Biographical Sketch

Dr. Lawrence S. Wittner joined the History Department at the University at Albany in 1974 and retired as Professor of History in 2010. He is currently Professor of History Emeritus. He has held various positions in the leadership of United University Professions, the Albany County Central Federation of Labor (ACCFL), the Solidarity Committee of the Capital District, the Capital District Chapter of the World Federalist Association, Democratic Socialists of America (DSA), and Upper Hudson Peace Action. In 1979 he was first elected a member of the Albany UUP Executive Committee, and he continued serving in this capacity until 2017, including four years (1983 to 1987) as Vice-President for Academics. He also chaired the statewide UUP Solidarity Committee and, since 1979, has been an Albany UUP delegate to the ACCFL, serving as ACCFL executive secretary from 2011 to 2016 and as a member of the ACCFL executive committee since 2011.

Dr. Wittner was one of the founders of Albany DSOC/DSA. From 1981 to 1984 he was secretary of the organization, serving as a DSA National Board delegate in 1983. He also co-chaired the Capital District Labor-Religion Coalition from 1982 to 1984 and served as vice president of the Capital District chapter of the World Federalist Association from 1990 to 1995.

Over the years, he was also active in local and national election campaigns, including the campaigns of Ed Bloch (1984 and 1986), Nancy Burton (1985), Michael Dukakis (1988), Leon Van Dyke (1989 and 1993), Doug Bullock (2015 and 2019), and Alfredo Balarin (2016 and 2020). In 2015-2016, he was a leader in the Bernie Sanders presidential campaign in New York's 20th congressional district, and the voters in the 2016 Democratic primary elected him as a Sanders delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

Dr. Wittner received his A.B. from Columbia College, his M.A. in History from the University of Wisconsin and his Ph.D. in History from Columbia University. He is the author of numerous books, articles, reviews, and other scholarly works, and is a recipient of many scholarly grants and awards. He served numerous terms on the board of the Peace History Society (an affiliate of the American Historical Association) from 1970 to 2007, including two years as president (1977-1979), as a board member of the Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations (1982-1984) and as chair of the Peace History Commission of the International Peace Research Association (1998-2001). He has delivered lectures in dozens of countries, including lectures at the Norwegian Nobel Institute and at the United Nations.
