunton Tynan, president of the council, has asked the student body for more co-operation in the annex during the lunch period. If every student would co-operate, the difficulty would be overcome.

Lately there has been a lot of tardiness on the part of the council members to the weekly meetings. A regulation was passed that since student council convenes at 2:05, those members who are late twice will be put on probation.

MILNE ANNUAL ANTICS TONIGHT

Tonight at 8:30, the Milne girls will display their gymnastic ability at the Annual Antics. It will be in the Page Hall gym, and the admission will be $.25. The Milne School is urged to come.

The program for the Antics will be as follows:

- I Entry March
- II Military Tap Dance
- III Badminton demonstration game
- IV Topsy dance by Senior High group
- V Tumbling and Apparatus
7th and 8th grades
- VI Apparatus - Advanced class
- VII First half, championship basketball game - Jrs. vs Srs.
- VIII Arkansas Travelers - Sr. High
- IX Second half, B.B. game
- X Award of Championship cup
- XI Warrior Dance - Sr. High group

GIRLS TO MEET ST. AGNES

Next Wednesday at 3:00, the Milne High girls will meet the St. Agnes team in a two court basketball contest on the Page Hall court. Two years ago St. Agnes defeated a Milne Varsity in three court basketball. The girls have one victory and two defeats behind them. This will be the final game of the season.

The girls have been playing practice games with the Collegiate Center team, so they are well prepared to meet St. Agnes. The starting forwards will probably be Birchenough, Fromm, Vroman.

LITERARY LAMENTATIONS
OF AN EDITORIAL WRITER

To be an editorial writer or not to be an editorial writer,
That is the question.
Whether it is nobler in the mind to suffer
the slings
And arrows of outraged reformers.
Or to take arms against a sea of politics
And by opposing, end myself.

 Cowards die many times before their death
The valiant never read an editorial but once.

 Friends, Milnites and faculty,
Make me a temporary gift of thy auricular cavities.

I come to bury the editorial,
Not to praise it.
The good editorials do is never heard of
And the evil editorials do is NOT interred with their bones.
No such luck!
It lives after them.

 The quality of editorials is not strained,
It droppeth, as a gentle rain from heaven,
On the earth below ----
And everybody puts up an invulnerable umbrella!

WE LIKE.....

The new informality in classes that has enabled several of the English IV groups to hear phonograph recordings of famous operas during their class period. Several of the records were brought from the individual homes.

The way singing of Milne songs between the halves at basketball games has been conducted. In general, outsiders and rooters for the opposing teams behaved most creditably and all accorded their leader a most courteous attention.

The interest (aside from scientific) which the State College faculty shows in their laboratory school. Recently, Miss Agnes Futterer, Head of the Dramatics Department in the college, gave us the rare privilege of hearing the "Twelve Pound Look" spoken in monologue. And a month ago, Dr. Croasdale, of college, recited a beautiful allegory in a joint assembly.

The new stooge system which would seem to do away with the "ennuie" of transporting one's own books about the building.

The puzzle about the "three black spots" which nobody can explain well enough to make even the answer clear. Anyone who thinks he can figure it out will please reserve a room in ward 7 (psychopathic ward, to you).

The puzzle: An employer bandaged the eyes of three applicants for a position and marked a black mark on each forehead. Unbandaging their eyes, he said, "Whoever sees a black mark on some one's forehead, stamp your foot." Each applicant thereupon stamped his foot. Then the employer said, "Whoever knows what he has on his forehead raise his hand." After a moment one of the applicants raised his hand and stated that he had a black mark on his forehead. He got the job. Now how did he know that he had a black mark on his forehead? Better go and reserve your cell!

THE JOLLY MILNER

Question: What do you think of the revised after school slip situation?
Editor H. G.: Gee, look at it rain.

 Question: Do you think Socialism is a success?
Bill Emery: Excuse me while I rest; I'm awful gleepy.

 Question: Do you attribute your musical success to early training?
Alma Mater Winner: I don't know what's the matter with me today.

RHYME AND RHYTHM

"Poetry plus People equals Education plus Enjoyment," is the motto of Louis Untermeyer. Who knows but what some of the new Rho Gamma members will become a second Robert Frost or Henry Wadsworth Longfellow? What, you haven't heard that some of Milne's people are going poetic? A new poetry society has been started under the name of Rho Gamma with Dorothy Hoornbeck as president. The object of the club is to create an interesting study of poems and their authors. They expect to form anthologies of their own.

The club is open to all lovers of poetry and everyone is invited to join. The meetings are held on Fridays in room 228 at 11:00 A.M. Don't hide that secret passion for writing poetry. Join the poetry club and bring out your genius.

Quin:

Quotations were from Cicero. There was no program Tuesday as the election of officers took place. Christine Ades was unanimously re-elected President. The other officers are as follows: Lielie Sipperly, vice president; Marion Camp, recording secretary; Jane Doran, corresponding secretary; Cora Randles, treasurer; Sally Ryan, critic; Elsbeth Fromm, marshal.

Theta Nu:

John Skinner gave a very interesting report on the book, "New Deal," by Chase.

Initiation plans were discussed. A committee consisting of Edgar Miller, Douglas McKeon, and Sheldon Bond was appointed to order society pins.

Sigma:

The Works and Biography of Upton Sinclair was the topic of the literary program. Lois Lantz gave a report on the proposed candy sale.

The last part of the meeting was devoted to the reading of the Constitution and closed with the critic's report by Virginia Hall, and the singing of the Sigma song.

Adelphi:

The weekly literary report was given by Robert Dawes entitled, "The Case for Professional Football," a heated discussion followed by all the members.

Since there was no report from Miss Shaver as to boys who are eligible for a admission to the society, a temporary vote was taken on new members.

NOTICE: John Graham is not connected with the TIMES*UNION as stated last week

As Milne plays her last basketball game of the season, there will be only a few of the basketball fans for the school present. This is because the game is being played at Cobleskill. Nevertheless I imagine the bus will be quite crowded with boys and girls.

POPULAR SONGS FOR MILNE PEOPLE:

- Jay O'Brien*----P.S. I love You.
- Walt Simmons----You're the Top
- Ray Hotaling----You're an Old Smoothie
- John Graham----If I Had a Talking Picture of You.
- Chris and Ginny--Why Do I Dream Those Dreams?
- Ruth Campbell--Home on the Range.

There is a certain blue-eyed, blond and pretty junior who will not have to spend much money for bar meals while at the press convention at New York City next week. If you want to know who she is, ask Jay (Mgr.) O'Brien or Germain Keller. They will tell you all about it.

There was quite a gathering of fellows about one of Milne's most popular girls last Saturday night at the State Basketball game. Oh, well, that's the way it goes, eh Ralph?
P.S. Be careful of young Will Hotaling, Ralphie.

FREE TICKET FOR HI-Y-G.A.C. POSTER

"Tiny little fingerprints, (daubs of poster paint) are all around the school".

Could this be because the HiY and G.A.C. are offering a free ticket to the person submitting the snappiest poster advertising the HiY and G.A.C. dance?

These organizations will sponsor an informal dance on March 30 in the Recreation Center at $1.00 per couple, to the tunes of Russ Newkirk's Orchestra.

Try your luck at a free ticket with a poster advertising this dance.

SETS GROUP PLANS MODEL STAGE

A joint meeting of the Dramatics Club was held in the Auditorium, Monday. Bill Tarbox was appointed chairman of the sets committee for the play, "The Editor Shop". The play has been postponed from March 13 to March 20. Five dollars was appropriated to the sets committee to build a model stage. It will be a replica of the Page Hall stage and will be used to plan the sets for Milne plays.
